VERY HARMONIOUS.

The Buffalo Convention Practically Adjourns.

John Kelly Tries His Strength and Finds Himself in a Minority—The Manning Ticket Nominated—The Resolutions.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Although the Democratic convention adjourned until 7 P. M., it was not until after 8 o'clock that the temporary Chairman S. A. Chapin called it to order. The convention had adjourned without having appointed a single committee, devoting its afternoon's work to the task of agreeing upon the methods of forming the committee on permanent organization and that on contested seats, ruling that both should be composed by the selection of one delegate from each congressional district by the other delegates from all districts contested to be prohibited from having representatives on the committee on contested seats.

When the convention was called to order, Mr. Herrick, from Albany County Democrat, was announced to read the report of the committee on contested seats which had been formed and performed its work during the recess.

The committee reported in favor of recognizing the New York County Democracy as the regular democratic organization because all of the delegates had been elected by the regular party primaries, the Tammany and Irving Hall delegations having been returned independently of the regular party process. But the committee, for the sake of harmony and the ending of factional disputes, had concluded to recommend the recognition of the twenty-four delegates admitted by the State Committee from the Tammany delegation, and the ten also admitted from the Irving Hall delegation, and confining the representation of the County Democrats to the thirty-eight admitted by the State Committee, disqualifying the thirty-four delegates whose seats had been awarded to Tammany and Irving Hall. The report was received with cheers. Mr. Herrick moved the adoption of the report.

Senator Grady, on behalf of Tammany, called for the ayes and noes on this motion, and the roll was called; Tammany men making every effort to defeat the adoption for the purpose of securing the striking out of the portion relating to the recognition of the County Democracy as the regular organization of New York county. The call for the ayes and noes was made at John Kelly's instigation, who objected to the immediate adoption of the report without debate, and was in the nature of a call for a division upon the question as to whether or not the previous question should be put; viz, whether or not the question of adoption should be put upon it. In the roll call, Irving Hall voted with Tammany. Mr. Kelly's chief interest in having the roll called was apparently to ascertain his exact strength.

The roll call consumed 40 minutes of time, and resulted in the adoption of the report by a vote of 280 to 93. Senator Grady at once moved to reconsider the vote, and supported his motion by a vigorous speech, in which he declared that Tammany intended to thoroughly abide by all the rulings and decisions of the convention, but he appealed to the body to refuse to endorse that portion of the report which recognized the County Democracy of New York as regular, as against Tammany, which contained the majority of the Democrats in that portion of New York county, and which comprised the party whose aggregate vote was absolutely essential to success.

E. Ellery Anderson, speaking for the County Democracy, opposed reconsideration, taking the ground that Tammany Hall and Irving Hall having failed through their own determination to regularize themselves by attending the party primaries, had no right to either ask to be now recognized as regular or to share that recognition with the County Democracy which had obeyed all the party rules and secured its delegates through the regular party primaries the same as Tammany could and should have done. General Spinola followed on behalf of Tammany, denouncing the action of the State Committee as the conduct of the party machinery for selfish ends. Mr. Spinola vehemently exclaimed, "Gentlemen, we spit upon that report, we can't expect to raise a surplus fund for the Federal Government to distribute among the States. We claim with pride and satisfaction that every pledge therein made has been in good faith redeemed; valuable reforms have been wrought; useless offices have been abolished; the civil service has been freed from the debasing and injurious influences of partisan manipulation; the freedom and purity of primaries have been secured; political assessments have been abolished; receivership abuses have been corrected; the principle of local self government has been attended to; the efficiency of the National Guard has been increased; taxation for the support of government has been reduced; the rights of the workmen have been further protected and the injurious competition of convict labor has been curtailed; business methods have become the rule in the management of State affairs.

On the record thus made, and to which it will steadfastly adhere, the Democratic party asked a renewed award of the confidence of the people. We invite with reason all friends of improved State administration to unite with us in the Democratic party to join with the Democracy in preserving and perfecting the reforms in progress and in extending them to all branches of the State service. We heartily endorse Governor Cleveland's administration. It justifies the great vote which elected him. He has deservedly won the affection of the people by his industry, firmness, intelligence and aggressive honesty. The results make his administration one of the best the State ever had.

Mr. Murray, of Delaware, named Isaac H. Maynard for Secretary of State. No one seconding this, ex-Senator George Raines, of Monroe, named William Purcell, of Monroe county, editor of the Rochester Union and Advertiser, for the office of Secretary of State. Mr. Burke, of Franklin, seconded Mr. Purcell's nomination. Mr. Sayres, of Wayne, arose to ask why Mr. Maynard was, when he came, whether he was really a Democrat and whether, if so, he had been a Democrat during the days of the party's adversity. The roll was then called and was watched with interest. It was agreed that the vote would show whether or not the talk of harmony was real or whether collisions between the factions were probable. The County Democrats all voted for Maynard and the Tammany and Irving Hall delegates were sold in supporting Purcell. The result was 173 for Purcell and 309 for Maynard, and Maynard was declared nominated. The nomination of Maynard was thereupon made unanimous.

E. M. Shepherd, of Kings, named Alfred C. Chapin, of Kings, as a candidate for Comptroller. Burke, Cochrane, of New York, named Col. Frederick A. Conkling, the brother of ex-Senator Roscoe Conkling. The ballot resulted in 254 for Chapin; Conkling, 81.

A motion to adjourn until 10 A. M. was voted down, and the convention proceeded to nominate a candidate for State Treasurer. Robert A. Maxwell and Denis O'Brien were nominated by acclamation for Treasurer and Attorney General. Elisham J. Sweet, of Albany, was nominated for State Engineer. The ticket, as nominated, is the State ticket as made up by Daniel Manning, chairman of the present Democratic State Committee with the exception of Sweet who is a Tilden man. The Tammany and Irving Hall delegates voted together against all the successful nominees through all the ballots, but took very little active interest in the voting after their defeat in the support they gave Purcell. John Kelly left the hall after the second nomination.
