WHAT AN IMPARTIAL REVIEW OF THE FIELD SHOWS.

Blaine Sure of only One Hundred and Twenty-Four Electors.

New York, Sept. 22.—Gov. Cleveland has gained great strength with the peo-ple during the last two weeks, and the good Republicans at headquarters admit as much. While the Republicans are working for dear life in Ohio and West Virginia, the Democrats are making certain of New York, and at headquarters to-night the greatest confidence was entertained of 50,0000 majority in the Empire State for Cleveland, while many neavy bets have been made on 75,000. The Post correspondent to-day interviewed a number of national Democrats on the chances of gaining Pennsylvania's 30 have tried this plan say that it is very promising to call for them to-day. votes for Cleveland. One and all said easy of execution, and instances are on they did not think any such a thing possible unless the Republicans should be swamped in Obio and West Virginia next month; and even then they thought it doubtful. In spite of this Speaker Car-lisle is positive that Pennsylvania will go for Cleveland, and less than a week since the writer almost had a quarrel with that distinguished son of the Keystone State, Samuel J. Randall, for leaving Pennsyl-vania out of the Democratic column while making certain estimates based on the electoral vote by states. Mr. Randall and Mr. Carlisle were both sincere and earnest in their claims, and while they did not succeed in making the National Democratic Committee enthusiastic converts they did at least nothing to cast a shadow.

THE FIGHT IN OHIO.

The great fight at present is in Ohio for October. At Republican headquarters the slogan is: "We must carry Ohio," and the inference is plain that Republican national success depends upon it, and in the event of losing the state next month, or merely saving it by a scant majority or merely saving it by a scant majority, the Republicans understand that Blaine will not be chosen. And herein lies the greatest difficulty of the Republicans in and look calmly on any one State in the clenched, and kept apart with a cork or a and look caimly on any one State in the Union as safe for Mr. Blaine. Granting Blaine California, Colorado, Iowa, Kan-sas, Maine, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont and Wisconsin, he has only 124 | wiped with a rolled handkerehief, and votes of the needed 202, and he must carry Illinois (22), New York (36) and Ohio (23) in order to win. He has no surety of getting Wisconsin's 11 votes. It rest of the body. The waist should then HAS JUST RECEIVED THE FINEST LOT OF is very generally conceded that Cleveland will carry the solid South, with its 135 votes and the Democrats look on these figures as reliable to build their column upon. Added to the South he is sonceded New Jersey with 9 yotes, and Governor Hendricks has never yet failed to carry tary intervals, but with regularity, until Hendricks has never yet failed to carry Indiana, with 15 votes. In Michigan the fusion, Democrats and other parties against the Republicans, will surely win on a basis of a division of the electoral vote—7 for Cleveland and 6 for Butler. Thus it is that Mr. Cleveland is granted Uncertain the would the opposite direction from before) for the opposite direction from before) for 190 votes, and with Wisconsin he would the purpose of expelling any water rewin without New York, Ohio and Illibois. Blaine's managers are not in a maining in the air passages. MRS. MORRILL AND MRS. BLAINE.

[St. Louis Spectator.]

Mrs. Blaine gave fine entertainments in Washington and had money to lavish in all directions, but Mrs. Morrill and her husband had nothing but his salary and they could not afford to entertain like the Blaines. One day Mrs. Blaine was so indiscreet as to say to Mrs. Morrill while they were both at Washington: "Why don't you take a fine house like 1 have and do some entertaining?" That made Mrs. Morrill very angry. She went home and said to her husband: "Why don't you steal?" He was shocked almost beyond expression, but managed to ask her what she meant. "I mean this," she said, "to-day Mrs. Blaine asked me why we didn't take a house and entertain like she has done. I now repeat, why don't you steal ?" Mr. Morrill had no difficulty in knowing what that meant and from that day until this Mrs. Morrill and Mrs. Blaine have not spoken to each other.
