MARRIED TOO OFTEN.

The Adventures of a Young Man who was Too Fascinating.

His Love for the Fair Sex Places Him in Jeopardy—A Valise Full of Sentimental Letters Unmasks Him.

JERSEY CITY, Oct. 6.—The king of the female heart ensnarers is now languishing in the First Precinct Police Station in this city, and society is pricking up its ears so as not to lose any of the points that will be brought out in court, in which the name of a grand daughter of Mr. Chris Mills, the highly respected calcium manufacturer, will be coupled with that of J. B. Austin, The gay Austin was captured in Red Bank, with the young lady, living as husband and wife, his real wife living here.

Austin's wife told the story of her husband's moral obliquity to a reporter. Three children were in the room at the time, and eagerly drank in all the information about their crooked father. She said: "In Woodstock he ruined a young lady of great wealth and refinement, then black-mailing her out of $2,000, after which he deserted me and the children. I managed by hard work and charity to get along for three years. During that time my husband sent me $25. Then he sent for me to come to Jersey City, but neglected to send me the money to get here. This I borrowed, and brought his family to him. He had no money, although he was earning $55 per month in the Pennsylvania freight depot. I sewed and earned the cooking stove and other necessary furniture, but his bills never got paid up.

"Among the things that my husband brought to the house after I had fixed it up was a valise full of letters, which he requested that I would leave undisturbed. I did so until one day, while he was home sick, a note came which fell into my hands. It was signed Blanche Elwood, a fictitious name, as I afterward discovered. The note was enough to set me thinking, and I opened the valise. It was crammed with letters. Seventeen children had opened their hearts to him. He had been very busy while I was deserted in Canada. The letters were all signed with their true names, and I have received several calls from some of them.

"This is not the first case of unholo love in which my husband has played a star engagement. But first I will try to describe him. He is over forty years old, is not attractive by any means and owes the grocer $20. His plan of action upon the female fortress is hot shot in the shape of flattery, the most effective ammunition a man can use. I married him much against my mother's will. That was in Woodstock, Ontario, Canada where we hail from. I was married seventeen years ago, when seventeen years old—youth and foolish, you see. We went to North Carolina to live, where I enjoyed the happiest part of my married life till I found out his nature. It didn't take long, for he paid such attentions to a farmer's daughter that she is now dead with her child. While a committee of citizens of all colors were heating a pot of tar and women were disrupting a feather bed, my noble husband flew by night to Woodstock, where I followed him, refusing to believe that he was guilty.

It seems that after he obtained the $2,000 from the Canada lady he traveled while in Canada, representing himself to be a nobleman's son. He had blighted two lives in Keypport, and was about to be treated to a dose of tar and feathers, when he escaped for the second time. He was also engaged to a Catskill girl. The idea of ever after living with such a monster made me shudder. One of the women, who knew that my husband was married, expressed a hope that he would be a widower soon. Such a look came over his face at times that I was afraid for my life.

"So I drove him from the house, and I went to Blanche Elwood's grandfather, telling him the whole story. I also told the girl's mother, and tried to disgust the girl herself, but she would not listen to me. I then applied to Chief Murphy on the complaint that my husband had refused to support his children. While he was taking 'Blanche' to the opera his children were half-starved. I received a letter from my husband in which he accused me of driving him from the city, and he requested me to get a divorce. He also wrote that he had obtained a separation from me while I was in Canada, and that I must resume my maiden name of Clark. I did none of these things, but put the warrant for his arrest into the hands of Detective Cios. The detective found that my husband had been living at No. 128 West Fifteenth street, New York, and there he learned that the man he wanted was in Red Bank. At Red Bank he found my husband and Blanche living in French's Hotel and separated them."

A Notorious Vessel to the Front Again.

BOSTON, Oct. 5.—William M. Patterson, master of the notorious schooner Jefferson Borden, was held in $300 for further examination by United States Commissioner Hallett for cruel and unusual punishment of one of his crew, the complainant alleging that he was cruelly punished for failing to perform his duties although physically unable to do so. The Jefferson Borden has been before the public frequently during the past ten years on account of trouble between the officers and crew, and was the scene of the mutiny in 1875, on a trip from New Orleans to London, when the two mates were murdered and a terrible fight followed. The men were subsequently tried in Boston for murder. Two were convicted and sentenced to be hanged, which sentences were afterwards commuted to imprisonment for life. One other pleaded guilty and was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment.

What's Where He Made a Mistake.
ADRIAN, Mich., Oct. 3.—The residence of Wm. Dutton, President of the Lenawee County Savings Bank, was entered and robbed of real estate mortgages representing $100,000, $7,000 in Government bonds, $3,000 in Monroe County bonds and $1,500 in Herndon village bonds, together with a gold watch and some loose cash and clothing. The safe containing the bonds was left unlocked because, as Mr. Dutton remarked, "He didn't think he had anything that ordinary burglars wanted."

Hangings too Good for Him.
KALAMAZOO, Mich., Oct. 2.—A young republican, named Hay, is under arrest at Allegan, this county, and will be tried for manslaughter. Quite recently he seduced a beautiful girl by the name of Cummings, and was forced to marry her. His love for her was gone and his treatment of his young wife so brutal that she took poison and died. It now transpires that Hay bought the poison and stood by while his wife was in the agonies of death.

