

THE CENTRE REPORTER.
SUPPLEMENT.

CENTRE HALL, PA. July 11, 1883.

The Humorist's Furniture.

"A man entered the office the other day," says Puck, "heavily laden with a variety of objects. A bent pin stuck in the lapel of his coat; a custard pie was in his left hand; a pair of lavender trousers hung over one arm, while a bent piece of stovepipe was held under the other; a green apple was in his coat pocket; his other hand contained a plate of ice cream, a glass of soda water and a can of kerosene. Beside him walked a mule with a garden gate on his back, and a bulldog and a goat. He created a great deal of consternation until he stated that he was a journeyman humorist, accompanied by his professional instruments, which he desired to store for a few days, a request that was cheerfully granted by the staff.
