AN IMPORTANT FACT.

Owing to the great depression in all brunches, we have been enabled for the READY CASH to secure some of the greatest bargains ever heard of in the way of Spring

Carpets, Matting and House Furnishing Goods. In these lines there seems to have been a greater stagnation than in any other. And in view of which we can now show the largest stock in Centre county of Velvet, Brussels, Body Brussels, Ingrains, Hemp and Rag Carpets, at prices lower than ever heard of even before the war. Therefore every body who is in need of Carpets this Spring, will do well to give us a thorough look before purchasing.

Every piece bears a ticket with the lowest Cash Price per yard marked thereon. In fact we mark none of our goods in cipher or unknown characters, and then delude customers into the belief that ofter they have bartered down 10 to 15 per cent from the asking price, that they have secured a bargain. Then afterwards to their sorrow they find out that they could have bought the same article from 10 to 15 per cent less at the "One

At the elections held last week the SUICIDE OF HOWARD BRICKLEY.

[Philipsburg Journal, 20.] The unfortunate young man who had thus suddenly been deprived of life, was Mr. Howard W. Brickley, traveling salesman for Franch, Richardson & Co., of Bingbamton, N. Y., who had arrived in this place from Kylertown, about 4 p. m. Saturday. After retiring for the night, that was the last known of the man until; about 8 o'clock the following mornng. At that hour the porter came down stairs and informed Mr. Row that he couldn't get any answer to his rap from the occupant of No. 13, but that the gentleman must be sleeping very sound, as he was snoring very lond. At noon the man was still in bed, fears began to be feit that something was wrong. The clerk went to the door, and after pounding for some time, and getting no reply from the interior, took his pen knife and managed to push out the key. Then taking another key he unlocked the door and went in. The man was found lying Elias Krumrine; School Directors, Geo. on his right side, bis knees slightly Bower, Henry Stover; Overseer, Aaron drawn up, and his left hand concealing Ulrich; Auditor, J J Gentzel; Town Clerk, his mouth-dead, and that from an overdose of opium. On the bureau lay the following letter:

To Father and Fannie and all loved ones: ette Neff; Supervisors, John Foreman, Here's to my friends that I loved. I am James A Sweetwood, Overseer, Jacob a gentleman and I hope you will always light, and I hope to always be. I loved you both. You was a kind and affectionate father, and also a girl. The separation from you (that) causes this, but I hope I will meet you both in heaven. I hope to all the same-to the parties I am working for. Please settle with this lady, Fannie. Piease fix all my birls, and say you have pleased me, as that was always your delight. I will meet you both in Heaven. Our Father in Heaven unite us, and hope father will meet dear mother there.

Although the general impression is to the contrary, we are led to believe, after considering all the circumstances, that it was a case of involuntary suicide. As soon as he arrived in town, he went to the barn himself and gave explicit directions about having his horses fed and cared for. He then went to the house, warmed himself at the stove, asked for a room, said he was going to stay over Sunday, went to the barber shop and shaved. After going to his room at 11:20 for the purpose of retiring, he removed bis clothing, turned the flame of the lamp down about three fourths, put his money under the sheet, placed a vessel in front of his bed and a large tumbler of water on a chair within reach. The ves sel from its position was evidently put there in case he chould vomit, and the water either to drink or rinse his mouth. Now our idea is that before getting into bed he was stracked by slight uausea, and feared from this that he had taken too much opium, got scared at the consequence, and wrote the letter as an explanation in case he should die, but which he would have destroyed had he recovered. In short, almost everything he did in his room would lead a reflect ing mind to the conclusion that he exexpected to rise in the morning. After the young man had laid down to take that sleep, which unfortunately was the sleep of death, be didn't appear to have moved or changed bis position in the least. Nothing manifested itself that a FREE AGRICULTURAL LECTURES. - A se- struggle had taken place, or that he had no signs of any contracting of the interi-
