This signal Democratic triumph over fusion and corrupt frauds in West Virginia is a severe blow to the Blaine and the Democratic increase in West cause. In the certainty of the loss of Virginia settle the Presidential fight in New York the Blaineites have felt their favor of Cleveland, and the Blaineites only hope was to create the belief they could break the Democratic column. CONGRESS.

We print the address of the conferrees of Centre and Clearfield in another column. It sets forth the reasons which led them to nominate Governor Curtin for Congress. The fooling around of the conference demanded some step that would put an end to the traveling farce, and under the circumstances the nomination of Gov. Curtin by the above counties was justifiable, as the conferrees were arbitrarily keeping up a dead-lock up to the eve of the election without any one knowing when the dead-lock was to end, or any prospect of it ending at all. If the A. J. GRAHAM, conference was in favor of Hall why did t not so decide long ago? Curtin was clearly the choice of a large majority of the Democrats of the district, which every conferree knew as well as we know t-and if he was the choice of the people it was the duty of the conference to nominate Gev. To the Democracy of Clearfield and Centre Counties.

Owing to the peculiar political situation in this Congressional District, we deem it but fair to you, and to ourselves as the Representatives of the Democracy of Centre and Clearfield counties, to nake a statement of the condition of affairs as we found them in this District, and to render to you an account of our stewardship.

The undersigned were appointed by the County

Conventions of Clearfield and Centre, the repre entative bodies of the great Democratic party of said counties, as conferrees, to represent our re pective counties in the Democratic Congression Conference of the Twentieth District of Pennsy vania, and instructed to use all honorable means to secure the re-nomination of ex-Gov. Curtin, our present distinguished and efficient member. Union and Missin counties in Lock Haven, on the | Spitville. 25th of September, where an organization was effected.—That a motion was there made to go into secret session in one of the small rooms in the Court House. Your Conferrees remembering the odium attached to the Star Chamber proceedings of the last Senatorial conference, and that inno cent men of our counties were there smirched, refused to go into secret conclave, and demanded the conferrees of the other four counties adjourned to the Court House, where after some deliberation the resolution was rescinded. On the following day the full conference met in the Democratic Club Room. Your conferrees were there met by a delegation from the miners and working men of Houtzdale, Woodward township, and vicinity, who presented their credentials and a copy of the roceedings of their convention and the following intions, viz :

1. Resolved, That we, the miners and working men of Houtzdale, Woodward township, and vicinity, will support no man for office who is not known to be friendly to the interests of the working men, and who will not support such measures as beneficially effect the laborers' interests.

2. Resolved, That whereas Hon. A. G. Curtin, our present representative in Congress from this Congressional district, has shown himself by his votes, speeches and course in Congress during the past four years to be the sincere and earnest friend of the working man, that we heartily endorse him and respectfully demand his return to Congress, and to that end we will yote and work for him to the exclusion of any other nominee.

3. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the Democratic Congressional Conference, and that in the event of their failing to nominate Hon. A. G. Curtin then to present the same to the Republican Congressional Conference. You will see by the above resolutions the deternation of the miners and working men to vote for ex-Gov. Curtin to the exclusion of any other ominee. The laboring vote of this district amounts to between hix and eight thousand votes. -That to make a nomination antagonistic to the spirit of these resolutions would be suicidal to our party. We adjourned from Lock Haven to St. Mary's where delegates from the Miners and Laborers' Amalgamated Association appeared and presented a copy of the proceedings of their con vention held at DuBois, and a resolution demand ing the re-nomination of ex-Gov. Curtin. To both of these appeals from organized labor the confer-rees of Elk, Clinton, Union and Mifflin turned a It were worse than useless to follow the confer It were worse than useless to follow the conference to the different places of meetings. Suffice it is to say that throughout the entire district your conferrees found but one sentiment. We have presented every phase of the case to the other conferrees, hoping that they might respect the wishes of the people of this district. They failed to do so. At Bellefonte resolutions were presented by the Cleveland and Hendricks Clubs of Coronda and Renormality of ed by the Cleveland and Hendricks Clubs of Ocseola and Renovo, asking the re-nomination of ex-Governor Curtin, with the same effect. Here it became patent to all that another adjournment would be forced and valuable time frittered away, and the party sent to the poils in November with no candidate. The iron hand of necessity was laid on your conferrees, a Congressman at stake, and disorganization and disintegration staring us in the face. In view of all these facts, and many others which could be enumerated, there was but one resort for us as representatives of the people one resort for us as representatives of the people of this district, viz: to withdraw from the con-ference, nominate Gov. Curtin, and submit the case to the voters at the polls. This your confer-rees have done.

The result of it all is that your conferrees, representing a majority of the Democratic voters, have made a nomination that voices the sentiment have made a nomination that voices the sentiment of the Democratic masses of the district. The conferrees of Clinton, Elk. Union and Mifflin, representing a minority of the Democratic voters, bolted that nomination and put in the field Mr. Hall, of Elk. Your conferrees have no words of censure for their fellow-conferrees from the other counties. We recognize the delicate position in which they were placed. Held firmly in the grasp of local candidates, whose single idea was the defeat of ex-Gov. Curtin, a sense of honor compelled them to obey the behests of their candidate. We were treated with uniform courtesy by them, and by the people of all the counties in which our conference met, and we sincerely regret that anything of an unpleasant nature should have occurred here. But we are not responsible for what we could not prevent. With you rests the final result red here. But we are not responsible for what we could not prevent. With you rests the final result,

In nearly all the localities where the liquor interests were strong Judge Johnson, the Republican candidate for the Supreme Court and a Prohibitionist, received the highest vote of any man on the ticket, Ex-Governor Foster said four days before the election that this would be the case. He said that the liquor interests were more disgusted with the Democrats than with the Republicans upon the temperance question, and that before the vote was cast the liquor association would pass the word for the forces that they should reach to vote the Republican ticket. It does look very much as though some such deal was made.

McClain for Register and Bible for Reorder, are two tried men. These officers require a re-election because it takes long for a man to become acquainted with the duties of the same. McClain has proven one of the best and most obliging Registers this county has ever had, and the same can be truthfully said of Recorder Bible. Then by all means keep them there for another term, as they are now schooled, and don't have a change until the regular time, three years hence, otherwise the people will suffer who have business in these important offices. There is no reason for a change but every reason against it. Give McClain and Bible a good vote for their past faithfulness.
