DEMOURATIC STATE TICKET. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, CAPT. ROBERT TAGGART, Of Warren County. FOR STATE TREASURER, HON. JOSEPH POWELL. Of Bradford County. County Ticket. ASSOCIATE JUDGE Dr. J R. SMITH, of Pine Grove Mills.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY W. C. HFINLE, of Bellefonte. COUNTY SURVEYOR ELLIS L. ORVIS, of Bellefonte, Vote the whole democratic ticket on of Nov. Powell, Taggart, Smith, Orvis, and Heinle, are worthy of your suffrages.

Democrats in Ohio came up to the mark nobly on Tuesday of last week, electing a governor and a democratic legislature, thus securing a U.S. Senator. Now let us do the same thing in this state-carry the democratic ticket, state and county, on Nov. 6. We can if each Democrat will do his duty.

The REPORTER is under obligations to H. Y. Stitzer, Olie Meek, Miles Walker and Charley Hewes, for continued telephones on the Ohio election.

Any Republican of good character who wants to loaf around these headquarters a little spell and tell us about that little affair out in Ohio, last week, can do so.

Democrats, of Centre county, if each one does his duty on Nov. 6 the majority for the state and county ticket in old Centre will not be under 1200. Get ready for Nov. 6.

The fourth centennial of the birth of Martin Luther, which is soon to be celebrated by all protestant denominations throughout the world, has called forth new interest in the life and work of the ica as the fruit of the great war so successfully waged by the great German theologian, Luther, against darkness, superstition and forced ignorance in matters ecclesiastic. Just now is a fitting time to read and study the life and work of Martin Luther, that the movement for the celebration of the fourth centennial of his birth tober of each year, showing the balance may be better appreciated.

"The Humes act was passed at the regular session of the Legislature, and approved by Governor Pattison on June 6 1883. This act requires the State Treas. urer to file a statement with the Sinking Fund Commissioners on the first business day of January, April, July and Ocremaining in the Sinking Fund in excess In our own county, at Bellefonte, me- of the amount required to pay the interers then being authorized to purchase of the Lutheran church will be present. tion of the act of May 9, 1874, provides George S. Morris, D. D., LL. D., one of that whenever it shall appear on the the noted theologians of this country, first business day of January, April, July and October, the balance in the hands of the Treasury from sources of general revenue apart from amounts payable to the Sinking Fund shall exceed $500,000, such sum shall be carried to the account of the Sinking Fund.

"The report of State Treasurer Bailey shows that on August 31, 1881, exclusive of moneys appropriated to the Sinking, wrought by Luther, and all will join in Fund $2,018,868.12 was distributed among celebrating the 400th anniversary of his 21 banks throughout the State ; further that no part of the surplus over the contingent fund of $500,000 was carried to the account of the Sinking Fund, but Cincinnati, Oct. 14 .- The "Commercial this surplus, amounting to $1,158,868.12, was loaned to certain bankers throughout the State on such terms as the State Treasurer could advantageously make; not a dollar of interest money accruing to the State, whilst on the other hand, the taxpayers of the State are paying interest on the outstanding State loans, which this surplus ought to contribute to wipe out.

"Nor is this all. The last quarterly report also shows that the sum of $2,769,-990.51, belonging to the Sinking Fund, was distributed among 57 banks in the State, thus aggregating the sum of $4,-788,858.63, in the hands of private banks and bankers, without security and yieldtion, educationally, socially, industrially ing no interest to the State, and this, too, despite the plain provisions of the above mentioned Humes act. At the last meeting of the Sinking Fund Commissioners, comprising Secretary of the State Stenger, Auditor General Lemon and Treasurer Bailey, Mr. Stenger made a propo sition that this large surplus should be so invested in pursuance of the provisions of the Humes act. Both Messers. Lemon and Bailey opposed the offer, Mr. Bailey assigning as a reason for his opposition that to withdraw these State deposits from some of the county banks would cause semi-stagnation, if not a financial panic, thus virtually confessing business man in the United States, and ble language: "Biessed be the day of that these deposits were interest bearing, and as such, could not be withdrawn without due notice. Where and to whom this interest goes no man knows save those of the Treasury ring ; one thing is certain, the State does not reap a dollar of it. At a low rate of 4 per cent per annum upon $4,788,828, the interest alone would amount to $191,552 ; a sum cer ainly large enough to constitute an inference for the reasons of opposition to the whereas Luther could not go forth ex-cept by the ruin of that empire which plain statement of the present status of plain statement of the present status of the Treasury Department, and certainly furnishes to the average Pennsylvania tax-payer sufficient of issue upon which to ba-e his judgment and cast his ballot. The jobbers who opposed the enactment of the Humes at are well-known; their opposition is spread upon the official records of the State, and these same jobbers, failing in the efforts to defeat the Humes bill, are now shamelessly and unscrupulously endeavoring to thwart and circumvent the provisions of their most wise and beneficent measure: This, ans in Centre county in particular should then, we repeat is the issue; the only tura out; let us urge a full turn out.
