The Union seminary at New Berlin, Pa., is being remodeled and enlarged and will be completed in a few weeks.

Macramé cord in ten colors at Garman's.

Wm. J. Thompson thinks that a tramp who roosted in the barn on his mountain farm caused the burning of it, by carelessness. Implements belonging to Conner and others were burned with the barn.

Marino history and underwear at Garman's.

At the grange picnic some fellow's horse tied near the steep side of the mountain got loose, and rolled down a short way, so it could not manage to roll back again. But that it's not true that some things can be done as well as others. The horse was not hurt.

Wm. F. Smith, of Millport, sold his tract of lumber land on Paddy mountain containing 2,200 acres, reserving right to saw off white pine and hemlock timber, to Zimmerman & Beachler, of Pine Grove, Schuylkill Co., for $18,500.

Ben Arney did some queer squirrel hunting one day last week. He sent a ball through one lengthwise, taking the insides out of the animal slick as a whistle. Another popping into its hole a second before Ben was ready, he fired into the tree a foot below the hole, and killed the squirrel in the tree. Ben's ahead for that kind of shooting, and when he is around it would seem a squirrel is not even scarce in its hole.

On Saturday of last week, Mr. Nicodemus Lane, of Haines, lost a valuable horse which had one of its hind legs broken by a kick from another horse, while running in the field, and in consequence he had to shoot the animal. We feel sorry for Demus, as he is one of the most upright farmers in the valley.

Strictly one price and that the lowest at Garman's.

Linon lace and embroidered collars at Garman's.

The fall stock of ready-made clothing, at the Phila. Branch, has exceeded anything heretofore opened there. Hundreds have already availed themselves of the low prices and purchased fall suits of the latest styles. In fall overcoats, they laid in a special stock and are selling exceedingly low, and have hold more than any other half dozen stores in the county. If you need anything in the line of men's or boys' clothing, never purchase until you have examined and priced the goods at the Phila. Branch.

Loss.—On Friday night last, between Barnes' toll gate and Centre Hall, a pocket book, containing two $10 bills and five $1 bills, and a note for $25 dated June 2, 1883; a suitable reward will be given to the finder by leaving the name at the Reporter's office, or with T. C. Bell, at Pleasant Gap.

DEATH OF JOSHUA POTTER.

This well-known and highly respected citizen died at his home, three miles west of Centre Hall, on last Saturday, at 6 a. m. Mr. Potter was an old resident; he was a mill-wright by trade, but followed farming exclusively, perhaps for the last 40 or 50 years. A more upright, conscientious citizen lived not within the limits of our county. He was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church, and liberal in his support of it, as well as in his benevolence towards all other worthy charities. He was a firm Democrat, and honest and consistent in his political professions. Mr. Potter's health had been on the decline for the last two years. The last few weeks of his illness were attended with great suffering, but he bore it all with true Christian fortitude. He was the father of a large family all of whom seem to have inherited the estimable qualities of their sainted father. Peace to his ashes.

Sugar Valley soldiers' re-union, at Loganville, on Friday, 26th, with grand march from Loganville to the camp ground during the day and a full dress parade in the evening, with camp fire at 6 o'clock; Saturday, 27th, sham skirmish on the grounds and in the surrounding woods.

Mr. Sam'l Krape, an aged citizen, living southwest of Millheim, died on Saturday.

It rained all day on Monday.

The cheapest place in Centre county for dry goods is at D. Garman & Son's Bellefonte.

PERSONAL.—Calvin Rossmann, of Zeiglerville, pleased us with a call the other day. Will Harpster, a native of this place, now of Freeport, Ill., being home on a visit, smiled in on the Reporter; Will looks well and is doing finely in the west. Mr. J. W. Barr, of Rebersburg, gave us a call; he reports corn damaged and apples scarce in Bushyville, and farmers done seeding. W. B. Smith, of Michigan, son of Dr. Smith, dec'd., of the place, called in to see us, looking as happy as a fellow who had just got married, and in fact, we soon found out that that was just what he had done and done, as will be seen under appropriate head in another column. May Will and his happy bride never know sorrow. Mr. Jas. O'soon, one of Harris' best farmers, gave us a call and reports things generally flourishing up that way. Mr. J. C. Musser, of the east end of Miles Gap, favored our sanctum with a call; he reports the late seeding up and looking finely.

