Carmans.

BELLEFONTE, March, 1885.

KIND FRIENDS:-We ask your attention for a short time to our Muslin Department-all the well known brands, and a great many perhaps not so familiar to you. Foolish fellows we are to insist upon you buying it of us-merely a change of money, more likely for your benefit if any. This letter costs perhaps as much as the profit on six pieces. You of course know our opinion of the press, as we each week have something new to offer you through the columns of the "Reporter." We announced an enlargement of our Dress Goods stock to at least twice the size. That meant we expected to do three times the business of former years in that department.

Thanking you for your attention, we remain Respectfully yours, D. GARMAN & SON.

THE STRANGLERS

Brigandage is fast dying out in Mexico, thanks to the civilization which always follows in the wake of the locomotive; but in the city of Mexico itself a band of robbers, known as "The Stranglers," are still in full security of their powers. These midnight murderers envelop their victim in their cloak, stifle his cries in its folds and then murder and rob him. Until recently they had a female decoy, who lived in the best hotels, and who would, in some way, get the intended victim to follow her until she reached the spot selected for his destruction, when a low whistle would bring a dozen robbers from their hiding place. The woman was captured a few days ago, and is now in jail, but all eff. have so far proved unavailing.
