

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

FRED KURTZ, Editor
CENTRE HALL, PA., June 14, 1883.

Sherman and Thurman—transpose the initial letter of each name and you make the one out of the other.

Several prominent iron firms in Pittsburgh have failed within the past few days and reports say that at points further west like failures have occurred.

They are already agitating the question of another bridge over the East river, and in other large cities where such a bond of union would prove advantageous, the subject is becoming one of real interest, and may result in the construction of several such structures.

The Ohio Supreme Court Commission has just held that a fugitive who was extradited to that State from Pennsylvania for criminal prosecution and admitted to bail could not be served with a summons in a civil suit before he had a reasonable opportunity to return to Pennsylvania. It has more than once been decided by the courts that a person surrendered for one offence cannot be tried for another. The Ohio court has extended this doctrine to civil proceedings, and is, we believe, the first tribunal to do so.

In the House on Monday, 4, the three vetoes of Gov. Pattison were sustained. The first was a joint resolution for the propagation and protection of fish and appropriating money therefor; second, supplement to the bill relating to the organization and discipline of the National Guard, and regulating the allowance for army expenses; third, the bill relating to the collection of State tax and up on collateral inheritance tax, and defining the duties of auditors to the same.

Soldiers' orphan schools are not to close until 1890, which will be twenty-nine years after the commencement of the war. The Pittsburgh Post states that when the law was passed in 1864, caring for soldiers' children, none but orphans or half orphans were recognized, and thousands of destitute children of soldiers who were not orphans, but whose fathers were unable to provide them a living, were neglected and suffered, and it was only after the first lot had grown up that attention was turned to those not enumerated in the original law. But there is a disposition to run to the extreme by extending the time beyond reasonable requirements.

The famous old Bedford Springs summer resort has been sold by the Anderson heirs to a party of New York capitalists, headed by Vanderbilt, in the interest of the South Pennsylvania Railroad. The sum of $225,000 was paid for it. The new owners will take possession on October 1st, after the summer season is over. It is the intention of the new management to erect a new hotel and other buildings, and otherwise improve the place.

MODEL LAWMAKERS.

A despatch from Austin, Texas, says the Grand Jury has indicted from forty to fifty members of the Legislature for gambling. Quite a number of those indicted have left money with counsel to plead guilty and pay the minimum fine rather than to go to trial in court. Another despatch from the same place says some one entered the County Clerk's office one night and stole the indictments returned by the Grand Jury for violations of the gambling laws, including those against the members of the Legislature. There is no clew of the thief, but the sporting circles are greatly elated.

Stephen W. Dorsey, defendant in the Star Route trial, is not averse to occasionally speaking his mind in reference to political matters. The other day, while conversing with a correspondent of a Cincinnati newspaper he made some interesting allusions to ex-Senator Conkling's quarrel with Garfield over the appointment of Robertson, and concluded his remarks with this significant statement: 'Well, there are some things the layman does not now understand which will appear in a different light when a certain paper, or rather an agreement made on behalf of Garfield in behalf of the New York politicians at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, preceding the Presidential canvass, is made public. If this paper is published, it will be a curious revelation in the light of events subsequent to Garfield's election. It will explain many things now hidden. This is all I can now say.' Of course there was a bargain and Conkling got cheated.

An iron chain is in the course of construction at a foundry in Troy, N. Y., six miles long. The chain is made by order of the Government, and will be cut in lengths for use on war ships.

Donaldson, Donovan & Co., recently applied to Gov. Butler for the piece of tanned human skin which he used in evidence during the Tewksbury hearing. The Governor has refused to return it, saying that he does not recognize any property in human hides and advises the tanners to take out a writ of replevin.

The Reading Times learns that as soon as the new line is completed between Shamokin and West Milton the Reading company will run a through train from Williamsport to Philadelphia. This new train, it is reported, will make only a few stops, and the time between Philadelphia and Williamsport will be arranged to compete with the Pennsylvania road between those points.

Mr. L. I. Shuler, Pittsboro, Pa. says: 'Brown's Iron Bitters made a perfect cure of dyspepsia, which I had several years.'

Paris, June 4.—At a meeting of the Suez Canal Company to-day a proposal made by Comte de Lesseps to expand into the project for the construction of a second canal across the isthmus was adopted unanimously. M. de Lesseps assures the meeting that the English directors were giving loyal assistance and prophesied that another would be built.

FIFTY PERSONS ROASTED.

London, June 5.—Advises have been received from Sierra Leone, under date of May 2, that fifty persons had been roasted alive for witchcraft in the Thero district.

Ex-Governor Curtin, of Pennsylvania Kirkwood, of Iowa; Sprague, of Rhode Island; Blair of Michigan; Ramsey, of Minnesota, and Stanford, of California, are the survivors of the loyal Governors at the outbreak of the war.

FIDELITY.

My name is Mrs. Ellis, sir, Milwaukee is my home, And you must not be jealous, sir Because I no more roam In search of cures for that which would have brought me to the tomb. Which I could not have long withstood, The falling of the womb!—Peruna.

Reading, Pa., June 6.—The Thomas Iron Company have blown out all their furnaces at Lock Ridge on account of the dullness of trade.

Lewis & Co. do a larger business in clothing now than ever before. No opposition can take the trade from the Philad. Branch, and it is on the increase right along. This is natural, for where clothing is sold at such low prices as at the Philad. Branch, there is where the people will go for the article. Then they warrant all goods as represented, have one price for all, and every article plainly marked.

VITAL QUESTIONS!

Ask the most eminent physician Of any school, what is the best thing in the world for quieting and allaying all irritation of the nerves and curing all forms of nervous complaints, giving natural, childlike refreshing sleep always? And they will tell you unhesitatingly 'Some form of Hops!' CHAPTER I. Ask any or all of the most eminent physicians— 'What is the best and only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs; such as Bright's disease, diabetes, retention or inability to retain urine, and all the diseases and ailments peculiar to Women?'— 'And they will tell explicitly and emphatically 'Buchu'.' Ask the same physicians— 'What is the most reliable and sure cure for all liver diseases or dyspepsia, constipation, indigestion, biliousness, malarial fever, ague, &c., and they will tell you: 'Mandrake or Dandelion!' Hence, when these remedies are combined with others equally valuable And compounded into Hop Bitters, such a wonderful and mysterious curative power is developed which is so varied in its operations that no disease or ill health can possibly exist or resist its power, and yet it is Harmless for the most frail woman, weakest invalid or smallest child to use.

Almost dead or nearly dying? For years and given up by physicians of Bright's and other kidney diseases, liver complaints, severe coughs called consumption, have been cured. Woman gone nearly crazy! From agony of neuralgia, nervousness, wakefulness and various diseases peculiar to woman. People drawn out of shape from excruciating pangs of Rheumatism, Inflammatory and chronic, or suffering from scrofula! Erysipelas? Scurvy? Rheumatism, blood poisoning, dyspepsia, indigestion, and in fact almost all diseases frail nature is heir to. Have been cured by Hop Bitters, proof of which can be found in every neighborhood in the known world.
