Cleaveland Dinges is now giving personal attention to his store here, and thinks of making things boom.

Grove Mills is having its water works reconstructed on the plan of Centre Hall, by putting down iron pipes.

Subscribers changing post-offices this spring should notify us—giving name of old as well as new post-office.

Mr. Bartiges, of Penn Hall, gave the "Reporter" a call. He is a skilled painter, and can put the finest finish on any vehicle.

A temperance lecture: John B. Clark, of Lock Haven, recently drank a half pint of whiskey and died a few hours afterward.

MUSICAL COLLEGE—Will open April 28 for the study of vocal and instrumental music. For circular address, F. C. Moyer, Freeburg, Pa.

An old and new subscriber to the Reporter can get the New York Weekly World, each one year, for $2.25 sent us in advance. A great bargain.

Any persons wanting tombstones should stop and give the Centre Hall Marble Works a call. We guarantee our work, style and quality.

JOHN F. WASSON. —We dreamed 'O'er the night we had got on roller skates and that we could go like helix and never fell onstee. We never got nearer than that to the rink.

Dr. Alexander has sold his land, ten acres, near this place, to Edward Homan, of Aaronsburg, for $1200. Mr. Homan intends erecting buildings on the ground.

You can get spring suits already at the Philad. Branch, and very low in price, also hats, underwear, cuffs, collars, ties, and anything in the line of gen's wear.

The Centre Hall toll-gate is to be moved to the woods on the south side of the railroad. Mr. Confer, of the Seven Mts, has charge of the pike from here to the Seven Mts.

The lots in the vicinity of the station are dotted with timber and stone piles—an indication of a little boom for this spring and summer in building and business operations.

We have more lace curtains than ever before. Curtain poles in many styles—Garmans.

The first thunder and lightning of this season broke in over this section last Tuesday morning about 3 o'clock, accompanied by a heavy shower.

Mr. Daniel Geiss, of Joliet, Ill., was here on a visit last week, and gave the "Reporter" a pleasant call. He made a trip south a short time ago, taking in Georgia, Alabama and New Orleans. He is fatter and more jolly than ever.

DEDICATION.—The new Lutheran church at Madisonburg will be dedicated on Sunday, April 19, '88. Rev. Dr. Conrad, of Philadelphia, will perform the dedicatory services. A general invitation is extended to all to be present.

Give the Philad. Branch your measure if you want a latest style suit. Lewis & Co. have opened a merchant tailoring department in connection with their clothing store, and will make suits to order on short notice, guarantee satisfaction and give you "fit."

George Breen has pulled up stakes and sold out at Spring Mills, and goes to Philadelphia no doubt to spend the rest of his days with the famous Nash, who seems to be out of the stone jug again. Spring Mills could get along without Nash, but can it spare so clever a fellow citizen as George?

Overcoats are still needed, winter may last a good while yet, and you can buy any style at almost cost at the Philadelphia Branch and get a first class article. You can't get as good a bargain anywhere in any kind of ready-made clothing as at the Philad. Branch.

"Notes from Millheim" are too trifling for space in our columns. No news and happenings of interest will be accepted and cheerfully inserted—but leave out the chaff, people don't care to read the trifling stuff that many papers are in the habit of publishing from local correspondents.

Go to Murray's Drug Store, Centre Hall, for your Christmas and Birthday cards, also toys for your children. A full line of drugs and medicines kept in stock. Any drug or medicine not found on hand will be got for you inside of 48 hours from the time you leave your order.

The old store stand at Farmer's Mills is to be opened for business this spring, as we are informed, which will be a convenience to the people of that section. Fisher's mill is also under repair for rollers—the Major always keeps up with the times and its demands. The store, we are informed, will be carried on by Mr. Dale, son-in-law of Peter Hofer, of this place.

The cold weather does not have any effect on the low prices at the Philadelphia Branch—it makes them sell all the more for it. People know that bargains are always had there and if they want a suit, overcoat, or any other goods of men and boys' wear, they go to Lewis & Co. for it, as it amounts to a saving of from $3 to $10 every time.

Assessors will find a new duty devolving upon them this year, in making the triennial assessment, which will increase their labors somewhat. By an act of the Legislature, passed in 1883, they will be required to report the number of acres of land in their districts, giving the amount of cleared and timber, respectively, in each tract. This is something which assessors in previous years escaped.

One should always bear in mind that the largest and best assortment of ready-made clothing is always to be found at the Philad. Branch. The goods is first class all the time, and warranted to be as represented. The stock of men's and boys' clothing is equal to that in any of the city stores, with prices down to bottom figures. Always call in at the Philad. Branch before purchasing clothing elsewhere.

