

General Beaver's true friends are not likely to forget that representative Niles used his personal influence against him last fall, and aided in reducing the Republican majority in Tioga from 2,000 to 400, his own town making a change so marked that a similar one in other districts would have given the Democrats the county by several hundred and the state by a majority of over 175,000. Can Niles' friends expect General Beaver and his friends to support him with any enthusiasm?

We are creditably informed that twenty-one banks of the State contain State funds to the amount of $2,031,764 from which not a penny of interest is derived to the commonwealth. Under the Humes act, which the Republican majority in the Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners have persistently ignored, says an exchange, at least $1,500,000 of this sum should be invested in bonds of the State or United States in the interest of the taxpayers. But the claims of the party in the eyes of the Sinking Fund Board must be preferred to the interests of the State, to which they have sworn official fidelity. The election of Messrs. Lively and Niles is demanded to continue this state of affairs, so agreeable to the bankers and those who share the percentage.

If the voters of the state wish the vitality of the Humes act destroyed, they can accomplish it by voting for Chris. Magee's clerk, Lively, or state treasurer. On the contrary, if they wish the state funds invested so as to make a profit of $150,000 to the state, they will vote for Joseph Powell.

Many forget that the hair and scalp need cleansing as well as the hands and feet. Extensive use of Ayer's Hair Vigor has proven that it is the best cleansing agent for the hair—that it prevents as well as removes dandruff, cools and soothes the scalp, and stimulates the hair to renew growth and beauty.

Some Startling Figures.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—The mercantile failures in the United States, reported by R. G. Dun & Co. for the last three months, were 1,835 in number, with liabilities aggregating $22,072,884, against 1,200 with liabilities of only about $19,000,000 for the corresponding quarter of 1882. There were 314 failures in Canada, with liabilities of $3,429,891, for the third quarter of the year. There have been 6,440 failures, with liabilities amounting to $118,261,918, in the United States since January 1, against $4,287, with liabilities of $62,000,000 in the same nine months of 1882. The failures since January 1 in Canada number 1,691 and the liabilities amount to $11,988,951, against 537 and $5,000,000 liabilities in the corresponding time last year.

The Cotton Crop.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 5.—The cotton crop report for September of the Memphis district, comprising Western Tennessee, Northern Arkansas and Northern Alabama, indicates a decreased yield throughout the Memphis district of three per cent, as compared with the previous year. The loss is attributed to the hot, dry weather which prevailed from the latter portion of August to the middle of September, causing heavy loss by rust and shedding, and entirely destroying the top crop. West Tennessee reports a decrease of eight per cent. The percentage of loss in Northern Arkansas has grown from thirty to forty per cent. Several correspondents note a greater proportion of seed than usual, which, if general, will still further largely reduce the number of bales of lint produced in this district.

A Minister's Fall.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 5.—Eighteen months ago Miss Fanniss Snell lost a valuable horse by poisoning, and Rev. J. N. Yeager, a Methodist minister, who hitherto stood well with the community, was arrested for the offense, but at the preliminary trial gave bail in $1,000, which he forfeited by absconding. Three months ago Yeager was convicted of stealing at Henderson, Ky., and has been imprisoned at the jail there ever since until last Friday, when Deputy Sheriff Thomas, of Charleston, upon a requisition by the Governor of West Virginia, secured the prisoner and brought him here. Between Henderson and Louisville Yeager made a desperate attempt to jump from the train.

A Child Eaten by Hogs.

LEBANON, O., Oct. 4.—While Frank Hopping, a four-year-old boy, was playing with his dog on the public highway he was attacked by a drove of thirty hogs and literally eaten alive. His cries brought assistance, and the brutes were driven away. The child's clothing was entirely torn from his body. Part of the scalp was torn away and one of the animal's tusks entered his cheek and broke out two back teeth. The sufferer died in great agony an hour after being rescued.

The Bullets Were Not Big Enough.

BOSTON, Oct. 2.—Charles H. Lucas, a West End colored man 27 years of age, unprovoked with his sweetheart, a young colored girl living in Cambridge, yesterday afternoon. Last night he got a thirty-one calibre revolver, aimed the muzzle at his right temple and discharged three bullets at his head. One glanced from the bone upward and embedded itself in the ceiling. The others flattened themselves out against the skull, and there for the present remain. He will recover.

