HAS MR. NEW RESIGNED?

Rumors that His Friends will Not

Allow Him To. WASHINGTON, Sept. 8 .- Mr. New, assistant secretary of the treasury, said that the pub lished reports that he had resigned were un founded. He had not resigned, and did not propose to talk on the subject. It is under stood that efforts are making by his friends particularly those from Indiana, to induce him to reconsider his determination to resign. An Indianan who holds a prominent position in the treasury department, said, after a long conversation with Mr. New, that the latter's friends would not allow him to resign. It is believed that the visit of Postmaster General Gresham to the White House immediately upon the arrival of the President was with reference to Mr. New's resignation. It is thought by Mr. New's friends that he should be allowed a sufficient leave of absence to attend to his private affairs in Indiana, and they believe that should this be done he will not Watterson on the Beauties of Peace. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 8.—An excursion party of southern and western editors were tendered a reception at the exposition and were addressed by Henry Watterson. Referring to the gathering of products from al over the Union in response to the invitation from Louisville, Mr. Watterson said: "There is in this a deep and touching significance It tells us that the genius of work has put its foot upon the genius of war. It means that underneath our political fabric there is a popular character strong enough and pure lough to rise above all sections and all par ties, giving the world assurance of homoge neity of the people and the perpetuity of the national life. I am sure there is no one or you, whatever his party belongings and whencesoever he may have come, whose heart does not thrill with a glad emotion in the presence of this spectacle. It is the hostage which the south offers the north. If unimportant, and therefore it is safe to assume that the country is in no danger of anything like a panic.

A Prisoner Chained and Shot At. RALEIGH, Sept. 8 .- On Sunday mornin ast three prisoners escaped from the McDow ell county jail, and on leaving the building rudely pushed Mrs. Finley, the jailer's wife aside, injuring her slightly. The fugitive were the same morning recaptured and re turned to the jail. About 10 o'clock repeated pistol shots at the jail attracted the attention of a number of citizens, who were surprised and indignant to find the jailer, enraged by the treatment of his wife, and inflamed by whiskey, shooting one of the prisoners, a ne gro, as he stood in a cage chained and hand cuffed. Four painful wounds were inflicted. none of which are dangerous.

Attacking School Girls at their Desks TARBORO, N. C., Sept. 8.—While the public school near Williamson was in session, Abner Eason, a lunatic, broke down the door, and armed with a club, entered. He believed that he had been doomed to eternal torment unless he offered a sacrifice of two hundred female children, and calculated on killing twenty-eight in the school room. He at once began the attempt, and girls were felled right and left by his club. He was surrounded by the boys and their teacher, and was only overpowered after he had been knocked senseless. Some of the girls were painfully but, it is believed, not fatally hurt.
