LOCAL ITEMS.

—The fellows who predicted no hot weather for this summer, have crept in to the shade.

—Centre Hall has made a raise of late—it was made a postal money order office, and has the telephone.

—J. Cleand J. P. Condo, two of Penn Hall's live business men, called in our sanctum.

—Messrs. Lee and Meese, of the Loop, have purchased a steam spearator for threshing grain.

—Andrew Vonada has his plaining mill in operation now at Coburn station. Mr. R. F. Vonada, of the same place has added a dry-goods department to his grocery and will soon occupy a new room.

—Mrs. Stover, widow of Sam'l Stover of Boalsburg, died last week. Her husband's death occurred only a few weeks previous.

—John Mullen, of Renova, gave the REPORTER a call. John looks as though Renova agreed with him—still Centre Hall has strong attractions for him yet.

—H. B. Smith, of Ferguson, appears in the list as a candidate for Associate Judge. Mr. S. is a Mexican war veterna.

—John Rishel, of Potter, called at our office to inform us that the rumor that he had declined as a candidate for the nomination of Associate Judge, was unfounded. His card will be found in proper place.

—Michael Swartz writes the REPORTER from Stephenson county, Ill., July 2: We got over our wet season; we had no rain for two weeks; we will have a good crop of grain; all looks fair but fruit will be scarce.

—Mr. T. H. Harter, of the Middleburg Post, sustained with the REPORTER a short time last week. We took the Post man to our mountains that he might have a chance at the speckled beauties, and found that Tom just knew how to switch 'em out, and his success was such that he left for his home rejoicing.

—On the evening of the 4th a large sized balloon was observed by some of our people coming across the mountain. To the observers it seemed to land somewhere between Nittany mountain and the pike south of here. We judge the balloon was one let off at Lock Haven where a jollification was going on, with hot-air balloons in the program.

The telephone wire at Pleasant Gap was struck by lightning one night last week. The fluid followed into Noll's store where the bell connected with the instrument was melted. It knocked the talk out of the entire line between Centre Hall and Bellefonte.

—Our farmers are busy harvesting and have large crops. Barns will be well filled for the first time in many years. This is encouraging, and added to the fact that much money is saved by them in purchasing clothing from Lewins & Co., there is prospect for good times ahead. Farmers, as a general thing, go to the Philad. Branch for cheap clothing.

—The following gentlemen have been elected as trustees of the State Agricultural College of Centre county: Thomas J. Edge, of Chester; Leonard L. Rhone, of Centre; S. W. Starkweather, of Williamsport; Jacob M. Campbell, of Johnstown, and Cyrus Gordon, of Clearfield.

—The hundreds of railroad hands in this county have found out that they can do more labor when living on groceries from Sechler & Co., than the stuff bought elsewhere, for Sechlers offer nothing but what is fresh, pure and wholesome.

—A woman from Snyder county, passing through Centre Hall the other day, and seeing the telephone wires, remarked: Ei, in Centre Hall hen de Leit ihr Weeshline newer dee Stros 'spannt; ich wet net mei Waesch so public naus henke.

—We call the attention of any of our readers who are in want of a salaried situation, and who can fill the bill, to the advertisement in another column of R. G. Chase & Co., headed 'Salesmen Wanted." Write to them for particulars. 28j3t

FRESH MEAT.—James A. Deckert's Spring Mills meat market supplies fresh, stall-fed beef, constantly, also pork, veal and mutton in season. Potters Mills, Centre Hill and Penn Hall will be supplied from the wagon, two days each week. 10may6m

JOB PRINTING.—Having added some new founts of job-type to our office, and a lot of stationery at low prices, we can furnish 1000 printed envelopes at $1.75; ruled bill heads at $3.40 per 1000, and letter heads at same low rates, for cash.

Mr. N. C. Meyers, Reading, Pa., says: I found Brown's Iron Bitters very beneficial as an apetizer and for debility.