CHASED BY A WOMAN

A Scene Under New York's Electric Lights.

A Well-Known Lawyer Plays Tag in Madison Square—His Pursuer Holds to Him Like Grim Death.

New York, Oct. 5.—A little woman, whose eyes of reddish brown blazed under her bangs of auburn hair, descended swiftly from a green car as it turned into Broadway at Madison square. She walked rapidly up to a fashionably dressed man in a high hat and light top coat, who was walking up Broadway with a large woman dressed in black.

"I want to speak with you, De Witt," said the little woman to the man. "You must go on. Your friend will meet you at the place I spoke of at 9:30."

"Yes, you go on," repeated the little woman, "and he will meet you when I'm done with him."

The large woman went up Broadway and the man and the little woman walked down the street, talking earnestly. At Twenty-second street the man, with an oath, struck his companion with his cane across the shoulders, and, turning, began to run up Broadway. The woman followed, keeping close at his heels. Unable to shake his pursuer off, he apparently not wishing to pass the Fifth Avenue Hotel, the man ran into the street, and, crossing over to Madison Square, dodged behind the backs drawn up at the curb. When the woman, who ran quite as fast as he did, got near him he fenced at her with his cane, and thus kept her away until he got an opportunity for a fresh start.

After dodging around the hacks he ran to the big electric light post in the piazza in front of the Fifth Avenue Hotel, the woman following. The pair dodged around the post, while men and women looked from all directions to see what appeared to be a unique game of tag. Having only evaded being caught more than once by fencing off his pursuer with his cane, the man who was being chased finally left the lamp post, and again took refuge among the hacks. His pursuer soon dislodged him, and nearly caught him about half way between the square and the hotel. As he again poked her away with his cane he said to a reporter who, with fifty people, was watching the scene: "She's a mad woman."

Tired with dodging and running, the man now made a bolt for the entrance of the Fifth Avenue Hotel. The woman caught him as he reached the steps and seized him by the coat. In the struggle that ensued both her hat and his came off. Her hat came down. A crowd of at least a hundred people pressed in upon them as they struggled.

One of the proprietors of the hotel now appeared and separated the man from the woman, who, small as she was, had held on grimly with a clutch like a cat's.

The hotel proprietor held the woman while he said to the man, "Now, you run." The man disappeared within the hotel. When the woman tried to follow the door was shut in her face and she was told to take herself off.

"Will somebody give me my hat?" she asked, as quietly as if nothing had happened. Her hat, much the worse for having been stepped upon, was handed to her, and, putting it on her head she went down Broadway, her white sash, which had been torn open in the struggle, revealing the flowered front of her silk gown as she walked.

She subsequently told a reporter who had seen the occurrence that her name was Sarah E. Spencer. The man, she said, was Henry C. De Witt, a lawyer having an office in the Evening-Post building and living in Brooklyn. "I'll kill him when I see him again," she said. "If I had expected to see him to-day I would have been armed."

An effort was made to see Mr. De Witt, but he had left the Fifth Avenue Hotel by a side door, and could not be found.

THE RAILROAD WAR ENDED.

Five Cent Fares a Thing of the Past—Differences Arranged.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—The Southeastern Railroad war ends at midnight, and five cent fares to Indianapolis will be a thing of the past. The treaty of peace was agreed upon at the Cincinnati meetings. The basis of settlement is the formation of a pool and the establishment of a board of arbitration, considerable discretion being given to general passenger agents to arrange certain minor differences. The right of the Monon to enter the Union depot at Indianapolis was conceded. J. M. Johnson, Assistant General Freight Agent of the Kanawha Road, telegraphed here: "It has been agreed to restore rates at once. Six gross pools have been formed on both passenger and freight traffic, to be controlled by an executive committee of eight. J. D. Richardson, late manager of the Ohio River pool, will be manager." The new pool will consist of the roads which were united to the war, with the addition of the Illinois Central, Wabash, Chicago and Alton, and probably the Ohio and Mississippi. Out of Louisville the Jefferson, Madison and Indiana, and the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton. To perfect details the general freight agents will meet in this city Friday, the general passenger agents Saturday, and on Monday a joint meeting will be held.