Diseased Cattle at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Five diseased steers were discovered at the yards this morning and shot. It is not supposed that many are affected. Every precaution is used to prevent mixing sick with healthy stock. All shipments are closely examined by the officers, and every animal showing the least signs of fever is rejected.

John Wanamaker's Store, Philadelphia.

These are the First Days of the Fall Business,

already the hum of activity begins. We launch the busy season with that prove to be strangely low. A few of these have been in store some days, but, to give everybody a fair chance, we held the announcements until the return of people from their holidays.

Some Special Things

A good lot of first-rate Jerseys at $2.25. These are all black. The colors are $2.50.
A Black Dress Silk at 75 cents, that until recently was always $1.00.
A fine Black Khadama, 22 inches wide, at $1.50.
Half-wool Black Dress Goods at 12 1/2 cents, which is just half-price.
All-wool stylish Plaid Suiting, 42 inches, at 50 cents. We sold the same at $1.00.
Another in stripes at 65 cents. Not dear at $1.00.
A quality of Lupin's Cashmere for 50 cents (all wool). The new tariff will prevent this quality from ever again selling at this price.
A Black Albatross at 25 cents, exactly half-price.
A fine Black Camel's Hair, 46 inches wide, at 60 cents.
A good 36-inch all-wool Cashmere at 40 cents.
An excellent Black Cashmere, all-wool, a yard wide, at 45c.
A very few much admired Embroidered Robes at one-third off of usual price.
A Bleached Muslin, full yard wide, for 10c. The best we ever had at that price.
The best Twilled, All-Wool Red Flannel we ever sold for 25c.
The best Canton Flannel for 12c. We never could get so good a quality at the price before.
An extraordinary lot of Towels at 25c.
Eight lots of Ladies' and Children's Hose that are on our counters at 25 per cent. under prices.

These lots of Shoes that are amazingly desirable for the prices:

250 pairs Women's Straight Goat Button, $4.35.	186 pairs Women's French Kid Button, $5.00.	141 pairs Women's Front Lace Walking Boots, $3.25.
172 pairs Women's Straight Goat Button, $3.25.	152 pairs Women's Kid Slippers, $1.25.	131 pairs Women's Front Lace Walking Boots, $4.50.
245 pairs Women's Curacao Kid Button, $4.25.	112 pairs Women's Kid Ties, $2.00.	150 pairs Women's French Kid Button Oxford Ties, $3.25.

China and Glassware we hardly dare to risk saying anything about, as the lots announced are nearly always sold out in a few hours of the day they are presented. Watch the city daily papers for the announcements, and if these lots are sold when you come do not be disappointed, as we have new lots in every day or two.

In Furniture. Young couples should see The new Ash Suite of Bed Room Furniture for $25. The same goods in Cherry for $28.

Our Works at present turn us out only four suites per day of these goods, so that first come, first served. Nothing like this has ever been done in Philadelphia before.

A fine frame Body Brussels Carpet at $1.25 that we are willing to endorse as a good thing.

We are not permitted to give the makers' names. The goods are new this season, and fifty patterns at least to choose from.

The first Fall Offering of Ladies Robes are all-wool, of ample material, in nine varieties, dark, rich hues, and the new patterns are on the palm-leaf order. The effect is much the same, if not full equivalent, as though an expensive Cashmere Shawl were dissected and made into a robe, as is often done. The expense being infinitely less—$25.

Also a few Wrapper Patterns, Persian, and with a decided Oriental effect. The olive, old gold and rich, dark hues are subdued in a broad border of consistent but curious forstation, 10 to 11 yards each. $2.00 per yard.

There are other lots equally interesting, and new things daily arriving.

Samples of Dress Goods sent by mail; a "Postal" will receive immediate attention.

SPRING OPENING '83.

Having completed shelving and fixing up my goods, I extend a cordial invitation to everybody to come and examine my goods, which consist of Clothing, Men's Furnishing Goods, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes, and the best assortment of Trunks and Valises in the county. I haven't $40,000.00 worth of goods, I am sorry to say, but what I have is new and of the latest styles. I have good goods, and some cheap goods. I have some of the very best make of the celebrated Rochester goods. I have them to suit young and old, rich and poor. I will not boast of what I will do, but if you give me a call I will do as I always have done: treat you fair and honest and give you the value of your money, and don't you forget it.

ENCOURAGING.

Having been encouraged by the steady increase of business, I have remodeled and added to the external as well as to the internal appearance of my DRUG HOUSE, thereby making it more attractive to my customers. I would now thank my customers for their liberal patronage in the past, and solicit a continuance of the same. My stock is as near full as possible. I am in complete communication with the principal Drug Houses of New York and Philadelphia and am supplied with cuts and price lists, and anything in my line not kept in stock, will be sent for at once and delivered at the same prices that it could be bought at if you want or sent yourself. I buy my drugs for cash, pay no discounts, which enables me to sell just as cheap as any other drug store in the county. All business between dealer and customers strictly confidential. J. D.
