Sayings and Doings of Prominent Persons in Washington.

The Kentucky Delegation's Choice for Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations—The New Officers.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Representative Buckner, of Missouri, stated to an American Press reporter that he had a conversation with Speaker Carlisle and was informed that the speaker had made a list of the new members of the house, which he had placed in the hands of friends for the purpose of ascertaining the strong business points of each, that good judgment may be exercised in the formation of the committees, and that Speaker Carlisle said that he did not think it possible for him to announce the committees before week after next, just before the holiday recess.

The Kentucky delegation is urging the speaker to place Joe Blackburn at the head of the committee on appropriations and it is said the matter is being made a personal one by the entire delegation. The speaker had determined to give the position to Mr. Randall, but the Kentucky members say it would be of ill grace for him to do so under the circumstances. They say that when Mr. Randall was speaker four years ago he ignored Mr. Blackburn and refused to do anything of consequence for the delegation as a whole, that Mr. Blackburn exerted his best efforts for the election of Carlisle, and that it would be more than ungrateful if Carlisle now passed over Blackburn to honor Randall, his opponent. Carlisle is said to have taken the question under serious consideration.

The joint resolution introduced by Senator Lapham in relation to the veto power proposes the following amendment to article 1 of the constitution:

"If any bill is presented to the president, containing items of appropriations of money, he may object to one or more of the provisions of such bill while approving of the remainder of its provisions. In such case he shall append to the bill, at the time of signing it, a statement of the provisions to which he objects, and he shall transmit to the house in which the bill originated a copy of such objection, and the provisions so objected to shall be separately considered. On discussion, if one or more such provisions be approved by two thirds of the members of each house, the same shall be part of the law, notwithstanding the objection of the president. All the provisions of those sections relating to bills not approved by the president shall apply in cases in which the president has approved of any provision or provisions contained in a bill containing appropriations of money."

Representative King, of Louisiana, has prepared a bill which provides that the compensation of women in the government departments shall be the same as that of men for a similar grade of work.

The sergeant at arms was besieged by members who wanted money and balance of accounts. The officers of the clerk and bookkeeper were also crowded by the democratic members who wanted to know who they could designate men for positions. The officers are going slow in filling positions, but few appointments will be made until Monday. Clerk Clark says he has upward of 500 applications for about thirty-five positions.

A very large number of northern members of congress of both parties have gone home and many of them will not be back until after the holidays. Mr. Randall went to New York Wednesday to have a consultation with his political friends there, and Mr. Hewitt went the same night. Mr. Dorsheimer left yesterday. There is a great deal of ill feeling among the men who support Cox and Randall for speaker. Both claim dates claim to have been sold out by their alleged friends. Their position is a very unpleasant one and may lead to a conflict in the house after the speaker has announced the committees.

The following are the newly-elected officers of the house: Speaker—John G. Carlisle, of Kentucky. Clerk—J. B. Clark, of Missouri. Sergeant at Arms—John P. Leeson, of Ohio.

Doorkeeper—J. G. Wintersmith, of Texas. Postmaster—Lycurgus Dalton, of Indiana. Chaplain—Rev. Dr. John L. Lindsay, of the District of Columbia.

IMPENDING WAR.

Foreigners in Canton Warned and Troops Massed.

HONG KONG, Dec. 6.—Admiral Peng Y. Lin, who was sent by the emperor of China to Tonquin to investigate the position of affairs, has returned to Canton. He has not said all foreigners that war between China and France is imminent and has ordered the massing of all available land and sea forces for the protection of Canton. He holds France answerable for precipitating a war and warns the neutral powers to observe their treaty stipulations and the rules of international law.

PARIS, Dec. 6.—The yellow book on the Tonquin affair was distributed to the deputies today. It contains the Chinese memorandum given by Minister Ferry on the 29th to the Tonquin credits committee. It says that France imposed upon Annam an unjust treaty, ignoring the rights of China; that France had invaded Annam and manifested an intention to take the Nish, the key of the Chinese empire, and that China, while feeling compelled to resist aggression, applied to the honor of France to act as to prevent bloodshed. It also contains the note of M. Ferry to the Marquis Tseng, suggesting the special power be intrusted to the military chiefs in Tonquin to effect an understanding by which China could surrender to the Nish and Sontay peacefully to Admiral Courbet, and that subsequently a definite settlement could be negotiated. The marquis regrets that France regards the occupation as indispensable, and fails to perceive the necessity for it. If it became a question of the possession of Tonquin further negotiations would be useless.