Held for Issuing a False Certificate.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 6.—Warrants were issued by the Magistrate-Ladner, Wednesday afternoon, for the arrest of Dr. William E. Hughes and Dr. A. A. McDonald on the charge of issuing a false certificate, which incarcerated Frederick Haas in the Norristown Insane Asylum. Dr. Haas was arrested by the constable and held in $2,500 bail by Magistrate Ladner to appear at the hearing, which will be held as soon as Dr. McDonald is apprehended.

Who Killed Rose Ambler?

STRATFORD, Conn., Oct. 1.—The coroner's jury has rendered the following verdict: "We find that the said Rose Ambler came to her death by being choked to death at the hands of some persons to the jury unknown. But from William Lewis' relation with her in the past, and from his testimony and from his conduct since her death, and from the evidence, we think suspicion points towards him." Lewis has not yet been arrested.

The Kansas Train Robbers.

DOUGLAS CITY, Kansas, Oct. 2.—Harry Donnelly, a bar keeper, employed at Donohoe's saloon, and one Dean, have been brought here from Coolidge, the scene of the train robbery, and lodged in jail. All were very reticent and refused to be interviewed. Marshal Mathers and Mr. Seaton, attorney for the road, think the circumstantial evidence against Dean is very strong.

Did He Say Damn It?

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Senator Logan writes an open letter to a local paper denying the published statement that recently, when in company with Senators Dawes and Cameron, he used the words "D—n low Sweden," in any other way reflected on that nationality.

Mr. L. G. Mianick, Bedford, Pa., says: "I received great benefit from using Brown's Iron Bitters for heartburn and dyspepsia."

Exray.—A horse with saddle and bridle, came to the premises of the undersigned, several weeks ago. The horse is a bay about 4 years old, right hind foot white. Owner requested to come for his property and pay cost. Bargain JAS. R. WOLF, Rebersburg.

A peculiar virtue in Ayer's Sarsaparilla is that while it cleanses and purges the blood from all impurities and impurities, and thereby cures the disease, it builds up and invigorates the whole system, and makes one young again.

When you suffer from dyspepsia, heartburn, neuralgic affections, kidney disease, liver complaint and other wasting diseases; when you wish to enrich the blood and purify the system generally; when you wish to remove all feeling of weakness, weariness, lack of energy, try a bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters and see how greatly it will benefit you. It surpasses all known remedies as an enricher of the blood and a perfect regulator of the various bodily functions. Ask your druggist.

How Watch Cases are Made.

This process of manufacture was invented by James Boss, who started in business in 1854, and the methods and tools used in making these watch cases are covered by patents. This is the only watch case made under this process. For many years the introduction of these goods was slow, owing to popular prejudice against "plated" goods, but gradually the public learned that the James Boss' Gold Watch Case was not a cheap gold-washed or electroplated article, but was made of genuine gold plates of standard quality and thickness. Conscientious adherence to the determination to make the best watch case ever put on the market, and the adoption of every improvement suggested, has made the James Boss' Gold Watch Case the STANDARD. In this watch case the parts most subject to wear—the bow, crown, hinges, thumb-catches, etc., are made of SOLID GOLD.

Send 2 cent stamp to Keystone Watch Case Factory, Philadelphia, Pa., for handsome illustrated pamphlet showing the James Boss' and Keystone Watch Cases are made.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN Hair Renewer.

Seldom does a popular remedy win such a strong hold upon the public confidence as has HALL'S HAIR RENEWER. The cases in which it has accomplished a complete restoration of color to the hair, and vigorous health to the scalp, are innumerable.

Old people like it for its wonderful power to restore to their whitening locks their original color and beauty. Middle-aged people like it because it prevents them from getting bald, keeps dandruff away, and makes the hair grow thick and strong. Young ladies like it as a dressing because it gives the hair a beautiful glossy lustre, and enables them to dress it in whatever form they wish. Thus it is the favorite of all, and it has become so simply because it disappoints no one.

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE FOR THE WHISKERS.

Has become one of the most important popular toilet articles for gentlemen's use. When the beard is gray or naturally of an undesirable shade, BUCKINGHAM'S DYE is the remedy.