—Centre Hall came in for a share of the honors at the University Commencement, at Lewisburg, a few days ago. The David Henry Evans prize, for the best essay on the "Functions of the Modern Newspaper," was awarded to Wm. L. Kurtz, son of the editor of the REPORTER. There were four contestants, and the judges, Prof. Hill, LL. D., Rev. Dr. Cooper and Prof. Groff, were unanimous in making the award.

—A new firm, Dinges, Vonada & Co., has opened a general store at Coburn Station. The head of the firm, Mr. C. Dinges, late of this place, is a young man of energy and business tact, who will be missed here, in all circles—social and religious, and by his numerous friends generally. He will be worthy the confidence of the people at Coburn, and we wish him and the firm abundant success. Mr. Dinges having closed out his general store here, will however keep open a grocery under the management of his sister, Miss Annie Dinges.

—Thunder showers have been the order of the day and night for nearly two weeks. Week before last there was considerable grass cut but the continuous heavy rains spoiled it for hay. Last week there were short showers nearly every day, still farmers succeeded in getting in much hay in good condition, the weather being very hot with winds favorable for drying the mowed grass. Saturday night and Sunday there were heavy rains.

—During the heated summer term you can keep cool and preserve your health by using a frut diet. All the best canned and dried fruits are to be had at Sechler's grocery, and very low in price. They keep the choicest of these goods only.

—On Friday there will be a trial of binders, on the farm occupied by Peter Breon, 2 miles east of Centre Hall. Some four or five different machines will enter the field.

—Now is the time to get a cheap summer suit—a duster, pants, hat or any other summer garment—at the Philad. Branch. They have these goods in large sizes, all styles, all prices, for men and boys, and 25 to 30 per cent cheaper than elsewhere.

—Mr. John T. Lee, coachmaker, in this place, has just received a stock of best paints and varnishes, manufactured in this country, as well as some of the best of English make, and is now prepared to do painting in first-class style and quality, and at moderate charges. Any of our readers wishing a buggy, wagon or sleigh painted, will not regret having given Mr. Lee their order, as he will put on a shine that cannot be excelled in this section. Give him a trial and be convinced. He is also prepared to do all kinds of repair work on wood, trimming or paint. 2

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

Prospects for Spring Mills Academy are by appearance, for a larger attendence than any other previous term. Boarding can be had from $2.00 to $2.50 per week. Board of Trade in this place agreed to take the trade dollars at par value. Hay making about over—most of the farmers commenced cutting grain. Wheat and barley crops have not looked better the last ten years than the present one—some think state rule accounts for it.

A CARD.

A rumor having gone abroad that I had withdrawn as a candidate for Associate Judge, I desire to contradict this report, and inform all my friends that I have been in the field without any such intention up to this time and expect to remain a candidate subject to the decision of the Dem. Co. Convention, and shall feel greatful to all for their support.

The New York Herald says leg weakness in fowls is caused either by old age or by the size and weight of the body being more than the legs can bear. In the latter case the treatment should be such as to give strength. Citrate of iron dissolved in ale should be added to the food which must not be of too fattening a nature. Keep plenty of lime and crushed bones in the poultry yard. In severe cases immerse the limbs in cold water.

The undersigned hereby greatfully acknowledges the reception of a nice present from her friends in the Penns Creek (Lutheran) congregation. Accept the hearty thanks for this kind remembrance of one who highly appreciates and sincerely reciprocates the kind feeling which prompted this token of love and esteem.

DIED.

June 24, at Stone Mill, Potter township, Annie Barnes, aged 7 years, 11 months, and 9 days. She suffered intensely, but now rests.

June 27, in Tusseyville, Mrs. Catherine Lighty, aged 75 years. Mrs. Lighty about 18 years ago buried her husband, who died of consumption. Her seven children died of the same disease, and now she has followed also, dying under the lingering touch of consumption; she rests in peace. W. E. F.

On 25 June, near Rebersburg, Mrs. Polly Royer, wife of Col. H. Royer, aged 82 years, 9 months, 26 days.

