LOCAL ITEMS.

—There are two good places to go to—go home and go to dinner.

—Mrs. Proudfoot, wife of ex-Judge John S. Proudfoot, died at Milesburg, on July 13, aged 71 years.

—The Buffalo Run railroad is not sold, but a great lot of clothing is sold at the Philad. Branch cheap clothing store.

—Any smoker by using one cigar less every week can save more than enough to pay for the Reporter one year.

—Mr. Cyrus Burmagat, of near Wolf's Store, lost a valuable horse last week from some disease.

—Our young friend, C. R. Neff, late graduate of Franklin and Marshall college, opened a select school at Rebersburg on Monday.

—Best canned and dried fruits at Sechler's, cheaper than you can do 'em up at home—at wholesale and retail.

—George Durst sent a sample of the clover he raises on his farm, east of Centre Hall, to our office, which measures 5 feet 6 inches in length. Who can beat that?

—Dr. Herlicher, known to most of our readers, favored the Reporter with a call, and edified us with his experiences.

—Mr. S. A. Stover, of the Bellefonte Marble Works, called upon the Reporter. Mr. Stover is putting up some fine tombstones over here.

—Mr. C. Dinges, of Coburn, gave the Reporter a pop visit the other day. He speaks of the booming prospects of the new store there.

—S. A. Stover, of the Bellefonte Marble Works puts out first class tombstones and monuments, equal to any city work. He does work very low, and guarantees any job. Give Mr. Stover a call if you need any thing in the line of tombstones or monuments.

—Dinges' Centre Hall grocery keeps up a full assortment of all groceries, and all pure. Fresh goods are received all the time. Call there if you want goods at fair prices, and if you have any produce they will give you the highest market price for it.

—The nobility of Europe annoy Don Cameron very much by asking him where he gets his nice clothes. His reply always is, at the Philad. Branch, the best place in the United States for clothing.

—The Bellefonte papers give a lively account of the marriage of Mr. L. T. Munson and Miss Sallie, daughter of Hon. J. P. Gephart, in the Episcopal church of that place, on the 19. Mr. Munson and his bride have the congratulations and best wishes of the Reporter.

—Van Ormer, assistant editor on the Centre Democrat, it is said, will get down from the editorial tripod and mount the seat of a book-keeper in Philad. Sorry to see our young friend go. Success to him in his new place.

—A big picnic from Boalsburg drew up in Centre Hall, on Saturday, and accounted for the prongs of a fork thrust through his wrist, as he was coming down from the wagon causing a serious and painful wound.

—Mr. George Flory desires to express his thanks, through the columns of the Reporter, to the citizens of Centre Hall, for the substantial aid rendered him during the affliction in his family.

—No family is so happy and in constant good health and cheer, as that one which gets all its table groceries at Sechler's, where none but the purest and best groceries are kept. This is a fact worthy of note and trial, wholesome food, pure air and water, always mean long life and happiness.

—The people in the vicinity of Coburn will find the new store of Dinges & Vonada first class in every respect. They keep a general assortment and offer bargains that can not be excelled. They are capital young men, of known honesty, and deserve encouragement. They are in constant receipt of new goods and keep up with the times and styles.

—Can any one give us the whereabouts of J. S. Reed, formerly of Neff's Mills, Pa., as we have information of interest for him.

FRESH MEAT.—James A. Deckert's Spring Mills meat market supplies fresh, stall-fed beef, constantly, also pork, veal and mutton in season. Potters Mills, Centre Hill and Penn Hall will be supplied from the wagon, two days each week.

JOB PRINTING.—Having added some new fonts of job-type to our office, and a lot of stationary at low prices, we can furnish 1000 printed envelopes at $1.75; ruled bill heads at $3.40 per 1000, and letter heads at same low rates, for cash.

Mr. Samuel Adams, Lancaster, Pa., says: "I found a sure and speedy cure for biliousness in using Brown's Iron Bitters."

TWINE FOR GRASSHOPPERS.

John T. Ross, farmer up the valley, had 16 acres of grain which he cut with a binder and shocked. The other day when he went to haul it in, we are credibly informed, he found that there remained about 200 sheaves of the entire lot which were bound, the twine having been eaten off of all the rest by the grasshoppers, not so much as a knot remaining—the entire twine of the sheaves devoured. Should this be the tactics of the grasshopper, the next thing necessary will be a preparation to soak the twine with that will not be palatable to the hoppers, for to have sheaves unbound at this rate will anew make farmers wish the grasshopper were at the north-pole to chew up ice-bergs.

A RESPONSE.