Mrs. Amanda Stover, nee Smith, of Mich., also looked in upon the Reporter. Miss Bradley, in company with Mrs. Cole, of Bellefonte, illuminated our sanctum with their smiles, the other day. Always pleased to have calls from the fair sex.

MUTE.

Most wondrous cure beneath the sun Was that in Quarryville,
Where A. B. Miller, farmer's son,
Was deaf and very ill.
For long, long years no sound could reach
This worthy, suffering man,
But when Peruna sought the breach,
His cure at once began.

VITAL QUESTIONS.

Ask the most eminent physician
Of any school, what is the best thing in the world for quieting and allaying all irritation of the nerves and curing all forms of nervous complaints, giving natural, childlike refreshing sleep always?

And they will tell you unhesitatingly
"Some for of Hope!"

CHAPTER I.

Ask any or all of the most eminent physicians:
"What is the best and only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs; such as Bright's disease, diabetes, retention or inability to retain urine, and all the diseases and ailments peculiar to women?"

"And they will tell you explicitly and emphatically, 'Buchu.'"

Ask the same physicians
"What is the most reliable and surest cure for all liver diseases or dyspepsia, constipation, indigestion, biliousness, malarial fever, ague, &c., &c., and they will tell you:
"Mandrake or Dandelion!"

Hence, when these remedies are combined with others equally valuable
And compounded into Hop Bitters, such a wonderful and mysterious curative power is developed which is so varied in its operations that no disease or ill health can possibly exist or resist its power, and yet it is Harmless for the most frail woman, weakest invalid or smallest child to use.

CHAPTER II.

"Patients."
For years, and given up by physicians of Bright's and other kidney diseases, liver complaints, severe coughs called consumption, have been cured.

SHOT BY HER BROTHER.

Adamsburg, Snyder county, Sept. 24.—At Mills, a small village six miles from here, resides the family of John Kahley. This morning James, aged fourteen years, took down a shot gun from its accustomed place and began fooling with it not knowing that it was loaded. His sister Cora joined in the pastime and while the two were thus engaged the weapon was discharged. The contents struck the girl, entered her body and before assistance could be rendered she died.

Smith's German Oils is no new experiment. It has been in use for ages in Germany, but the secret of its manufacture was jealously guarded and only known to a few.

Estrey.—A horse with saddle and bridle, came to the premises of the undersigned, several weeks ago. The horse is a bay about 6 years old, right hind foot white. Owner is requested to come for his property and pay cost.

If your hair is turning gray, don't use the poisonous dyes which burn out its life and produce many diseases of the scalp. Ayer's Hair Vigor is positively harmless, and will restore the natural color of the hair, stimulate its growth, and bring back its youthful gloss and beauty.

LOST $8.00.
The man who was fond of watermelon ate too much, was attacked with cholera morbus, lost four day's work worth $8.00, suffered excruciating pain. Three doses of Carmelite Cordial taken in time would have saved the money and cost only 25 cents for the trifling outlay of 75 cents.

Cartie's Carmelite Cordial, the great remedy for cholera, dysentery, cholera morbus, diarrhoea, cramps, and all intestinal irritations incident to the heated time or changes of climate, diet or water, is sold everywhere and absolutely guaranteed or money refunded in every instance. DEATH OF DR. WILSON.
Dr. Wm. I. Wilson, died at the home of his daughter, in Bellefonte, on Saturday last, aged about 29 years. Dr. Wilson was widely known in this county and outside, and intimately to the citizens of this part of the valley, where he practiced medicine for upwards of 25 years. He started in his profession at Earlstown about 15 miles south of Centre Hall, where he remained a long time occupying the premises on the farm now owned by Jas. C. Beal. He subsequently moved to Pottery Mills, where he built a mansion and made his home as above mentioned at Bellefonte. Dr. Wilson's practice was very extensive, and was all attended to on horseback; he was skilled in his profession, and visited the rich and poor alike—day and night. The poor found him easy and benevolent, he rendered much medical aid without ever troubling his patients for pay—a natural trait of kindness. He was highly esteemed by all. He was the father of Mrs. A. G. Curtis. His funeral on Tuesday afternoon was attended by a large concourse of people, who paid their last respects to one who in his day was their friend and benefactor.