Thursday afternoon Levi Betzer, a deaf mute, was killed by the cars of the Reading road between Lewisburg and Winfield. He was walking on the track and a passenger train came thundering along. The engineer whistled, and thought the man would leave the track, but he was struck and tossed over the bank. The cars did not run over him, but he was killed instantly, his head being mashed. Strange to state he wore a pair of boots and the force with which he was struck, knocked him out of his boots. The body was taken to Winfield. —Lewisburg Chronicle, 2.

Lewis & Co. wish to have every man in the county wear one of their suits, and to gratify this becoming ambition they will sell suits and overcoats from now until April, at a sacrifice. Goods have been marked down so low that no competition can reach the same low figures. The Philad. Branch can undersell all others because they have their stock from first hands, and the profits of the jobber and wholesaler go to the one who purchases at the Philad. Branch.

A DRUGGIST'S VERDICT. M. E. George, one of the principal druggists of Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "Mr. J. A. McDonald, Redsville, Pa. Dear Sir:—One of the most prominent citizens of our city and a gentleman well known and highly respected in the surrounding country, called at our store and voluntarily offered to go before the justice of the peace and testify in an affidavit to the virtue of your Blood Purifier, saying that he had used but three bottles, and was now entirely cured of a distressing and long continued attack of erysipelas, after having tried a number of other remedies without receiving any noticeable benefit. Please send us one dozen by express. We never had a medicine in our store that sells as readily or gave such universal satisfaction as your Blood Purifier."

For scrofula, erysipelas, tetter, salt rheum, skin diseases, humors, sores, eruptions, pimples, blotches, swellings, tumors, boils, ulcers, scald head, ringworm, syphilis, and all blood disorders, no remedy ever devised equals in power and efficacy McDonald's Great Blood Purifier or Sarsaparilla Alternative. Warranted. 75 cents per bottle by all dealers in medicines. Sold by J. D. Murray, JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents.

Any one sending us three cash subscribers for one year will get the Reporter free one year for his trouble.

The Chambersburg Herald says: Rachael Brown, a colored woman residing near Fayetteville, five miles from Chambersburg, died Friday at the advanced age of 108 years and 5 days, having been born March 15, 1777. The circumstances connected with the time and place of Rachael's birth are all substantiated, and the "deceased" was without doubt at the time of her death the oldest resident of Pennsylvania.

A Scotch minister once said, "No we, mac could bear pain as well as a man." This is not so, Mrs. Edward Myers, of Rondout, N. Y., submitted to the operation of the removal of her hand without taking either. Dr. Kennedy, also of Rondout, N. Y., who performed the operation said he never saw such heroism.

The lady's disease was erysipelas, and afterwards the doctor gave her "Favorite Remedy" to cleanse the blood. Mrs. Myers is now well and strong.

THE EVACUATION OF EGYPT.

Wolsley Paving the Way for Announcing a General Retreat.

London, April 4.—Gen. Wolsley has forwarded to the War Office a significant report made out by the medical staff attached to the Khartoum expedition. The report states that if the present British military station in the Sudan be maintained fully one-half of the troops will die or be disabled by the heat before the arrival of autumn. The whole tone of this peculiar report, which was undoubtedly directly inspired by Gen. Wolsley himself, indicates that a decision having been reached to that effect, the public is being prepared to witness an early withdrawal of the whole British force from the Sunday to Egypt, and a complete abandonment of the Nile-Khartoum expedition.

TAKE NOTICE OF THIS SPLENDID GAIN.—The "New York Weekly World," one of the best weeklies in the United States, by special arrangement with the World publishers, can be had very low by clubbing with the "Reporter." Subscribers to the "Reporter" can have the "World" and "Reporter" for $2.50, in advance, or for $2.25 when clubbing with two new names.

40,000 SHEEP PERISH. Waynesburg, Greene Co., Pa., April 1.—It is estimated that about 40,000 sheep have died in this county during the last three months, the scarcity of feed and the unusual severity of the winter and spring weather combined bringing about this result. The farmers say that the wool industry has received a setback that it will take years to recover.

By lack of open air exercise, and the want of sufficient care in the matter of diet, the whole physical mechanism often becomes impaired during the winter. Ayers Sarsaparilla is the proper remedy to take in the Spring of the year to purify the blood, invigorate the system, excite the liver to action, and restore the healthy tone and vigor.

ROYAL FEET WASHERS.

Twelve beggars had their feet touched with a sponge held by the Emperor Francis Joseph. The feet were subsequently wiped by the Arch Dukes of the Empire.
