The Nickerson divorce proceedings in Pennsylvania, says the Nation, have attracted more attention than usual in such cases, owing to the military rank of the husband, and the peculiar cruelty of the fraud alleged to have been practiced on his wife. It has forced upon the judges the necessity of taking some presention. The Nickerson divorce proceedings in his wife off to Europe with her daughter. his executor. This was in 1880. In Europe the daughter and mother remained, the Major promising to follow as soon as he could obtain leave of absence. She waited, but the did not come though he continued.

About that time letters and remittances began to be sent to his letters. Cases. Send to Dr. Kline, 631 Arch St., Philad., Pa. 11june y began to be sent to his daughter, and he ceased all communication with his wife. She asked him to explain, but he paid no attention to his letters. Finally she band had obtained a divorce, and had SECHLERS! married again. He had married, it seems, a few days after he had got his divorce, which showed, of course, that the object of his application was merely to marry again. More than all this, she learned that the ground on which the divorce was obtained was desertion. No notice of application had ever been received by her, there having been nothing but a GROCERIES newspaper advertisement. The whole GROCERIES proceeding was conducted by the plain-tiff in the absence and without the knowledge of the wife.

Various remedies are proposed to meet the difficulty in Pennsylvania. Several of the judges are in favor of making divorce more difficult by making it more expensive, as they say that people come to Pennsylvania for divorces rather than go to some western state, because they know they can obtain them there at bottom prices. Something like the "high licence" plan in liquor legislation FINE CANDIES. is therefore proposed-a fee in divorce cases sufficiently high ($500 is said to FISH. SYRUPS, ETC. have been suggested by one judge) to make a divorce trip to Penn'a unattractive. Of course the effect of this would only be to make it difficult for poor people, and it would constitute a curious divorce fee recalls the story of the English judge's sentence of a poor prisoner for bigamy, who pleaded in excuse that at the lowest living prices. Goods are his first wife had run off with another all newly bought, strictly fresh, and of man: "What you should have done," the very best kind. he said to the prisoner, "was to obtain a divorce. This, you will probably say, would have cost you 1,000 pounds, while you have not 1,000 pennies in the world. Pork and mutton, fresh and always I have to remind you, however, that that can make no difference, for England is not a country in which there is one law for the rich and another for the poor."

The requirement of a long term of residence is what is really needed to prevent fraudulent divorces, and also the abandonment of the antiquated practice of publishing notice by advertisement, except in cases where the defendant really cannot be found. There could have been no difficulty, if Mrs. Nickerson's story is true, in getting a notice to her through the mails.

PROCLAMATION:

Know all men by these presents that Valentine's Store Co. (Limited) have opened up the finest stores in Central Penn'a. They have always conducted business on the One Price System. It has been noticed of late that others have been trying to follow in their footsteps, from what they understand this is not by any means carried out by those who claim so to do. It his goods, as the public is aware of, have always been marked in PLAIN figures, followers have also sprung up to do this. Valentine's Store Co., Limited, being criterious of how to conduct a successful business, they are happy to lend their ideas for the help of human kind. They do not advertise any special prices, but from reductions made by some houses customers would conclude that the profits before reduction must have been something ENORMOUS. The public will always find Valentine's Store Co's, Limited, goods marked in PLAIN figures to the lowest noteh; their prices will compare at the START to the reduced prices made by others. You must always take into consideration that there are more than one quality of goods, (and that good goods are the cheapest). It is generally job or auction goods which are cut in prices. They have recently added to the extensive stock of general merchandise a line of 5 and 10 cent goods, which will well repay a call to see our all manner of USEFUL articles, too numerous to mention, from 5 to 10 cts each. Their special order system is reaching quite a magnitude, and for the benefit of those who require goods which cannot be purchased in Bellefonte they will order either from New York or Philadelphia—will give you this parting admonition: DO NOT FAIL to call upon them; it will repay the visit. They are to be found at Bush's Arcade, Corner of High & Water streets, Bellefonte, where they occupy three store rooms. Always highest prices paid for produce. for produce.
