A DECLARATION OF WAR INEVITABLE.

England Placed in a Position Where She Must Take the Initiative.

London, April 26.—The Russian ambassador, Baron De Stal, and Earl Greenville had a conference yesterday which is said to have left both in an irritable mood.

The "Spectator" thinks that the present situation with which Russian papers are urging the seizure of Herat is inspired for the purpose of preparing the Russian mind for the event, and that the czar has already ordered such action.

Kidney, Liver and Blood Disorders.—Physicians too frequently fail to recognize what they are, and even if knowing them, lack the skill or their proper treatment, so that they are liable to be allowed to progress until they are almost unendurable, and their victims are made to undergo the most frightful tortures of a surgical operation.

THE DEADLY AVALANCHE. Eleven Men Buried in a Snow Slide in Colorado.

Leadville, Col., April 25.—Information reached here yesterday afternoon that a man named Frank Sanderson discovered that eleven men, working in the Home-stake mine, on Eagle river, had been buried in a snow slide.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required.

THIRTY-TWO DEAD BODIES. Vicksburg, Miss., April 25.—The list of those killed by falling walls at the recent fire increases hourly.

"RICHER THAN CROESUS." "No man only crosses that I envy is he who is reading a better book than this," exclaimed Philip Gilbert Hasenrath.

A HORRIBLE DOUBLE MURDER. Greenwich, Conn., April 21.—Barclay Johnson, son of a prominent railroad lawyer, while walking in the woods with his mother and sister this afternoon, shot and killed them both and then killed himself.

AN END TO BONE SCRAPING. Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it."

FROM KANSAS. GIBBARD, Crawford Co., April 26. This is a fine country, every thing looks nice, and the trees are out in bloom.

THE FEELING IN RUSSIA. The Press of That Country Growing More Belligerent.

St. Petersburg, Apr. 21.—The "Journal De St. Petersburg" insists that the accounts of the battle on the Kanak river made by General Komaroff and Sir Peter Lumsden agree, notwithstanding the English opinions to the contrary.

GENERAL BARRIOS' DEATH.

Washington, April 26.—Advices were received here to-day from Guatemala describing briefly the scene of Gen. Barrios' death. The contending armies had hardly begun the battle when the Guatemalan commander was killed.

The "Spectator" thinks that the present situation with which Russian papers are urging the seizure of Herat is inspired for the purpose of preparing the Russian mind for the event, and that the czar has already ordered such action.

Statement of the American, National and United States and Canada Express Company, Troy, N. Y. The strength of Rome lay not in her multitude, nor in her grain, but in her discipline. These were elements of strength, but her never-failing resources lay in the self-control and discipline of Roman soldiers. Discipline—it is the very soul of all the wonderful meaning possessed by the word "veteran." Mr. Benedict, of Troy, is a veteran in the "express" business. Next door to hotel; open day and evening. 14may11 HENRY BOEHLER.
