

SPRING OPENING '83.

Having completed shelving and fixing up my goods, I extend a cordial invitation to everybody to come and examine my goods, which consist of Clothing, Men's Furnishing Goods Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes, and the best assortment of Trunks and Valises in the county. I haven't $40,000.00 worth of goods, I am sorry to say, but what I have is new and of the latest styles. I have good goods, and some cheap goods. I have some of the very best make of the celebrated Rochester goods. I have them to suit young and old, rich and poor. I will not boast of what I will do, but if you give me a call I will do as I always have done: treat you fair and honest and give you the value of your money, and don't you forget it.

ARTHUR'S STRENGTH.

The State of New York Polled in Regard to a Second Term. New York, Dec. 10.—The World publishes letters from republicans in all parts of the state on Mr. Arthur's candidacy, sent in answer to queries mailed some days ago. The World says editorially: "Mr. Arthur concludes to be a candidate, and indications point to the fact that he is in the field, he will have the support of the old Grant crowd. He will be opposed by the Blaine wing of the party."

Generally, the writers are men who are better known in their own counties than in the state at large. The views of men in the same county as to the feelings are often directly at variance. Ex-Senator W. W. Braman is of the opinion that Mr. Arthur is the choice of Albany county. Messrs. A. J. Hancock, George W. Fay and Christopher O. Hamlin, of the twentieth district, think the sentiment is in favor of Mr. Arthur, but Chairman Coleidge, of the Orange county committee, says it is impossible to say who the party is for.

George Z. Erwin, of St. Lawrence, thinks Sherman or Edmunds have the preference in his vicinity, but Worth Chamberlain says Mr. Arthur is ahead in the county. The twenty second district is not so favorable to the president. E. A. Farrar, of Syracuse, says Mr. Arthur is the first choice. A. J. Kneeland, of Cortland, says Blaine is the favorite. Hon. N. W. Nutting believes the twenty seventh district will favor Mr. Arthur, and Charles North and G. M. Sweet, of Oswego, are of the same opinion. William Howland, of Cayuga county, thinks the reverse, and Chairman Leach, of the Wayne committee, does not think the party is yet committed.

Francis, O. Mason, of Geneva, in the twenty ninth district, says Mr. Arthur is first choice of the republican politicians, and Cyrillo S. Lincoln, of Ontario county, thinks he is growing in favor and will secure the delegates, though Blaine has friends. Stafford C. Cleveland, the famous Penn Yan postmaster, hardly thinks the president is the first choice in Yates county, though there is a better feeling toward him than a year ago. Mr. Blaine would probably be the choice of a majority. G. Moulton, of the twenty first district, thinks Arthur is the Lincoln neck and neck, after whom Blaine, Sherman and Logan come in the order named.

Norman M. Allen, of Cattaraugus, in the thirty fourth district, thinks Mr. Blaine will get the delegates, if he is a candidate. H. O. Waite, chairman of the republican county committee, says Mr. Arthur is the choice of the republican politicians.

KILLING A CAPITALIST.

The Loser of Many Law suits Suits the Man Who Beat Him.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 14.—Charles McLaughlin was shot and killed here by Jerome B. Cox. The tragedy was the result of seven years' litigation. McLaughlin was a pioneer, the president of the Central Gaslight company, and a large capitalist and land owner, ranking among the millionaires. He was the promoter of the old overland mail route. In 1862 he contracted to build the Western Pacific railroad, from San Jose to Sacramento, for $5,400,000. He subcontracted the grading and masonry work to Cox and others for $900,000.

After twenty miles of the road had been built McLaughlin failed to make payment. Cox, who had put in $500,000 of his own money, had to stop work. McLaughlin completed the road and sold it to the Central Pacific Railroad company, realizing a large sum. Cox brought suit against the company and McLaughlin for $100,000, and obtained judgments, which, however, the supreme court reversed. Cox amended his complaint and again recovered judgment, which was again reversed. The adverse decisions so weighed upon Cox's mind that he, last spring, attempted to shoot Justice McKimley, of the supreme court. He went to McLaughlin's office and demanded $40,000. Being refused, he shot McLaughlin three times. The man lived thirty minutes after the shots were fired.

She Found She Had Married an African.

BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 15.—Emma J. Harrington has applied to the circuit court for a divorce from her husband, Robert Fearing, on the ground of miscegenation. It appears that Robert Fearing, the defendant, is of such light complexion that the evidences of African blood in his veins are not distinguishable. He was employed in the United States revenue marine service, and married Miss Harrington in Castine, Me., on May 8, 1879, she supposing him to be of the Caucasian race. Subsequently Fearing took his wife to North Carolina to visit his relatives, and the wife claims that there, to her surprise, she found her husband to be of African descent. She is now a resident of Maryland, and as miscegenation is prohibited by the laws of Maine, she asks for a decree declaring the marriage null from the date of its celebration. She is pretty, and has abundant means.

Virginia's Debt.

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 14.—A joint resolution was introduced in both houses of the general assembly by democratic members declaring that the people of Virginia have accepted the Riddlerberger act as the ultimate settlement of the debt of the state, and that any expectation that any other basis will ever be made or tolerated is illusory and hopeless; and that the interests of the creditors as well as the welfare of the state require that that settlement be accepted by the creditors as well as by the state, and therefore the general assembly calls upon the holders of all bonds and claims against the commonwealth to come forward and fund the same under the provisions of the act. The governor is requested to communicate these resolutions to bondholders by proclamation.

