An appetizing dish appeared on our table the other day, called on the menu "smothered heart with lemon sauce." It was made of slices of beef heart cooked in a very little water until tender, then dipped in flour and nicely browned in butter. The sauce was of flour, butter and hot water, and was flavored with lemon. A DELICIOUS sauce may now be prepared for winter use; it is made of cranberries and raisins, To one quart canful of cranberry sauce allow one good handful of raisins; they impart a delicate flavor, which is a great improvement on the cranberries alone. Cranberries are also excellent canned alone, with a little sugar, for pies and puddings. It is better to put them up early in the season, as there is likely to be more waste later on.

BROWN FBICASSEE OF CHICKEN. - Clean, wash and cut the chicken into comparatively small pieces. Chop a quarter pound of fat salt pork and half a small onion, Put the chicken with these into a pot with a pint of cold water, and stew slowly until the meat is tender. Take out the chicken, put into a colander and keep hot over a pot of botling water, throwing a cloth over the colander. Strain the gravy back into the pot, season, with parsley, pepper and salt. Thicken with a tablespoonful of browned flour, boil up once, return the thorough and business-like attention to the chicken to the gravy; simmer ten minutes and serve.

Opera bonnets made entirely of natural flowers, such as Russian violets, tiny moss roses and forget-me-nots, are very fashionable, though expensive. The frame of the bonnet is sent to the florist and he has the blossoms carefully sewed on, and keeps it in the icehouse until half an hour or so before wanted. Such a bonnet costs from $20 to $50 and lasts but for one night. Violets are the best flower, because they keep fresh longer.

A MYSTERY OF THE SEA.

Boston,"-Captain Murray's Ideas and Experiences.

A few years ago, the City of Boston sailed from harbor, crowded with an expectant throng of passengers bound for a foreign shore.

She never entered port. The mystery of her untimely end grows deeper as the years increase, and the Atlantic voyager, when the flerce winds howl around and danger is imminent on every hand, shudders as the name and mysterious fate of that magnificent vessel are alluded

Our reporter, on a recent visit to New York, took lunch with Captain George Siddons Murray, on board the Alaska, of the Guion line. Captain Murray is a man stituted by any good cooking oil. I did not know what the trouble was, and though I performed all my duties regularly and satisfactorily, yet I telt that I might some day be overtaken with some serious prostrating disorder. These troubles increased. I felt dull and casy and the day following chilly and despondent. This continued until last December, when I was prostrated soon after leaving Queenstown, and for the remainder of the voyage was a helpless, putful sufferer. In compliance with your request I send you a statement of my case. I will write you with a double purpose, first to thank you for the great amount of good your medicine, Hunt's Remedy, has done me, and secondly, with the hope that my recovery will induce some sufferer to do as I did, "use the great specific and he would." "use the great specific and be cured." For nearly a whole year I was an invalid, unable to go out of the house, and a great part of the time confined to my bed, a living, powerless subject of the most dreadful of all diseases—kidney complaint. From the long suffering I became weak from the loss of strength, with a lack of vitality, and very much reduced in flesh. All this time I was taking various medicines, and under the care of our family doctor, and not receiving a particle of help. I had almost despaired of getting well when my attention was called to Hunt's Remdey by a boarder in my family. I commenced taking it (unknown to the doctor) with but little hopes use the great specific and be cured." known to the doctor) with but little hopes of relief. This non-belief was soon expelled, however, as I daily began to improve. I continued the use of Hunt's Remedy (and to make a long story short) used eight bottles, dispensed with the doctor, and to the ties, dispensed with the doctor, and to the surprise of all who knew me, and my own great satisfaction, became as well as ever. All pains and aches vanished, appetite returned, sirength and flesh, and to-day I consider myself as well as ever, and only too glad to place my testimony with that of many others.

That your medicine, Hunt's Remedy, brought me from a sick bed I well know, and many people who know of my condition pronounce my cure almost miraculous. I am happy to say I am enjoying excellent health, thanks to your valuable medicine, Hunt's Remedy.
