INTERESTING NOTICE.

Two weeks ago our Fall Stock began to arrive and to say that we were surprised at the way they turned out expresses it but mildly. Every where we hear words of praise and commendation. One lady from New York remarked : "I never expected to find such a stere in Bellefonte.' If you will be honest and candid and take a look we know that you will be astonished and have to acknowledge the same.

In Dress Trimmings, Pasamentries, Fringes, Heading Ornaments, Buttons, Buckles, &c., our line will exceed by far any of our neighbors.

Our 54-inch dollar Dress Cloth for 75 Cents beats them all. The cloths are made by first-class makers-less eminent perhaps than Lupin but in quality and wear equal any made. We have but a limited quantity left-remember 54 inches wide at 75 cents, never before offered for less than one

We would be pleased to have you call, and feel sure that you will not regret it.

A telegraph pole saved one man from having his head knocked off, the rock knocking a large piece from the pole and shattered | at the shops of J. B. Ream & Son, Farma large photograph frame of Glen's picture gallery. Other large pieces went through Williams' wall paper establishment damaging windows and goods.

-Mr. Landis, machinist, and J. C. Harper, prothonotary, burst into our sanctum the other day in company with a friend, whose name we have forgotten, and kept things lively and pleasant for half an hour. Harper brought a life-size bust of all above his shoulders, which any one would smile to see, and we only regret its perishable nature. Each one was armed with an ear of corn denoting the plenty in that staple article.

- Felix Burkholder made a narrow escape from death on Thursday, 16. He lumber, and by tilting up of the wagon seat he was thrown off, landing on his head. Mr. John Snyder was close behind and fortunately cried "whoa" to the horses, this and the strain of the lines wrapped around Mr. Burkholder's hands caused the team to halt at once, otherwise the wheels of the heavily laden wagon would have gone over his head. Mr. Snyder picked him up in an insensible state, from which he soon recovered He had severe bruises about his head from the fall.

The railroad company intends changing the name of Spring Mills station to Rising Spring. We suppose because there is a Spring Mills in Montgomery county, which often causes a misshipment of freight and express goods. We don't care what the new name will be but we don't fancy Rising Spring. Duncan or some name might be preferred. The company will most likely adopt the suggestion of the REPORTER and abolish some of the Halls, and start in with a new name for Linden Hall and Oak Hall, and if Centre Hall were not so established a name we would favor blotting another "Hail" out of the map.

-Upon the subject of boots and shoes there is so much said about big stock, finest styles, best goods, best bargains and lowest prices, by so many other dealers that Powers & Son hardly know what to say for themselves and their boot and shoe store, and only invite the people of Pennsvalley and other parts of the county to call in and see for themselves, examine their goods and prices and then compare with others. One visit will satisfy any man or woman that at Powers' stock, prices, styles, etc. are just such as will meet the wants of the people, without needing any misrepresentation in any particular whatever. # LINDEN HALL ITEMS.

Business is booming. It is surprising what a stir the railroad creates. We cannot understand why so many folks are so much concerned about the name of this place; with "Hall" affixed is surely no disgrace. It was suggested not long ago that it be changed to "Hesson." This would simply be absurd—better make it "Hessick." Two grain merchauts have embarked in the enterprise, viz. G. Moyer & Son and D. Hess & Alexander, and feel satisfied that they will not prove dead-heads. The grain elevater will be erocised soon. W. R. Alexander has just returned from Philadelphia and New York with an immense stock of goods, so much in excess that it has become necessary to take another partner, and change of name will therefore take place Thursday, 25th. Here are our congratulations. The Cleveland and Hendricks meeting on Wednesday last was a decided success. The meeting was organized by electing Ph. Meyer, chairman, and James Swab, secretary. Messrs, Woodward and Spangler spoke. Our school opened, on 20th, with Miss Nannie Canapbel: as teacher. The old desks were romoved and comfortable and substantial ones placed instead. Ex-Commissioner Geo. Swab'and wife are at present visiting their son, John Swab, at Erie. The Major reports having killed eleven coons this season. The appearance of a bear and three cubs created a great excitement a few days 250. After viewing the country a short time the bears fied to a corn-field, where they were pressed by Ross, Meyer and Keller, each armed with a Spencer rifle. We cannot censure it, for firing at an old stump mistaking it for the bears, as it was gatting dark. Our blacksmith is an enterprising man—a few days ago he purchased a patent bellows, and isinks it quito an improvement over the old fashioned lestings bellows; he also got something resembling a telephone. The frost "froze up" our Sunday School. Gur toynghip has prothonotary clerk aspirants. Mr. I. F. Meyer and Miss G. spent a few days at Eagleville last week. THE LATE INDIANA HORROR.

A Terrible Revelation Made by Young Hendershot Just Before Lynching.

Jasper, Ind., October 14 .- One of the participants in the linching of young Hendershot, one of the murderers of his mother at Troy, tells a borrible story of his revelations made by him just before ne was choked to death. Hendershot was strung up several times and taken lown to obtain a confession which was finally extorted from him. He said that his mother, father and himself started in a wagon to Grand View. Upon arriving at the barn in which the murder was committed his father proposed to sleep there during the night.

They all entered and lay down on the hay. After his mother had fallen asleep old Hendershot arose and discharged the contents of a shot gun into her head. He then directed his son to sever the head from the woman's body. This the wretch winter goods. They will excell anything in the valley, and will keep up with the times and needs of our people. Wolf & son are known to keep only first-class strument too dull to cut the neck through, he seized the head of the dead woman and by twisting it around tore t from the neck, covering himself with lood which spurted from the wounds. His father assisted in stripping the lothing from the corpse, which was then thrown into the cistern, where they were found. Young Hendershot took the head out of the barn and tossed it as far as he could into the thicket. The blood stained clothing was concealed under a bridge near Troy. TWO NEGROES SHOT FOR AS-SAULTING A LITTLE GIRL.

St. Souis, Mo., October 14 .- A special o the Post Dispatch from Fulton, says: As a ten year old girl named Bennet, was walking with a younger sister past a corn field near Guthries, ten miles east of here yesterday at noon, one of three negroes working in the field seized the child and assaulted her. Her little sister carried the alarm home and a posse of citizens organized immediately. All the negroes were found in the field armed with corn knives and a gun. They made a show of resistance, but finally surrendered and were taken to Guthrie and put under guard.

At 3 o'clock this morning a party of the negroes were confined and fired at them through the windows. One of the negroes ran into the street and was shot dead. The others were again fired upon to human life which has happened in and one, the ravisher, fell down and was left for dead.
