On 28th ult., a serious swindle was practiced upon Mr. H. C. Shirk, living about 3 miles south of Centre Hall, by a horse dealer, who registered at Centre Hall as James Santee, and represented himself as coming from Hazleton.

On the evening of above day he came to Mr. Shirk's and bargained for two valuable horses, for which he gave Mr. Shirk his check for $375 on the Lewisburg bank. Mr. Shirk some time afterwards came to Centre Hall and had a telegram sent to Lewisburg about the check and received a reply that Santee was not known there and had no funds in the bank. The reply, unfortunately, was almost a day in reaching here, from some unaccountable delay and this gave Santee a good start to get away with the horses. The route he took was through Brush valley and of course for some point on the river. Mr. Shirk and others at once went in pursuit and the first track of the swindler was obtained at Dewart, where he had offered the horses for $175 but found no purchaser, perhaps from suspicion created by the low price asked. On Friday morning Mr. Shirk and Mr. Julian Fleming, the latter having the warrant, caught up with Santee at Plymouth, three miles this side of Wilkesbarre, still in possession of the horses, where he was arrested. It was then found that his name was not Santee, as signed on the check, but Gardner. The prisoner was taken to Wilkesbarre where a hearing could be had.

Gardner managed to compromise the matter with Mr. Shirk, as the latter did not feel inclined to bear the expense of a prosecution. Mr. Shirk sold his horses in Plymouth. Gardner was fortunate in getting off so easily.

VITAL QUESTIONS.

Ask the most eminent physician Of any school, what is the best thing in the world for quieting and allaying all irritation of the nerves and curing all forms of nervous complaints, giving natural, effulgent refreshing sleep always?

And they will tell you unhesitatingly "Some form of Hops!"

CHAPTER I.

Ask any or all of the most eminent physicians; "What is the best and only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs; such as Bright's disease, diabetes, retention or inability to retain urine, and all the diseases and ailments peculiar to women?"

"And they will tell you explicitly and emphatically, "Buchu."

Ask the same physicians "What is the most reliable and surest cure for all liver diseases or dyspepsia, constipation, indigestion, biliousness, malarial fever, ague, &c., &c.?"

And they will tell you: Mandrake or Jandelion! Hence, when these remedies are combined with others equally valuable

And compounded into Hop Bitters, such a wonderful and mysterious cure power is developed which is so varied in its operations 'hat no disease or ailment can possibly exist or resist its power, and yet it is Harmless for the most frail woman, weakest invalid or smallest child to use.

CHAPTER II.

"Almost dead or nearly dying?" For years, and given up by physicians of Bright's and other kidney diseases, liver complaints, severe coughs called consumption, have been cured.

Women gone nearly crazy! From agony of neuralgia, nervousness, wakefulness and various diseases peculiar to women.

People drawn out of shape from excruciating pain of Rheumatism. Inflammatory and chronic, or suffering from erysipelas!

Salt rheum, blood poisoning, dyspepsia, indigestion, and in fact almost all diseases that Nature is heir to. Have been cured by Hop Bitters, proof of which can be found in every neighborhood in the known world. sept 14

GEORGE'S VALLEY NEWS.

The self-propelling threshing machine came through this valley the other day, caused quite an excitement. IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Catharine Stover, wife of Samuel H. Stover, Boalsburg, Pa., was born in Lebanon county, Pa., April 29, 1813, and died June 21, 1883.

Since the death of her companion, in March, she was the solace and consolation of the tender hearts of her home. In spite of the tender assiduties of a sympathizing family and friends, the unremitting care and attention of her anxious relatives, her strength and vitality gradually faded, and although death seemed sudden was not without premonition. She was an affectionate mother, a kind neighbor. A model of gentleness, patience, and devotedness to her family. In the sanctity of her home her voice, soothed the dutiful child, and cheered the discomfited husband who, when met with difficulties which seemed to crush the spirit of man and subdued his strength to the weakness of a child, they were met by her with a courage that seemed to increase proportionately to its demands. She governed her household with a tender, unimpassioned, but earnest manner. The large concourse of citizens and friends, that had assembled to honor her at the last solemn ceremonies on the 4th of July, bears witness how highly she was esteemed. The love which survives the tomb is one of the noblest attributes of the soul.

"Ay, go to the grave of buried love and meditate! There settle the account with thy conscience for every past benefit unrequited, every past endearment unreturned, and every dear friend who can never, never return to be soothed by thy contrition. Then wear thy chaplet of flowers and strew the beauties of nature about the grave; console thy broken spirit if thou canst with these tender yet futile tributes of regret, but take warning by the bitterness of this thy contrite affliction over the dead, and henceforth be more faithful and affectionate in the discharge of thy duties to the living." THE R. R. MEETING.

The railroad meeting held at Meyer's Hotel, in Centre Hall, on Thursday afternoon, 30 ult., was largely attended by stockholders from the valley and Bellefonte. The meeting was organized by electing the following officers: President—Fred'k Kurtz. Secretary—Geo. M. Boal.

