WOMAN'S PROVINCE.

The Duties of the Gentler Sex-How Best Fulfilled.

What a great task is assigned to woman its dignity cannat be elevated. It is not her province to make laws, to lead armies, nor to be at the head of great enterprises, but to her is given the power to form those by whom the laws are made, to teach the leaders of mighty armies, and the governors of vast empires. She is required to guard against having the slightest taint of bodily infirmity touch the frail creature, whose moral, intellectual and physical being is derived from her. She must instill correct principles, inculcate right doctrines, and breathe into the soul of her offspring those pure sentiments which in time to come will be a part of themselves, and bless generations as yet unborn. Yes, to woman is given the blessed privilege of aiding the sufferers in all the various stages of his existence. She smiles serenely at the christening, and weeps at the burial, while she soothes the bereaved heart. Yet now can she fulfilt her mission unless she is possessed of a strong and bealthy body? She was induced to try Perupa, and immediately a marked change took place. After using one bottle her cough ceased, and in a short time her other ailments were cured. She is now completely restored to health, and gives all the credit to Pe-
