The Philadelphia "Journal" has been pink long enough, now let it turn back to the good old white color. Centre Hall can boast of not having a skating rink, and we rather think will be spared the shame of having one.

Wm. Pealer has been appointed post-master at Spring Mills. A good appointment—we congratulate Mr. Pealer. Mrs. Thomas Brumgard, of Rebersburg, a short time ago, by a fall over some rubbish, broke a leg and arm.

W. H. Ripka, practical millwright, of Globe Mills, Snyder county, is doing some repairs at A. P. Zerby's sawmill. Actual business shows that Wm. Pealer, at Spring Mills, has the leading store of that place. His stock is all new and attractive, and his prices are down to suit the times.

Aaron Thomas has taken the job of moving the "Felmlee" house from the corner down to Spangler's lot on East Church street and putting it safely over cellar and wall. Centre Hall water works are to be partly reconstructed by enlarging the upper half of route to triple the capacity of present main, and to extend the route to the railroad. Work will begin at once.

Hurrah for the Philad. Branch! yelled a lumberman as he went up street, with a bundle under his arm, I bought a suit of clothes there for $8 less than the price elsewhere, and that is clearing one whole week's wages. No purchaser has yet had reason to complain on account of dealings with A. C. Mingle, for he always guarantees what he sells and lives up to promises.

A couple suddenly disappeared from Mill Hill, the other day, and the gossips have it that it is a genuine elopement. The man was a grass widower from Flemington. The "better half" was a resident of Mill Hill. Names are temporarily withheld, so says the Lock Haven Democrat. Mr. John A. Rupp and Mr. Collins, two prominent and active Democrats of College township, give the Reporter a pleasant call, and were soon joined by one of Donsburg's active business men, Mr. Fred Weaver, and altogether a jolly time was had for half an hour.

A few evenings ago, while passing through a bridge between his home and the place at which he preached, Rev. J. A. Magill, a United Presbyterian Minister, living near McCoyville, Juniata Co., had his horse seized by the bridge and stopped by two men. "We have stopped you," said one of them, "to say that you do not quit preaching temperance, as you have been preaching it, you may expect to move suddenly before long." Then they released the bridge and he drove home.

FOR THE REPORTER.

Mr. Editor.—The musical convention at Aaronsburg under the supervision of the Ladies' Mite Society of the Reformed church was in every way a decided success. At the organization Tuesday evening, 6, about 50 singers were present, which number was increased to seventy-five. Many of the best singers in Centre and Union counties were present. The chorus singing was considered very good, especially when it is remembered that the building in which the convention was held is poorly adapted to such purposes. The singers deserved great praise, and those from abroad returned to their homes with the best wishes of the pastor and the people for whose benefit they had kindly given their services.

Miss Krainer, of Milliford, a skillful pianist and successful instructor of music, ably officiated at the organ. Miss Shriner has held honorable positions at the Allentown Female college and in the Freeburg musical college, and her services are in frequent demand at teachers' institutes and musical conventions, being an expert in her profession.

Miss Lizzie M. Swartz, of Sunbury, graced the occasion with her presence and improved it with her elegantly rendered songs. Miss Swartz as a vocalist has no superior in central Pennsylvania. Whilst the insufficiency of the instrument in use rendered it impossible for her to sing her best selections, those which under the circumstances she could render, gave sufficient evidence of the gracefulness and ease with which she is able to command her voice. To hear her on this occasion was a treat which few who were present had ever enjoyed.

Among the selections which she sang "Sing Bird" and "Christine" deserve special mention. Prof. Weaver in directing the convention well sustained his good reputation. There is in his manner no wasting of time with a superfluity of words—the fault of so many musical directors. He begins in earnest and conducts the convention in an earnest, dignified, practical manner to the end. Hence the result is so satisfactory.

The proceeds of the convention after deducting all expenses are $71, which will be quite a help to the ladies who have in hand the furnishing of the new church. A NEW DEPARTURE. A Strictly Cash Store where goods are bought and sold for Cash. We do not think it necessary to recall to the minds of the people the instances under our own observation in which business men have been ruined by the credit system, but ask you frankly whether it is not the cause of embarrassing so many business men of to-day. Believing you admit it we desire to impress you with the fact that on and after FRIDAY, DECEMBER 26, we will inaugurate an entire new system known as the STRICTLY CASH OR MONEY DOWN.

By this we do not mean to say "terms a cash" and sell on credit but mean what we say, and the editor of the "Reporter" cannot buy 50 cents worth unless he planks down the cash, and so the rule will apply to all alike. We next wish to show that this new system will be even more advantageous to the public than to ourselves, as follows: 1st—Merchandise bought on credit must eventually be paid for and as there are always more or less dead accounts the merchant is compelled to add at least 5 per cent. to the price of his stock to account for his loss.

2d—On account of not getting money down he must add another 5 per cent. to pay the interest on his borrowed money. 3d—It requires one third more work to make a blotter charge than to simply take the money and this necessarily adds another 5 per cent. to the price. 4th—Not being able to pay for goods as soon as they reach the store, (by having money in his books), the credit merchant pays 5 per cent. more than the cash merchant.

You can add numerous reasons of your own and conclude by saying, "it is a golden idea for all," and in addition to the saving of 15, 20 or 25 per cent. on our goods we will be able to close the year free of debt. Under the new system we offer Granulated sugar at 7c, Arbuckle's coffee at 16c, best home-made flour $1.10 per sack, Lewisburg roller flour $1.40, A syrup 88c per gallon, Appleton's maulin 7c per yard, dress goods 8c, best prints 6c, cheap prints 3c, &c., &c.

Produce taken in exchange or cash paid when desired. Dinges, Trumpher & Co., COBURN, PENNA. dec24
