FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

Two Men Killed and Many Others Believed to be Injured.

New York, Sept. 12.—As the 7 o'clock train last night was leaving the Hunter's Point, L. I., depot a train returning from Sheepshead Bay crashed into it with terrible force. The parlor car next the engine on the race train was shivered into fragments, and from the jagged debris arose a fearful cry of agony. No one on the other train was hurt.

Later—J. Meredith Norris, of Philadelphia, a passenger on the incoming train, has reported to be doing well and no more deaths are expected. The coroner will hold an inquest. The blame of the accident is generally laid on the engineer of the race train.

WINKING IN CHURCH.

An Act that Led One Member to Assault Another.

EVANVILLE, Ind., Sept. 10.—The Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church here is the leading church in the city. It possesses a very wealthy and aristocratic congregation.

Their Marriage Proved. CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Further light has been thrown upon the Jones-Bigelow scandal.
