THE CENTRE REPORTER.

FRED. KURTZ, Editor and Prop'r.

At a congregational meeting of Rev. White's charge, held at Milroy and Zeigler...

If Forepaugh's "white" elephant turns out to be a whitewashed animal as Barnum alleges...

The Republicans of this congressional district have chosen W. P. Duncan, of Philadelphia...

Sherman should go to Cincinnati and investigate. The Patriot remarks that the Democrats have turned the tables completely on John Sherman in his Danville investigation...

The boys employed about the mines near Wilkesbarre as drivers, door-tenders and slate pickers...

We still think it will be Tilden. When the President of Mexico was sworn in four years ago he was quite poor...

Hon. S. R. Peale, of Clinton, is a candidate for Congress in this district. Of course we expect Curtin to be nominated again as he seems to be a necessity in the national legislature...

The Emperor William, it is reported on good authority, has entered into a state of pronounced dotage. He has become abnormally suspicious of every person surrounding him...

West Virginia goes for Tilden with a big shout. Illinois Republicans have instructed for Logan for President.

It won't be Blaine. THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION. The Republican state convention was Blaine in name but anti-Blaine in effect.

Mr. Keller, delegate from this county, with Blaine instructions, voted with the anti-Blaine men on one of the main questions.

THE MORRISON BILL. All interest centered in the proceedings of the House, on 15. After the call of the committee Mr. Morrison, of Illinois, moved to go into committee of the whole on the tariff bill...

obtained the floor at 5.15, but yielded for a motion to adjourn. Millions of surplus in the Treasury represent the toil and sweat of the working men who are unnecessarily overtaxed.

Millions of surplus in the Treasury are calculated to demoralize and corrupt politics and thus imperil the future of the Republic.

Millions of surplus in the Treasury mean millions for the lobby at Washington and the perpetuation of its evil influence in the Government.

Agents represent that the sale of Blaine's new book is much injured because it contains Hayes' picture; so great is this a hindrance that Blaine thinks of having it taken out.

Blaine was tripped up and cheated twice before out of the Republican nomination for President. The doings of the state convention last week at Harrisburg indicate that he will be knifed for the third time at Chicago.

from the State forty-six, including the delegates-at-large, are instructed for Blaine. The friends of Blaine, however, have not figured more than forty-two votes for him, even should all the district delegates obey instructions.

Any soldier who has lost his discharge papers can get a duplicate by simply writing to the Adjutant General of the army at Washington, who will send him blanks to fill out.

The West Susquehanna Classis of the Reformed Church in the United States, will this year hold its annual meeting in Lewisburg, Pa. The opening sermon will be preached by Rev. A. C. Witmer, of Millburg, on Wednesday, 7.30 p. m.

The committee on "Permanent Certificates" will meet in Bellefonte on Friday and Saturday, May 2d and 3d. All applicants will please have their blanks in proper order, and pass the Com. at that time as prescribed by the new law of '83.

In a letter last week to the Pioneer Friend, worthy Master Leonard Rhone makes use of the following somewhat severe language in regard to the meeting of the committee recently held in Bellefonte and the general management of the State College.

The object of creating the committee to restore the College to the agricultural class was thus effected by three votes. We had a right to expect those votes; but the Adjutant General was ill and could not come.

They are hoping in vain and shame on the State for the neglect of her farms and bringing contempt on the effort of the State to establish an agricultural school.

He is improving in his sermons, and is very much liked by the people of Spring Mills. The lights all faded out of the chandelier and left it quite dim; what was the matter, King? Happy—the get that took the two ladies home to help eat the cake; was it good Charley? Jerry Condo is very ill with the mumps.

Paris, April 21.—The "Figaro" correspondent at Cairo, sends the following details of the recent Soudan massacres: Three hundred Egyptian troops and six hundred non-combatants, preferring to make the hazardous attempt to march to Berber, to starve inside of Shendi, set out from the latter place on the 15th.

The tide of immigration settling toward our shores is subject to fluctuations, but there exists no reason to anticipate that during the life of the present generation it will fall to reach the average height of the past ten years.

Had the plan proposed by the report of the committee been adopted the board could have made provisions for the maintenance of the experimental Stations without any additional appropriations from the State.

The Democratic candidate for congressman-at-large, General W. W. H. Davis, is a gentleman who has for many years past done good service for his party, who has fought gallantly for his country on the field of battle, and who as editor of the Doylestown Democrat, has long been respected for his ability and upright character.

A life picture illustrative of the beauties of the protective tariff was presented to the citizens of Pittsburg the other day at the railroad depot, where one train from the east was unloading a large number of cheap European laborers to work in the factories there, while another train from the west was receiving the families of twenty-five working men who, driven from the city by starvation wages or lack of work entirely, were on their way to Washington territory to try to better themselves, and commence life anew on the western edge of the continent.

Arthur's grist of delegates in his own state of New York is so small that it knocks his chances for the Chicago nomination into a cocked hat. All his occupancy of the presidential chair will be confined to what he got through Guitierrez's pistol.

Trenton, April 18.—This was tree-planting day in the state. The day was appointed by the Legislature just adjourned and ordered by proclamation by Governor Abbott.