Upon request the object of the meeting was stated in a brief address by the chairman who proceeded to give a history of the transactions between the railroad company and the stockholders; the promises of the former to build the road if the townships subscribed the stock apportioned to them respectively; that the townships of Miles, Haines, Penn, Gregg, Potter and Harris responded by subscribing and paying upwards of $200,000; that in addition the company demanded the right of way, which was also given, and the lands taken, and now for ten years the company had failed to come up to its promises; the purpose of the meeting being to again urge the company to do us justice, and in case of failure to seek what other remedy might be left for us. On motion of Mr. D. Hess a committee of five, to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, was appointed by the chair as follows: D. Hess, L. Rhone, Geo. W. Campbell, John Arney and Wm. A. Boal. In the absence of the committee remarks were made by Hon. Sam'l Gilliland, Col. Jas. Milliken, and C. D. Le, sr. and others.

The committee reported the following preamble and resolutions: WHEREAS, The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, through its agents at various times, urged upon the people of Pennsylvania to subscribe stock for the grading of the Lewisburg, Centre and Spring Creek Railroad, agreeing on its part to construct and complete the said road within five years, as stipulated by the charter; and

Whereas, The said company did, through its agents, demand and receive for this purpose from Haines township, $30,000; from Miles township, $20,000; from Penn township, $40,000; from Harris township, $30,000; from Potter township, $40,000; and from Gregg township, $40,000, and in addition, demand and receive a guarantee of right of way at additional heavy expense to the citizens of the said townships, and has taken possession of valuable farm lands for its road bed, and now for a period of ten years or more, has left said road uncompleted, contrary to its pledges, and after calling from us the stock and taking possession of the land; therefore,

Resolved, That we, the stockholders of said road in Pennsylvania, after submitting to this wrong for over ten years, do hereby request the Pennsylvania Railroad Company the fulfillment on its part of the stipulations with us by the completion of the Lewisburg and Lyons R. R., without further delay, which we are entitled to by every principle of law and justice.

Resolved, That having patiently submitted to a repeated violation of promises in years past, we request the extension of the road aforesaid from Spring Mills to the present terminus at Lamont, at which point the road has been graded by the people according to contract.

Resolved, That justice and honor demand of the Penn'a R. R. Company prompt action in this request for our road by an early completion of the said road and that a further refusal to do justice to its shareholders is a gross injustice to the people who have fulfilled their part of the contract.

Resolved, That a committee of five stockholders be elected by this meeting to consult with Strickland J. Kneess, the President of our road, and the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, for an early completion of our road.

Resolved, That the said committee be instructed to report through the press or at another meeting, if deemed necessary, the result of their labors and what further action may be necessary on the part of stockholders and land owners, should their appeal for justice, meet with no favorable response from the Penn'a R. R. Company.

The resolutions were discussed by ex-senator Alexander J. L. Spangler, Judge Orvis, General B. aver, L. Rhone, Colonel Milliken and others, all of the speakers endorsing the resolutions, and expressing themselves warmly in favor of the completion of the road; and disapproving of the injustice done the people by the Penn'a RR in not fulfilling its promises. The resolutions were adopted, and a full and free discussion, on motion of Judge Orvis, were unanimously adopted.

In accordance with the resolution to appoint a committee to meet the Board of Directors of the Penn'a RR, the following gentlemen were appointed by the meeting: Sam'l Gilliland, Fred'k Kurtz, L. Rhone, John I. Thompson, and Wm. McFarlane. The original resolution called for a committee of three, which, on motion of Judge Orvis, was increased to five. The best feeling prevailed and the action is full of promises that good results will follow the mission of the last named committee. On motion adjourned.

Governor Curtin was invited to be present. The following letter explains his absence and his feelings: BELLEFONTE, August 24, 1883.

Daniel Hess, Esq.—Dear Sir:—I leave home on my way to the Pacific coast on Wednesday and cannot be at the meeting called in the interest of the railroad from Spring Mills to this place. I have not failed to press upon the authorities in the Penn'a R. R. Co. the justice and policy of finishing the road. My impression is, from all that occurred at the last meeting on the subject in Philadelphia, that the Penn'a R. R. Co. really designs to build the road and without unnecessary delay. The meeting should present the facts fairly and deliberately, and the injustice done those who paid their money on promises not fulfilled, would be so apparent that it will greatly assist in hastening final action.

I am quite sure that the citizens of Bellefonte are generally anxious to have the road finished and will unite with the valley in any effort to accomplish it. Yours truly, A. G. CURTIN.

LEWISBURG, Aug 23th, 1883.

Daniel Hess,—Dear Sir,—I regret that owing to my wife's illness it will be impossible for me to attend your railroad meeting. I appreciate, and have again and again pressed the claims of your people upon the consideration of the Penn'a R. R. Co. Your people having at great sacrifice complied with the conditions, mutually accepted, they have a right to insist that it should be complied with by the other side. Your claims cannot be too strongly stated, but I would advise moderate action. The men in the P. R. R. Co. who inaugurated and partially completed our work, have passed away. The present management is probably as intelligent and just as was the former. I believe that they mean to finally meet all the obligations their predecessors assumed with our people. Our aim should be to show them that it is their interest as well as duty to do it promptly. Very Respectfully, ELI SLIFER.

With alarming rapidity despite the quarantine regulations contained eastward day by day the steady march of the Asiatic Cholera, spreading alarm and terror in every now locally attacked and proving to be the most virulent type. As a safeguard procure from J. D. Murray a bottle of Carmelite Cordial remedy worth its weight in gold in curing Cholera and all intestinal irritations.

The principal hospitals throughout the United States report more favorably on Carmelite Cordial than any remedy ever offered for Cholera. As a general Pain currier and family remedy for summer cramps and intestinal irritations incident to the heated term it is without equal. No family should be without a bottle.
