AN OPEN LETTER.

Office of D. GARMAN & SON. BUSH'S ARCADE. Bellefonte, April, 1884. TO OUR PATRONS : -

This week we enter upon our second year, and we have to thank the people for their very liberal patronage. Our success proves that "honest goods at honest prices" are bound to take, and it has built up the finest retail trade in the county. It is a platform that admits of no deception, in advertising no petty tricks to draw peo ple to our store: nothing that is in any way fraudvertisers to keep our goods, our prices and our /--- Neighbor Brisbin is adding a new ulent. We use the papers as do other honest adwe are very careful to tell the truth. While we are no less careful to avoid the mention of prices where they will be likely to create a false impression, we shall still tell you that anything you buy of us that is not exactly as we say, you may return it and have your money refunded.

Respectfully, your obedient servants, D. GARMAN & SON.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Reporter for the campaign 10c per m'th Don't you know that Garmans is the cheapest store in the county.

-Latest styles of men and boys suite, cheap at the Philad. Branch-call and see 'em, and save money.

-Wm. Wolf & Son have opened the business campaign with a spleudid stock of new goods-all No 1 as usual.

-The Philipsburg Ledger is a new applicant for the favors of the reading public of the western end of our county -spry, newsy and bright, we wish the Ledger success.

Wo'f's have a better line of shoes for ladies, gents and children, than they have ever had. Don't fail ito see them before buying elsewhere.

-The REPORTER joins in with the st of mankind in congratulating its es-

-Henry Boozer has now opened his meat-market, in the building near the hotel. He has crected a refrigerator and will have fresh meat on hand at all times. This enterprise deserves the patronage of the people of our town and neighbor-Mr. Boozer will have No. 1 fresh hood. beef, and do his utmost to render satis, faction. Let him be encouraged. ----Gentlemen will find the most beautiful lot of neck-ties and summer bats, at Wolf's in this valley ; also a full line of cassimere shirts, ganze underwear and every thing in gent's furnishing goods.

---- Penn Hall is all excited-there was an unusual thing happened there. Maj. Fisher surprised the natives by unpacking the finest and best stock of goods ever before brought to that place. The Major never does things by halves, hence FEED CUTTERS, CORN SHELLERS, CULTIVA- he intends to sell his spring and summer goods at bottom prices. He keeps none but reliable goods and misrepresents nothing to draw. Honest trade, small profits and quick sales are the secrets of Major Fisher's success. His dress goods are the late t sty es out ; bis groceries pure and fresh-pays highest prices for produce.

-Jas. Lenker wid left Aaronsburg two weeks ago, writes to his parents that it is fully as cold in Kas, as in Centre, but he likes the country much.

-J. C. Condo, of the Penn Hall carrage shops, favo ed us with a call. Read his ad. in the "R-por er" if you want a good road cart, etc.

/---Mullen has opened his new shoe store. He has his she ves filled, and lots of boxes in reserve with the best assortment of boots and shoes in the valley. Johnny is going to sel at bottom prices, and will offer such inducements as will convince people that there is not a better bargain to be had in boots and shoes than he will give, in his new store, adjoining Meyer's hotel, where, also you will find the most stylish fur and straw hats.

system before the public, and referring to all three dwelling house to his lot, and Joo. Rishel a small barn to his town property, and Yony Deininger a new ware house adjoining Harper & Kreamer's store. E--A cool wave struck us Monday night and Tuesday-weather clear, however. Farmers busy plowing and sowing.

As will be seen from our supplement the Philadelphia Branch has opened its spring stock of clothing and offers great bargains in suits for men and boys.

---- The grand army encampment will commence at Bellefonte August 16 and close on 21. The representation will te large.

----Persons wanting to go in lime, ce ment or stone quarrying operations read ad, of C. J. Stamm in "Reporter."

Prof. Robb, of the Centre Hall select school, chaperonel by Prof. Neff, gave our sanctum a pleasant call. We learn that Mr. Neff is about to become a law student-he has the talent for making a good lawyer.

-Frank Weaver has torn down the o'dCronmiller homestead at Aaronsburg. and during the summer will build a handsome house with a mansord roof. -Chas. Stover, of Farmers Mills, (now of F. & M. College.) will teach at

Aaronsburg during the summer. ---- Lewins & Co. have the best stock

The importance of the ensuing general election annot be estimated. The issues which must ne cannot be estimated. A research the of vast magni-tude to the people. So long has legislation. both State and National, been negatived by experts in the interest of corporations and, the core ituilion the interest of corporations and the core littline and the rights of the people trampled under floor that it will require a mightly ends on the part of the people to regain what has been surreplification taken from them. In the coming contest in co-county and state the party that will win mus-mentice ment of the legislative hall that will taken from them. In the coming context in cost county and state the party that will win must mominate men to fill the legislative hall that will stand up for reform. The people must be heard. The mandates of the constitution of our noble state, written more than ten years ago by men of s sting ability and clean hands inter be properly g iforced, and the rights of the people secured in perpetuity. Allow me to suggest to the people the name of Leonard Rhons, ist, of Potter twp, as a suitable candidate for near statistic. He has the ability and courage to defend the right and oppear the wrong; if nominated and clacted as wagid be faithful and yighant. The interests of the people his nomination would be a proper recognition of the large and influential agricultural element of the county and would be halled with delight by the people. His nomination by the Democratic
