

THE CENTRE REPORTER

FRED KURTZ, . . . Editor. CENTRE HALL, PA., June 25, '84.

REV. ISAAC GRIER, D. D., DEAD.

Millinburg, June 17.—Rev. Dr. Grier, died this morning at 1 o'clock, of heart disease, aged 78 years, 6 months. He was born at Jersey Shore, Pa., in January, 1806. In the fall of 1829 he entered theological seminary at Princeton. In 1832 he was licensed by the presbytery of Northumberland, at Warrior Run. The first year after leaving Princeton, he supplied the congregations of Washington, in White Deer valley, and Shamokin, in Northumberland county. In October, 1834, he accepted a call from the Washington congregation for half of his time. He gave up Shamokin and gave that half of his time to the Bethel church in White Deer twp. On the first Sabbath of May, 1835, he commenced preaching to the Buffalo congregation and has been their pastor ever since, nearly half a century, with the exception of one year, from October, 1852 to October, 1853, during which time he served the Washington congregation. In 1835 he was married to Miss Anna Campbell, sister of Dr. Campbell, for many years president of Rutgers College, New Brunswick, N. J. She is still living. They had no children. In 1859 Washington College, Pa., conferred him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity—an honor which he well deserved.

His death has cast a gloom over this entire community—especially on account of its suddenness. Last Sunday he preached at Buffalo X Roads in the morning and here in the afternoon. He was not very well and delivered his sermon sitting. Yesterday he walked our streets as usual—this morning he is a corpse. In his last hour he found solace in the faith he preached for so many years, and now he has gone to dwell with the Master he served so faithfully here.

The funeral took place at Millinburg on Friday, 20.—Journal.

BISHOP SIMPSON DEAD.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—The senior bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church in America, the Rev. Matthew Simpson, D. D., LL. D., peacefully and quietly relinquished his hold on this mortal life a little before nine o'clock this morning, at his home in this city. His wife and children were at his bedside when, at the hands of the mental clock near the hour of nine, a peaceful smile stole over his lips, his eyes were closed, his hands were folded on his breast and the aged bishop lay dead.

The disease which caused his death was nervous prostration and general debility—a general wearing out of the body. The bishop, like the founder of the church of his choice, was a man of strong physique and remarkable will-power, though tall in stature and rather spare and thin. He was a tireless worker in and for the church, and seemed to have but little physical ailment or weakness till several years ago when the infirmities of age suddenly became plainly apparent while he was preaching in San Francisco where he was attacked with nervous prostration, from which he never fully recovered. A second attack, just before the session of general conference last month, resulted in his death to-day.

A HORSE DIFFICULTY SETTLED.

Friday night Frank Alexander was arrested for procuring a horse of Squire Smith, of Centre county, in a way which was not altogether satisfactory to the latter gentleman. It appears Alexander held a note for $100 dollars against Smith which limitation had dissolved, although there was a credit of four dollars made on it which Smith knew nothing of. Mr. Smith owned a horse which he valued at $165 and Alexander concluded to purchase it, paying for it with the note he held and five dollars cash. Smith on examining the note of money received objected to accepting the note, but Mr. Alexander drove off with the animal, when the former sent word to Milroy to have the latter intercepted and arrested, but Alexander eluded him by taking a back road to Lewistown with the horse. Word was telephoned to this place for the authorities to watch for him and he was arrested about 11 o'clock that night by officers Price and Wimer, as he rode to his home on the animal in dispute. The horse was taken charge of and the man lodged in jail until next day when Smith arrived and the matter was compromised by Alexander giving up the horse and paying all costs.—Lewistown, Gazette, 18.

READING TO BORROW MONEY.

Philadelphia, June 17.—The United States circuit court to-day authorized the receivers of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company to borrow money for the purpose of paying the wages and interest on the consolidated mortgage which fell due on the 1st inst., and also authorized the receivers to issue certificates of indebtedness for claims for materials and supplies.

AN ACKNOWLEDGED BORROWER.

