A novelty in Chicago is a "single-wheel exander & Co. buggy." A company with a large capital has been organized to manufacture and put it on the market. The invention Treaties and $2.00 trial bottles free to Fit SURFACE BOARDS, consists of a wheel attached to a horse by cases. Send to Dr. Kline, 631 Arch St. means of a pair of buggy shafts, and Philad., Ps. which will carry at the other end a buggy seat. The inventor claims that by

WILLIAM YOUNG VICTIMIZED. The Phila. Press contains the follow-ing account of the way in which Wil. J. H. BYRMESS' Rochester Fine Shoes for Ladies liam Young, recently of Mifflinburg, was and Children. fixed up by western sharpers:

Waukesha, Wis., Aug. 114.—The fact shoes we have a fine line of has just leaked out that William Young, president of a bank at Reading, Pa., has just been fleeced of a considerable & SLIPPERS Young arrived here and went into stylish quarters at the Fountain House. On Thursday afternoon a fine-looking young man approached Mr. Young. "Mr. Young, of Reading," said the stranger, "I am glad to see you. I have been traveling and have not seen anybody from home in weeks," and the young man informed Mr. Young that he was a son of Henry S. Eckert, president of the Second National Bank of Reading. He asked affectionately for news, and about Mr. Young's son, who is cashier in his father's bank, and other people in Read-ing. The two men separated agreeing to meet Friday morning at the Silurian ly

Promptly at the hour and the place GROCERIES AND named they met again. The stranger was in a bugzy and begged Mr. Young to get in and take an airing. He did so, and they started for Bethesda Park, which Mr. Young had not yet seen. When near the foot of main street, the stranger remarked that he had bought some lottery tickets, and guessed that he would see if they had drawn anything, so he halted in front of the widow Jone's house, and the two went in. They were of which was a wooden table, on which were a special drawing chart and a bunch FINE CANDIES. of numbered cards. A man at the table FISH, SYRUPS, ETC. said the stranger's ticket had won $1,000, penniless. He jumped from the table in a frenzied state and wanted the lottery men to take his note. "No sir." Up and down the floor the young stranger walked, picturing the horror of an exposure, and the sorrow of his respected father and mother, and the coolness of his hightoned friends. Light came at last. The Young, a bank president, and save Mr. pork and mutton, fresh and always Young's friend. The latter gave a note on hand. 30 nov. 1 lottery man would take the note of Mr. for $1500 for security, for seventy days,

Mr. Young began investigating, and found that he had been swindled. On Saturday he informed the Sheriff, and before night the agreeable young strang-
