DEATH OF JUDGE BLACK. The Eminent Jurist Passes Away at his Home in York.

York, Pa., Aug. 19.—This community was shocked this morning by the sad news of the death of Judge J. S. Black, and all day his many friends could be recognized by their sad faces seen on the streets. His life and services to his party and country have been the one theme of conversation here to-day. The whole community mourns his death. Judge Black was taken seriously ill this day one week, but his physicians had hopes of his recovery until yesterday at noon, when he was taken suddenly worse, and from that time sank rapidly, dying at two o'clock this morning. All his family were at his bedside except Mrs. Clayton, his daughter, wife of Colonel Clayton, who is on government duty in the west He died in an unconscious state. His trouble was stricture of neck of the bladder, occasioned by an unusually enlarged ly resigned to the will of God, showing Baily and Lemon, chiefs of the trensury his belief in that Supreme Being who judges the quick and the dead. His funeral services will take place from his late residence at five o'clock on Tuesday this place where he has a family lot. Dr. Powers of the Christian church of Washington has been summoned and will probably officiate. Judge Black died peacefully. From the beginning of his illness he believed that he would never recover and was perfectly resigned. Shortly before Judge Black died he said dark river when my Father waits for me on the other shore?" and added: "Would I were as comfortable about all I leave behind unfinished in this world," and then breathed the following earnest prayer: "O Thou beloved and most merciful heavenly Father, from whom I

The Reading News relates the following terrible tale: Mary, an eleven-year-old daughter of John Ortlip, reading in West Bradford township, Chester coonty died of bydrophobia this week after enduring agonies of a distressing character for over twenty four hours. The child was bitten by a strange dog some five years ago, but at the time nothing serious was feared, though the dog was discovered to be mad a little while afterward and was killed. On Saturday morning last the child, while at breakfast, was suddealy taken with spasms while endeavoring to drink coffee, and though the best of medical skill was brought to bear upon the case she continued to suffer until Sunday morning when death came to her relief. The bite was over the right eye and was a very trifling one.

DEFEAT OF THE ANNAMITES. Information has been received in Paris from the Governor of Cochin China that on the 19th of July Colonel Badens, with 500 men, made a sortie from Nam Dinn-Seven guns were captured and 1,000 Annamites were killed. Eleven Frenchmen only were put hors de combat. The Loodon Standard gives additional particulars from its correspondent at Hong Kong, who says:-"For the past two months the garrison at Nam Dinn has been shut in by the enemy, and the place has closely been invested. A sortie was resolved upon, and on the 19 was carried into effect. -All competition breaks down before the low prices in clothing at the Philad. Branch. All know this who have purchased clothing inside the last five years. Lewins & Co., do not make much profit on any article they sell, but then their low prices secure them a large trade, and there is where the profit comes in for them. That plan of doing business is good for the buyer and seller. There are few business men who follow this plan, but at the Philad. Branch clothing store it has been a standing rule.

IN THE PILOT HOUSE.

"Yes, sir; this kind of work obliges a man to keep sober as a judge. Of all men in the world, steamboat pilots and railroad engineers should let liquor alone. For on their clearness of sight and coolmess of head depends the safety of slife and property."

Keeping his hand on the wheel as he said this, fr. A. Brockman, of No. 201/2 Silver street, Chicago, added: "Of course, some of 'em drink; but the sober ones have the best positions and the best pay. Yes, the work and exposure sometimes tells on us; but for my part, I and Parker's Tonic to be all the invigorant I need. I've got a bottle aboard here now; never go on a tap without it. When I havn't any appetite, or am in any way out of sorts, it se s me up in no time. If drinking men would use the Tonic, it would help 'em to break off. (No, that isn't a light house; it's a star, low down near the water.) As I was saying, the Tonic is new life bottled up. You see that flag-staff? Well, with a bottle of Parker's Tonic in the locker I can keep malaria as far from me as that, all the time. My wife has used it for three years for summer complaints and colic, and as an invigorant, when she's tired out from Gerwork, She says the Tonic is a daisy. Good bye! Don't break your neck going below.

This preparation, which has been known as Parker's Ginger Tonic, will hereafter be called simply 'Parker's Tonic.' This change has been rendered necessary by substitutes imposed upon their customers by unprincipled dealers under the name of ginger; and as ginger is really an unimportant flavoring ingredient, we drop the misleading word.

Mesers Seabury & Johnson: I am slow to pin my faith to any new curative agent. BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER has won my good opinion. I find it an exceptionally cleanly plaster to use and rapid in its action. Many tests in its qualities in my own family, and among my patients, have convinced me that there is no other single article so valuable for popular use, none so helpful in cases of Lame Back, Local Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Congestion of the Bronchiai Tubes and Lames, and Lumbago. You may feel free to use my name.
