GERMAN WAFFLES. - Take one pound and a half of flour and the same quantity of clarified butter, mix these well together and then add, one at a time, the yolks of twelve eggs, and then a little grated nutmeg, a slight pinch of salt, two handfuls of pounded almonds with two or three bitter ones among them, tour spoonfuls of yeast and not quite a pint of milk. Lastly, have the whites of the eggs beaten to a stiff froth and add them to the mixture. Now beat all the ingredients together and let them stand for two hours. Then butter your waffle iron, which must be hot, and partially fill it with the batter, being careful to allow room for rising. Then bake to a light brown color and serve with sifted sugar strewn over

'The surface itself must not be subjected to any friction; all the motion must be between the integument and the deeper parts. The location of the vibratory motion should be changed every ten or fifteen seconds until the whole scar has been treated, if it be of moderate size. If the scar be the re- 81 Pearl Street, Cincinnati, Ohio. sult of a large scald or burn the margins only should be treated at first; the advances toward the centre should be deferred until the nutrition of the mara little treatment should be applied to any one spot at the same time, but the soundly." O. Congdon, Burlington, Vt. vibrations should be repeated as many as twenty times a day, but never with sufficient frequency or severity to cause pain. If the scar becomes irritable suspend treatment until it subsides. In the course of two or three weeks of faithful treatment the surface of the scars of moderate size become more moveable, and will begin to form wrinkles like true skin when pressed from side to side. All these changes are due to improved nutrition, consequent on better blood circulation—the development of new sets of blood vessels in the cicatricial tissue.

FRENCH DRESSING.-If this dressing is properly prepared it has an indescribably delicious flavor of its own, very d flerent from the oily mixtures to which the barbarities of black pepper and sugar are added and then called French dressings-Dieu pardonnez. In a wooden salad-spoon (a silver one is too noisy) put a half-saltspoon of salt, fill it two-thirds full of vinegar, and rub them well together with the salad fork. Now fill the spoon with the freshest of olive oil and rub it well again, emptying it into a small, deep plate over which you have been rubbing it. Proceed again the same way; again at the right moment emptying it into the plate. Lay aside your spoon, and, with the fork, rub well into the mixture as much more oil, dropping in very slowly. If it is right it will be rather thick. Serve at once, This dressing must be made on the table while the salad is being put on, as five minutes' standing ruins it. Then, too, it requires the deftness of a lady's fingers. To make sure your lettuce is very crisp, after washing it, dry it very carefully in a fresh, soft, old napkin, arrange it in the salad bowl, and then place the bowl directly on the ice for an hour or two. It must go from the ice to the table, and not be allowed to stand for five or ten minutes in the varm pantry before serving.

CHARLOTTE RUSSE PUDDING -Heat one and one-half pints of milk to near boiling, stir into it the beaten yolks of our eggs, one-haif a tablespoonful of corn starch dissolved in a little cold milk, one-half cup of white sugar; flavor with vanilla; let it thicken like custard; tay slices of sponge cake in a deep pudding dish and pour over them toe custard; when cool heat the four whites of eggs, sweeten with one half a cup of powdered sugar and spread over the pudding, and set in the oven to brown.

COCOANUT PIE .- Open the eyes of a occount with a pointed knife or gimlet and pour out the milk into a cup; then break the shell and take out the meat and grate it fine. Take the same weight of sugar and grated nut and stir together; beat four eggs, the whites and yolks separately, to a stiff foam; mix one cup of cream and the milk of the cocoanut with the sugar and nut; then add the eggs and a few drops of orange or lemon extract. Line deep pie-tins with a nice crust, fill them with the custard and bake carefully half an hour.

LIVER CHEESE,-Boil a beef's liver and tongue until thoroughly done, add half a pound of boiled pork; chop fine, and then pound in a mortar, having seasoned well with spices as you fancy, put in pans or crocks, with a heavy weight on top; it will soon become solid and is nice sliced for breakfast, luncheon or supper.

GRAY or bluish wrapping paper makes an effective background for pictures, and if testefully done may be laid on the wall above a Pompeian red mat-ting. A simple stencil design in Pompetan red or old china blue, with dull gilt may be applied near the ceiling.

A MANTEL lambrequin may be tastefully arranged by using a strip of plush or velvet the length and depth desired, which is put on straight with gilt tacks or invisible nails, and at the corners looped gracefully with bows of ribbon to correspond in color with the lambrequin.

Wall pockets to hold papers are made of plush, A board must be shaped for both back and front, the back of course somewhat the largest, Giltheaded nails or rings may ornament the sides, and the pieces may be held to-gether by ribbons laced back and forth.
