Reporter for the campaign 10c per m'th

-Farmers are plowing.

-Oats and barley crop is good. -Democratic delegate elections next Saturday afternoon, 9.

One of the leading questions of the day, "Will you vote for me?"

-Centre Hall has better stores for its size than any town in the county. G. W. Harter's Milibeim grocery is ilding up a fine trade in that busy town. -H. H. Tomlinson, late merchant at Millheim, we are informed, intends strik ing for the far west. --- Coburn is still having more new houses. Among others that of H. Ging-erich, formerly of Centre Hall. -Mr. Henry Frankenberger, one of the old inhabitants of Penn twp, died on Tuesday of last week. -Get three names and send us $1 and we will send the REPORTER to each for the campaign. -Gen. Beaver and his three sons went to the Gestysburg encampment by carriage from Bellefonte. -Trout fishing season ended with July. In one month we can shoulder our gun and go squirrel hunting. - The Ladies' Ref. Mite Society, of Aaronsborg, netted some $75 from their festival and the lecture of Gen. Fi-her.

-It is soon time for a Cleveland and Hendricks club to be organized at this place. Let something be done in this direction. -August term of court will be held one week only, beginning fourth Monday

(26th) in August. -Last week's rain ensures a pretty fair corn crop in our county, though not as full as if the rain had come a week -Several life insurance agents stopped in this place last week and showed our ci izens "the advantages of having their lives insured." -The dead body buried in a box found a few weeks ago in the mountains south of Millheim, was that of a dog, as the "Journal" has it, -We heard a farmer say the other day, he wished he had some way of driv ing away book agents, sewing machine agents, candidates and tramps.

John M. Stover, of Haines town-ship, called upon the "Reporter." He reports crops immense in the Pine Creek in low prices for ready-made clothing. section, but a scarcity of apples, -John I. Potter has been appointed passenger and first class freight agent at Bellefonte, on Bald Eagle Valley rail-road, vice W. W. Potter, deceased. -The G. A. R. encampment to be held at Bellefonte beginning on 16th, promises to be a grand affair. Preparations are being made to accommodate a large number of people.

- Early watermelons have made their appearance; they are liable to produce the same effect as green apples upon the small boy. Cholera morbus, in its crude form, should be avoided.

-Mr. Lewis Mensh, on Wm. Harter's farm, near Aaronsburg, threshed the grain from one of the poorest fields, and had a yield of about 25 bushels to the acre. What will the best yield?

-- Prof. Joe. H. Feehrer, the popular band instructor, is at present engaged in trimming up the Picasant Gap band, which will hold a source on Sturday, 9, in Miller's grove, at that place.

-We have been informed that Rev. S. M. Roeder, Reformed pastor of this place, has resigned from pastoral duries in this charge and accepted a call from Reform debur hat Elizabethtown, Lar-

"Comp " a confederate organization from Virginia, are expected to be present The members of the Middleburg and Mifflinburg Posts, expect to attend and for that purpose have employed Stetler's cornet band of this place to accompany them. They purpose going to Centre Hall by rail and from thence take it foot-back across Nittany mountain to Bellefonte. Not less than five thousand soldiers are expected. -Harvest is over and crops were abundant which will make money plenty, and then there will be an increased rush to the Pailad. Branch for readymade clothing, because it is the cheapest place in the state to buy suits for mer and boys. Lewins & Co. never let a our chaser go off without his being satisfied that he has made a bargain and received the full value of his money.

- Bellefonte, from the reading matter of its papers, seems to have a severe attack of base ball fever, a disease affecting nearly every youth in the land.

-Messrs. Witmer & Lincoln have taken possession of Smith's grain ware house at Coburn, and will be pleased to see farmers who have grain to sell or who wish to purchase coal, salt, fertilizer, etc. They are a reliable firm. Read adv't in another column.

- The shrill whistle of steam thresh ers can be heard throughout the valley, which remaids us that our farmers are adopting new and improved machinery to prepare their crops for the market.

-The encampment at Bellefonte will oblige the Philad. Branch to get a new stock of ready-made clothing, as ev ery stranger will purchase a suit before ty. Our great bargain just now is a leaving the town, knowing that he can save much thereby and thus make up for the expenses of the trip. No shoddy will be kept, and prices will be reduced to accommodate the hundreds of new customers.

-The delegate election for the Northern precinct of Potter will be held at Centre Hall, and for the Southern precinct at Potters Mills. We make this announcement because some are under a wrong impression.

-Mingle's boot and Shoe store in the Brockerhoff block, continues to take the lead for first class goods and low prices. No trash offered and all goods warranted genuine.

--- Every Democrat in the county should read the REPORTER during the campaign. Send three names and $1 and you get it. Six names and $2 and one copy free for the person sending the names. This is the lowest offer out.

Minder, Jonas Minder, Benjamin Minder, Jacob Minder, Elias Minder, Benjamin Minder, Jacob Minder, Elias Minder, Elizabeth Fieisher, wife of Henry Fieisher, and Henry Fieisher: Notice is hereby given that on the 27th day of August, 1883, the petition of Samuel Bechtel was presented setting forth that on the day of November, A. D., 1841, John Minder conveyed to him a certain tract of land situate in Potter township, Centre Co., Pa., bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a post, thence south 839, east 168 perches to a post; thence south 839, west 50 so follows: Beginning at a post, thence south 88°, west 56 perches to a post; thence south 88°, west 56 perches to a stone; thence north 30°, west 184 perches to a chestnut oak; thence north 60°, cast 60 perches to the place of beginning, containing 60 acres and allowance, and joining lands of John Minder, that the said John Minder executed a proper deed for the said premises to the petitioner, but that said deed was lost or mislaid, and praying the said Court to award a subpoena directed to all parties in interest to appear and show cause why said lost deed should not be supplied according to the provisions of the act of Assembly in such case made and provided. Whereupon the said Court a warded said subpoena and ordered an advertisement, giving notice of said application and requiring all persons whom it may concern to appear in Court on the 4th Monday of August next to make their answer upon eath or affination to said bill or petition.

J. L. SPANGLER,
Attorney for Petitioner.
