RE-DEDICATION.

On Sunday, June 10, the Lutheran and Reformed church of Logansville, Clin-Reformed church of Logansville, Clinton county, Penn'a, was re-dedicated to the worship of the Triune God. The extent of the repairs covers the following items: New roof, new steeple, repainting and penciling of brick, new pulpit and altar furniture, new blinds, new carpet, repainting of inside of church, new chandelier and a very fine iron fence inclosing the church—the whole costing about $1200. Rev. J. K. Miller is the efficient pastor of the Lutheran church, the Reformed having no regular pastor. The outlook of Lutheranism since Bro. HARD FACTS AND PLENTY.

Oak Hall is simply a great retail Clothing House—the greatest of its kind in the country. Our Clothing is made upon honor. We would be worse than fools to expect to build and hold a business upon other than honest goods at the least prices. We neither hold nor buy the remains of wholesale stocks to run off at retail, but make every garment to sell direct to the wearer, under our cast-iron guarantee, a bond of good faith original with us and perfectly well known to everybody in the vicinity.

NO PRICES REDUCED.

We are not advertising reduced prices, but we are in position to offer the best bargains in Spring Clothing of every sort and upon many items very great bargains. In a very true sense all our