Mother Royer was one of those hardy, hearty persons who enjoyed a long life without any particular bodily affliction. She made no trouble to her husband or children. Only about three days before she died she began to ail; very soon she passed away from time to eternity without suffering. Almost 62 years she was permitted to live with her husband—but her evening came. She was satisfied with life; she deserved to depart and live in a better country. Peace to her ashes.

W. M. LANDIS.

For the CENTRE REPORTER.

Departed this life, at Snow Shoe, June 16th Amanda M., wife of John T. Lucas, aged 21 years, 6 months and 22 days.

Though trained in the Sabbath school and to attendance upon divine worship in the house of God, the deceased while in health had failed to give attention to the claims of Christ on the interests of her own soul, and it remained for the closing hours of her life to witness the exercise of repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ unto salvation. While ordinarially little confidence can be placed in death-bed repentance, yet any manifestation of the divine grace in the dying hour should be greatfully recognized and acknowledged to the praise of God. In her case the change was marked and clear, carrying conviction to all who beheld it; and affording great comfort and satisfaction to the bereaved and sorrowing husband and friends. The anxious, distressed look gave place to the peaceful smile; the earnest prayer was followed by joyful praise and the words that fell from her lips told of a new found peace and joy—the peace of God in Jesus Christ, the joy of the Holy Spirit. We trust she has fallen asleep in Jesus and will have part in the first resurrection unto eternal life, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Let no one presume upon obtaining mercy in a dying hour, and spend the precious season of their probation in neglecting the great salvation. To-day is God's time, and the sinner cannot safely neglect it.

M. L. JACKSON.

MADISONBURG ITEMS.

The brick-layers for the Lutheran church are about finishing up their part of the work. Rev. P. Whitmeyer, Evangelical pastor, will hold his quarterly conference in this place, July 15. The voice of the reaper is once more heard in the land. Elias Miller has taken charge of the new mail route. The 17 year locusts will not appear until 1885—the last appeared in 1868. The early potato crop promises to be large. Green apples will soon be having a circus with boys. We are sorry to note that Mrs. Dan Hoy is confined to her bed. Spring chickens are reported ripe in Penns valley. Our friend T. B. Stover claims to have killed the first of the season a few days ago, which would go to show that he is a successful poultry fancier as well as a farmer. Andrew Ocker has lately purchased an elegant span of horses. A short time ago at a school in this country, during a lesson on the animal kingdom—the teacher put the following question: Can any boy name an animal of the order of edentata, that is a front tooth toothless animal? A boy whose face beamed with pleasure at the prospect of a good mark replied, I can. Well, what is the animal? My grandmother, replied the boy in great glee, and I'm going to sell all our butter and and eggs to I. E. Shafer and buy her a new set of teeth from Mr. Hosterman. Is anybody waiting on you, said a polite dry-goods clerk to a lady from a neighboring town who had just entered the store; yes sir, replied the blushing damsel, that's my fellow outside, he wouldn't come in; he is waiting for me to go with him to Madisonburg to buy dry-goods and provisions to begin housekeeping with.

Cholera is on the increase in Egypt.

Mr. Jas. W Rewalt, Wrightsville, Pa., says: I suffered from dyspepsia and heartburn, which Brown's Iron Bitters entirely relieved."

ORPHAN'S COURT SALE.—Will be sold at public sale, at the late residence of John Hinebach, dec'd. in Potter township, Saturday, August 18, 1883, the following valuable real estate, bounded and described as follows:

Two lots of ground, one thereof beginning at a post, thence north 33° east 65 perches to stones, thence south 58° east 19½ perches to stone, thence south 3½° west 46 perches to stones, thence north 78° west 2-5 perches to post, thence south 49° west 8 perches to a stump, thence north 60° west 15 perches to place of beginning. Containing SIX acres and twelve perches, thereon erected a house and stable and other outbuildings.

And the other thereof bounded on the north by Simon Ruble, on the east by Daniel Fleisher, on the south by M. Ulrich, containing four acres, more or less, no buildings.

Terms of sale.—One-third of the purchase money to be paid on confirmation of sale, one third in one year, and the balance in two years with interest, the deferred payments to be secured by bond and mortgage on the premises. Sale to commence at 1 p. m.