$12,000 Will Make Him Happy.

UNIONA, O., Dec. 14.—J. B. Wiant has filed a suit against Miss Row Snapp to whom he had been engaged since 1877. Miss Snapp told him a few days ago that she had learned to love another. So, to heal his sorely wounded heart, he sues the fair Snapp for $12,000 damages. This is the first time a man has ever sued a woman for breach of promise in these parts.

Immense Gold Fields Discovered.

OTTAWA, Dec. 11.—Advices have been received here showing that a large gold find has been discovered in the Rocky mountains, a mile or so north of Podmore. The find is reported to the department of agriculture as an immense bonanza. The surface find was of copper, assaying at 100 pounds per ton, and under that is the gold.

Killed in a Tunnel.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., Dec. 12.—Two workmen, Daniel Callahan and Patrick O'Neill, slipped from the track in the Hoosier tunnel to avoid the east bound freight train and were struck by an extra west bound freight. Callahan lost a leg and was otherwise bruised, and O'Neill had a foot cut off, his skull fractured, his body cut and will die.

THE COMING STRIFE.

Leading Republicans Discussing Mon and Issues for 1884.

Gen. Negley's Views of the Next Presidential Campaign—A Good Outlook for Blaine.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 14.—Gen. James S. Negley, president of the Union League of America, returned from Washington. In speaking of the meeting of the executive committee in that city, he said he had not heard such speeches in ten years as those made by the gentlemen who clearly outlined the issues upon which the campaign is to be made next year. He was emphatic in his declaration that there was no desire to raise the bloody shirt or to reopen sectional warfare.

There are, however, facts that would not down. Republican voters in the south were denied the right to express their opinions at the polls, and when allowed to do so their votes were not counted. Notwithstanding that the southern democrats had held the reins of government in the majority of southern states for the past decade he said they had failed to enact one piece of legislation that would correct these abuses. They had, on the contrary, repealed every law which had been previously enacted tending to throw sacredness around the ballot box, and to elevate the condition of the downtrodden and oppressed colored people, and to add to all they proposed, if given the power, to break down many national institutions, including the tariff, which, if carried out, would result in the impoverishment of the north and give the south cheap labor.

Whether the north shall be solidified against a solid south, or all these evils averted by wise legislation or prompt action on the part of the republican party, are questions, he says, which will form the chief issues of the presidential campaign.

BLAINE'S CHANCES FOR THE PRESIDENCY.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Ex-United States Senator Patterson, late of South Carolina, says that Don Cameron, ex-Recorder Quay and the other political leaders of Pennsylvania, have recently resolved to support James G. Blaine for the presidency in the coming contest. These leaders declare that they have fought Blaine long enough and that his great services to the party entitle him to the nomination for which he has so long struggled. They will no longer oppose or eminate a republican, who is a native of their own state. Mr. Patterson says that Arthur is a good fellow, but he has been weighed down by his cabinet. No one of his advisers is the kind of a man that a wise president would choose, while Brewster and Folger are extremely unpopular in Washington. The ex-senator intimates that the president would like to make Senator John F. Jones, of Nevada, his secretary of the treasury. He declared that Arthur committed a fatal mistake in not retaining all of Garfield's cabinet; that if he had fallen in with the Niagara like current of sentiment and sympathy for the murdered president, he would today have no opposition for another term. Had Arthur carried out the policy of the man the people had chosen as their chief, and the agents selected by him, he would today be the most popular man in the United States. As it is, the president has no influential following in any state. His career is drawing to its end.

CHICAGO NOT FAVORABLE TO LOGAN.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—A good deal of speculation has been indulged in here as to the significance of the action of the national republican committee in defeating the Frye proposition and sending the convention to Chicago. Some very wise people have concluded it was seriously pointing to Logan and the defeat of Arthur's chances. Col. Martin, secretary of the national committee, said that this was a great mistake. So far as the influences go in such matters he does not think Logan's chances improved by the convention being held at Chicago. The tendency is, he thinks, to work up a hostile feeling among party factions, which would be disastrous to the candidate. For this reason President Arthur did not want the convention held in New York state. Logan had always been downed in Chicago.

DEATH OF A NOTED SCHOLAR.

BOSTON, Dec. 15.—Prof. Jacob Frederick Kraus, a noted Oriental scholar, long a resident of this city, is dead. He was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1810, and was graduated at the University of Tubingen, subsequently studying philosophy at Basle, Switzerland. He became very proficient in the Oriental, Hebrew, Samaritan, Arabic and Chaldean languages, and well versed upon the Greek and Latin. A friend and fellow worker of the noted Biblical scholar, Constantine Tischendorf, he passed about seventeen years of his life in Jerusalem and the east, and brought to light one of the most ancient manuscripts of the Pentateuch.

An Immense Sale of Cattle.

DEVER, Col., Dec. 14.—One of the largest cattle sales on record has been consummated here. H. D. and J. W. Snyder & Co., of this city, bought of Snyder Brothers, of Georgetown, Tex., over 29,000 head of cattle and 400 horses for a consideration of $600,000 cash. The former firm now owns nearly 54,000 head of cattle and 1,000 horses.