Yes, sir, I make my living by borrowing. It is a paying business. You invest no capital, and the only special training you require is a fair knowledge of the world. "The proper study for mankind is man," you know. How is it done? You must be born with a faculty for it. Now, ordinarily, when a man wants to borrow a dollar from another he watches to catch his victim alone. Then he sneaks up to him, and, if he is an awful fool, he says something intended to flatter him. If he is only a fool of the usual kind, he makes a remark about the weather or the affairs of the day. Then he says, in a kind of half whisper, "I wonder if you could spare me a dollar until to-morrow?" Or, "Oh, have you got a dollar about you that you could let me have until to-morrow?" Or, "Oh, by the way, I am a little hard pushed; would you mind lending me a dollar until to-morrow?" There are many other ways in which the simpletons put it, but there is one thing in common, and two things in general, among them. The also make "to-morrow" the date of payment, and rarely make their request exceed a dollar. Now, the first objection to this is that they equalize the advance forces. When you think you have an advantage over a man because he is alone, you forget that you are alone also. You have less hesitancy in refusing. Your reasons are exactly the same, your do not want strangers or friends to hear your request; but do you think, if you had approached him at first, that he would have wanted either strangers or friends to hear his refusal? At any time a man is likely to speak to you when confidentially conversing, in pretty much the same tone that you speak to him, provided you speak first. If you whisper to a man your secret desire for a dollar, he is very likely to whisper back a refusal. There is a way of avoiding all this. When you want to borrow money from a man, choose a time when his friends are about him. Then walk up to him and say pleasantly, "Oh, I nearly forgot about it—can I depend upon you for a couple of dollars to-night?" You mustn't wait for him to answer; add before he speaks, "Oh, it will do in a few minutes," as though you were interested in something one of his friends was saying. If that man doesn't search his pockets thoroughly for the money he is a rascal. Of course, if he hasn't got it, you embarrass him; but you are less embarrassed yourself than you would have been had you and he been alone, and that is a great point, though not a lucrative one. For the first two or three times I pay back my loans. Then I get a larger loan and let them go. I very seldom borrow more than twice after I have determined to stop paying him.

His death has cast a gloom over this entire community—especially on account of its suddenness. Last Sunday he preached at Buffalo X Roads in the morning and here in the afternoon. He was not very well and delivered his sermon sitting. Yesterday he walked our streets as usual—this morning he is a corpse. A second attack, just before the session of general conference last month, resulted in his death to-day.

THE BANJO.

Just now, banjos are the fashion. Ladies learn to play on this humble instrument, and like it. A gentleman doesn't like to take his banjo to a party, but when a lady produces one he considers it a fine opportunity to show his strength concerning the "Sawnee River," or "Niodeemus Johnson." If ladies had no banjo in the house these chances would not occur. Another reason for the popularity of the instrument is that it makes fun; people get tired of the stiff, technical, finished piano playing which ladies have carried to such an extreme. It bores them to make the effort to show indiscriminate appreciation of classical music. The banjo fever has been raging all through the winter. There are many forms and styles of banjos. I think there is little real difference in them. The main point is to have fine strings of good quality, and a good parchment head stretched as tightly as it will bear. You can make almost any properly proportioned banjo talk if the skin is tight and hard. It is considered quite a nice thing for a young man to make a small banjo for his sweetheart. He buys the materials and works them up to suit his fancy. In these cases the article is likely to cost him about $30. The latest idea in getting up a presentation banjo for a girl is to buy one ready made and inlay it with different colored woods; there was a good deal of this done last winter, and some of the results were very pretty. If you buy a $5 banjo, properly constructed, add pegs and tail pieces of ivory, and do a little inlaying and carving, you will have an instrument worth from $25 to $50. The idea that the banjo is a prime favorite among our colored people is a popular error. The colored people will go around with a banjo for business purposes; he knows that people connect him with the instrument and is willing to give way to their notion. But in his family the colored man plays something else. They buy ten guitar strings to one banjo string. It is a curious consideration that the historic instrument of the troubadour should have almost ceased to be a society music-making machine, while the once lowly banjo is heard in the drawing-rooms.

A BLAZE AND RIOT.

Braddock, Pa., June 19.—Shortly after 3 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in Sedden's hardware and tin shop on Main street, and before the flames could be controlled the entire block, bounded by Eight and Barton streets, was entirely destroyed. Loss will exceed $75,000, which is partially covered by insurance. The fire is believed to be incendiary, as this was the third time Sedden's establishment has been on fire within six weeks.

After the fire was out a small riot occurred, participated in by 15 or 20 persons, who had knocked in the bungs of whisky barrels and drank liquor until intoxicated. A number of persons were slightly hurt, but none seriously. Twelve special policemen were sworn in, who quelled the disturbance and arrested 8 of the principals.

FIVE THOUSAND MINERS IDLE.

Pittsburg, June 18.—The strike of the coal miners in the Monongahela Valley has spread to nearly every pit in the four pools and about 5,000 miners are now idle. The operators say they cannot afford to pay three and a-half per bushel, the price demanded for mining, and predict that the men will return to work at the old wages in less than two weeks.