Sept. 21, near Tusseyville, Merta C., daughter of H. C. Shirk, aged 1 year and 11 months.

IN MEMORY OF MERITA C.
O weep no more, fond mother,
She has but gone before,
And you'll meet in the hereafter
When the storms of life are o'er.
And take the last kiss,
But remember that the world
Is happier far than this,
Look on the bright angels,
Though thou art sorely tried,
In the taking of thy treasured gem,
Thy soul occupies the side,
Her little bark is safely moored
In the haven of rest above.
And grieve no more at things well,
Hath chastened thee in love.
And thou, the only daughter,
Thou wilt miss her voice of glee,
And never more on this side of heaven
Her little form thou'll see,
Tis a tie to draw thee closer
To thy home above the sky,
There one's heart to love here,
But one the more on high.

These are the First Days of the Fall Business,

already the hum of activity begins. We launch the busy season with

Some

Special Things

that prove to be strangely low. A few of these have been in store some days, but, to give everybody a fair chance, we held the announcements until the return of people from their holidays.

A good lot of first-rate Cashmere for 50 cents (all wool). The new tariff will prevent this quality from ever again selling at this price.

A Bleached Muslin, full yard wide, for 10c. The best we ever had at that price.

The best Twilled, All-Wool Red Flannel we ever sold for 25c.

The best Canton Flannel for 12c. We never could get so good a quality at the price before.

An extraordinary lot of Towels at 25c. Eight lots of Ladies' and Children's Hose that are on our counters at 25 per cent. under prices.

A good 36-inch-wool Cashmere at 40 cents. An excellent Black Suing, 42 inches, at 50 cents. We sold the same at $1.00.

Another in stripes at $1.00. Robes at one-third off of usual price.

These lots of Shoes that are amazingly desirable for the prices:

250 pairs Women's Straight Goat Button, $4.35.
172 pairs Women's Straight Goat Button, $3.25.
245 pairs Women's Curacao Kid Button, $4.25.

186 pairs Women's French Kid Button, $5.00.
152 pairs Women's Kid Slippers, $1.25.
112 pairs Women's Kid Ties, $2.00.
110 pairs Women's French Kid Oxford Ties, $3.25.

141 pairs Women's Front Lace Walking Boots, $3.25.
131 pairs Women's Front Lace Walking Boots, $4.50.
150 pairs Women's French Kid Button Boots, $5.25.

China and Glassware we hardly dare to risk saying anything about, as the lots announced are nearly always sold out in a few hours of the day they are presented. Watch the city daily papers for the announcements, and if these lots are sold when you come do not be disappointed, as we have new lots in every day or two.

In Furniture. Young couples should see The new Ash Suite of Bed Room Furniture for $25. The same goods in Cherry for $28.

Our Works at present turn us out only four suites per day of these goods, so that first come, first served. Nothing like this has ever been done in Philadelphia before.

A fine frame Body Brussels Carpet at $1.25 that we are willing to endorse as a good thing.

We are not permitted to give the makers' names. The goods are new this season, and fifty patterns at least to choose from.

The first Fall Offering of Ladies Robes are all-wool, of ample material, in nine varieties, dark, rich hues, and the new patterns are on the palm-leaf order. The effect is much the same, if not full equivalent, as though an expensive Cashmere Slawl were dissected and made into a robe, as is often done. The expense being infinitely less—$25.

Also a few Wrapper Patterns, Persian, and with a decided Oriental effect. The olive, old gold and rich, dark hues are subdued in a broad border of consistent, but curious formation, 10 to 11 yards each. $2.00 per yard.

There are other lots equally interesting, and new things daily arriving.

Samples of Dress Goods sent by mail; a "Postal" will receive immediate attention.