EDITOR CENTRE REPORTER: In reply to your article in relation to our railroad, I say let us make an effort to have something done. There is no doubt that if the Penn'a Co. see that the citizens have stood their cheating and abuse as long as they intend to and are ready to fight them on it, that something will be done immediately, I will subscribe $25 to start a fund to defend our interests. Let us hear from others.

YOUR SUBSCRIBER.

Potter Township. We have received letters from others in a similar vein.

—A sad and fatal accident occurred on Monday evening two miles southeast of Boalsburg. Mr. Joseph Kohn and his family were at Feibler's Gap in the act of cutting down a tree; as the tree went down it struck another tree causing it to fall in a direction where Jacob, a 12 year old son of Mr. Kohn was, and struck the boy on the temple crushing the bone. Dr. Fisher was at once called and rendered all possible assistance; the lad lingered unconscious until 5 a. m. next morning, when he died.

—Maj. Reynolds boasts the following yield of wheat: Of 53 dozen threshed the result was 64 bushels, weighing 54 lbs to the bushel. Maj. Reynolds, like the editor of the Reporter, is a farmer, of course. Still our returns have not yet come in, so we can't tell whether we can get ahead of our bachelor friend.

—Take notice—that Lewins & Co., are not a traveling circus, but stationary. We don't want to sell you truck which we can't sell at home, and nothing we can't recommend and guarantee—and our guarantee means satisfaction or money refunded. No gouging and no truck at the Philad. Branch. In case you want truck or shoddy do not come to the Philad. Branch, as such is not kept by LEWINS & CO.

—Eag. Rishel, of Farmer's Mills, Wm. Farmer of the Loop, and Dr. Fisher of Boalsburg honored the Reporter with a call, Tuesday.

—Eag. Wm. J. Thompson, of Potters Mills, illuminated the Reporter sanctum with a call, on Tuesday evening.

—Jonath. Searfoss, of Beech Creek, late of Centre Hill, called into see the Reporter, Monday.

—Gen. Beaver and two sons are making a tour of the state by carriage. Sensible.

—John I. Thompson, trustee, advertises in Reporter sale of real estate of John Irvin, dec'd.

—Mrs. Willow, of this place is seriously ill.

—Some hogs have died around here lately, supposed to be of cholera. Carbolic acid, a few drops put into the swill barrel were told, acts as a cure.

—Prof. Hosterman's select school opened on Monday with 30 students, with prospect for 15 or 20 more.

—Wm. Pealer, merchant at Spring Mills, illumined our sanctum with his presence, on Tuesday.

—The Pleasant Gap band festival, Friday and Saturday, last, was largely attended, and the band realized handsomely from it.

—President Roberts and other Penn'a railroad officials were at Bellefonte on their trip to inspect the line, and look at a sight for a new depot. Before leaving they purchased some clothing at the Philad. Branch, finding it was sold lower than in Philadelphia.

—Summer suits are now much reduced in price at the Philad. Branch, in order to close out the stock on hand. Any one needing summer clothing will find it to pay by going to the Philad. Branch.

—Messrs. Burwall and Goldsmith of Philadelphia, captioned by the leading clothing merchant of our county, Mr. Sam'l Lewins, favored the Reporter with a call.

—On last Friday while unloading grain, in the barn, Mr. Alfred Hosterman had one of the prongs of a fork thrust through his wrist, as he was coming down from the wagon causing a serious and painful wound.

—Mr. George Flory desires to express his thanks, through the columns of the Reporter, to the citizens of Centre Hall, for the substantial aid rendered him during the affliction in his family.

—No family is so happy and in constant good health and cheer, as that one which gets all its table groceries at Sechler's, where none but the purest and best groceries are kept. This is a fact worthy of note and trial, wholesome food, pure air and water, always mean long life and happiness.

NOTICE.—On Sunday last a man came to the residence of the undersigned near Rebersburg, on horseback, saying he was from the Valley, stopping over for dinner, then left for Sugar valley, saying he intended purchasing horses. On Monday morning the horse with a new team saddle and bridle, returned riderless to my place. The horse is a bay about 6 years old, right hind foot white. The owner is requested to come for his property and pay costs.

NO GREASE FOR HIM "When Greece her knees—Greece her knees—Greece her knees," stammered an embarrassed schoolboy, forgetting the next line of his recitation. "There is no occasion to grease anybody's knees," shouted his teacher. "Go and study your piece." Neither is there occasion to grease your hair. Parker's Hair Balm is all the dressing you want. Restores the original gloss and color to gray or faded hair. Does not soil the linen; not a dye; good for the scalp; prevents falling out.