Asking for the Release of O'Donnell. WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Ed. O'Mengler Condon and others, on behalf of the Glana-Gael association, have prepared a circular letter which will be handed to members of congress, asking prompt aid to relieve O'Donnell, the slayer of Carey, from his impending fate. The letter, after stating that the act for the commission of which O'Donnell now awaits execution "is that of having dared to defend successfully his life against an attack made upon him by a wretch who had already betrayed and bound to death several of his associates," says that the essential attributes of premeditation necessary to establish the charge of murder are totally wanting in O'Donnell's case. The document ends as follows: "Execution of the act cannot be considered unbecoming, and should be requested in O'Donnell's case, as the question is simply whether an American citizen shall, by a foreign government, be put to death by illegal and foul means, without remonstrance or an effort to save him."

A MOTHER'S LOVE.

A Practical Illustration of its Power.

A mother's love! What a potent thing it is! It will melt the heart of the most hardened criminal when no other influence would be effectual. No one but a mother knows its full meaning, but every one can appreciate it if they will. It is known, though, that it means sleepless nights, care, inconvenience, and, if necessary, want, hardship and death. But the subject has been too eloquently treated by the sweetest poets and the ablest writers to furnish an easy- to read column. Every day life for it to dwell upon, so that it is unnecessary to speak of the subject further in order to make the reader understand the full meaning of what is to follow.

Mrs. Henry Schuolen, of Ashland, Ky., writes that her daughter has been afflicted with deafness which resulted from chronic catarrh. She tells how she had lost all hope of her daughter (her ideal) being cured, and how overjoyed she is at the result. After trying many remedies she says P-rina brought a cure and that the daughter's hearing is restored. She concludes by speaking in the most flattering terms of P-rina, and then describes in the most lovely manner the happiness it has brought her, and reviews the distress she experienced while her daughter was afflicted.

A large and elegant line of silk handkerchiefs at the Bee Hive for the holidays.

A couple of fishermen, named Hugh Nicce and Sam Alderman, living on Island No. 10 in the Mississippi river near Cairo, Ill., quarrelled over a game of cards and in the fight which followed Nicce crushed Alderman's head in with an axe, inflicting a fatal wound. John Alderman, a brother of the wounded man, accompanied him to the hospital, but Nicce, who accompanied him to the hospital, was not allowed to stay with him. He was confined to bed and died on the second day after he was taken to the hospital. The investigation showed that it was Nicce's hand that inflicted the wound, and that the axe was in his hand. He was not allowed to see his victim in a fair trial, but his appeal was in vain. He was not allowed to see his victim in a fair trial, but his appeal was in vain. He was not allowed to see his victim in a fair trial, but his appeal was in vain.

Look out for the great holiday attractions at the Bee Hive.

An exchange gives the following good advice, which we commend to our readers: "Think twice before you believe every story you hear, and think twenty times before you repeat it, especially if it is about a woman. Say to yourself, 'This may not be true, or it may be exaggerated,' unless you have proof of the veracity of your informant. People sometimes tell falsehoods—they often make mistakes, and they sometimes 'lose string.' There is an optical illusion as well as optical illusion. Take those things into consideration even before you believe. As for repeating the story, as to that if it is necessary it is sometimes necessary. Then do it with the fear of God and the remembrance of the golden rule before you. Let us give the ruling hand, not the downward path; so may the angels reach their hands toward us when we stand in need."

Be ware of those who put indirect threats at their neighbors and secretly try to create strife, pretending at the same time to be peacemakers—they are the curse of the neighborhood.

THE SUN. NEW YORK, 1884.

About sixty million copies of THE SUN have gone out of our establishment during the past 12 months.

If every paper of a copy of THE SUN during the past year was sent only one hour over it, and if the whole world without distinction of race, color, or religion, were to receive a copy of it, it would be a most extraordinary feat.

THE SUN is, and will continue to be, a newspaper which tells the truth without fear of consequence, which presents the news of all the world without distinction of race, color, or religion, and which is working with all its might for the cause of human progress, and which therefore believes that the republican party must go and make its way in the world, and that it is its duty to support it in every way that it can. It is published at the office of THE SUN, No. 10 N. 2d St., New York. It is published at the office of THE SUN, No. 10 N. 2d St., New York.
