The Lock Haven Democrat, of 30 ult. says : Between one and two o'clock on the morning of August 22d, the barn of John Esterline was struck by lightning and in less than twenty minutes' time the barn was burned to the ground. All his hay, grain, four head of young cattle, ten sheep, five two-horse wagons-one being loaded with chop and flour-together with all his farming implements, were burned, and it was only through the aid of his neighbors that the other buildings were saved. It was insured in the Sugar Valley Mutual Fire Insurance Co. for $1500.

In the afternoon of the same day the new barn of Mr. Geo. Shroyer was also struck by lightning. The stock and most of the farming implements were saved. It was insured in some New York com pany for only $500.

When you feel yourself gradually breaking down don't wait until you have taken to your bed. While you are still able to be up and about fight the grim monster disease by the use of the proper restoratives. The best remedy for malaria, indigestion, weak kidneys, constant fatigue, fits of diziness, heart disease, short breath and other complications of a disordered system is Brown's Iron Bitters. Its magic influence in conquering diseases of an exhaustive na- HANAN & SON'S. ture is most astonishing.

We referred briefly to the death of Count de Chambord, and will now give and Children. a synopsis of what the "North American" says concerning this notable personage : MEN'S CALF & KIP BOOTS. The last of the Bourbons is no more The great dynasty that ruled France for many centuries is ended. The last of the race, although he never possessed regal authority over France, was looked upon by many as their legitimate soverign. When the crown was offered to him he refused it, because he was unwill ing to rule except under the white flag the Bourbons. He preferred to be true to his own idea of what was due to him to reigning under the tricolor. His flag was to him the emblem of what belonged to him as a birthright. The tricolor denoted the change from the ancient regime. He possessed many of the qualities which made some of his ancestors great rulers, but they were not qualities suited to his time or age. He was not one to bend circumstances to his will He bided his time and it came not. He loved France too well to attempt to be- TEAS, COFFEES. come her Monarch by means of insurection or a coup d'etat. What might have been the fate of France under Henry V. we can only conjecture. Perhaps she would have had less carnage and ewer disasters, but she would not probably have been as great and enlightened FINE CANDIES. a nation as she is to-day. The hopes of FISH, SYRUPS, ETC. family, and the quickly shifting scenes GLASS, CHINA, WOOD AND of the great theatre of France may before long display one of them upon the throne, undeterred by foolish prejudice for kingly faith, whichever it may be ron ruling under any flag the people

Malarial poison can be entirely re moved from the system by the use of Ayer's Ague Cure, which contains a sure pork and mutton, fresh and always specific, in the form of a vegetable product on hand.

Beef of the choicest cattle, veal, pork and mutton, fresh and always on hand.

THE ALEXANDER MURDER TRIAL The trial of Samuel Longwell, for the murder of Reed Alexander, came off at Lewistown, last week. The grand jury found a bill for manslaughter. The deense was that the killing was unintenonal, the blow struck being in self-de-counsel for Longwell and District Attorney J. M. Woods, and his father, D. W. Woods, for the Commonwealth. The jury were out one hour, and rendered s verdict of guilty. A new trial was asked for, and overruled after argument, and the prisoner sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and costs of prosecution, and to fiveFleming and costs of prosecution, and to five Adams Milesburg the western penitentiary.
