The Pennsylvania mountains east of here are on fire. We observe the sky filled with smoke in the direction of Brushyvale.

The wars and rumors of wars across the waters do not scare Lewins & Co. from a further reduction in the prices of ready-made clothing, when all else is on the rise. Low prices and No. 1 bargains in suits is their motto.

Stover's marble yard, in Bellefonte, turns out more work than any three yards in this county. This is because of the superiority of his material and excellence of work. In prices he will be found among the lowest.

PERSONAL.—Jacob Winkleblich, of Haines, gave the Reporter a call the other day—Jake is an old acquaintance whom we were pleased to see. Daniel Ripka and J. D. Breon, two good Gregg township Democrats, favored the Reporter sanctum with a call.

The Osborne light steel frame Binder, and Osborne Mower, can be seen at Peter Hoffer's shed, near the mill, at the railroad station. Mr. Hoffer will keep samples of these celebrated machines at the above place during this season, and farmers are invited to examine the same. 22appt

The New Bloomfield Freeman says that "S. C. Wilson wants Rev. Criley, of Altoona, to hand over the shackles allowed by law for performing a marriage ceremony wherein said Wilson's minor daughter was one of the principals." Very sorry our friend Criley has been duped. He is not a man to knowingly commit a blunder of this kind. Now, a proper license law would have prevented this unpleasantness.

Railroad officials inform us that the cars will run through Bellefonte on the Lewisburg & Tyrone road, July 1. This will be good news for Bellefonte as well as for Pennsylvania. Bellefonte will no doubt have a new stimulus when our road is completed to that town. It will make it quite an important centre and should the Vanderbilt road be made over the Buffalo run route Bellefonte will be hunky dory for railroad facilities and be as much out of the woods as any other town.

Lewins & Co., leading house for ready-made clothing, have an immense stock of new goods. Go and see piles of coats, pants, vests and shirts, and other goods for men and boys and you will be astonished. But still more astonishing are the low prices and great bargains offered. There is nothing to match them in the entire state and least of all in this county. No one purchasing a garment there fails to save several dollars in cash, or has yet regretted making a purchase at the Philad. Branch.

"MEMORIAL DAY."

CENTRE HALL, May 18. At the last meeting of Samuel Shannon Post, of this place, it was deemed advisable to have the program the same as last year, which was as follows: All Post members, and soldiers who are not members, are requested to meet at the Post room on morning of Saturday, May 30, at 6:30 o'clock. Uniforms to be worn by those who have them. We will leave Centre Hall at 7 o'clock and meet the Spring Mills delegation at Farmers Mills at 8 a. m. After memorial services we will be escorted to Spring Mills by the Farmer's Mills band, where we will decorate at 10 a. m. After dinner at Spring Mills the graves of soldiers in George's Valley will be attended to at 1 p. m. From there we will go to Potter's Mills, ceremonies beginning at 2:30 p. m., after which we will go to Centre Hall and decorate at 5 p. m.

Rev. Heckman will make addresses at Farmer's Mills and Spring Mills. Rev. Currier will speak in George's Valley and Potter's Mills, and also on "Monument" at Centre Hall. Rev. Land will also speak at Centre Hall. Farmer's Mills band will be at the Union, Spring Mills and George's Valley; Tusseyville band for Potter's Mills and Linden Hall band for Centre Hall.

Citizens of Centre Hall and vicinity are requested to meet in Post room, on Friday evening, 22, to determine upon procuring flowers, etc., also to appoint committees, chairman, etc., for such business as pertains to memorial day. All Sunday Schools, citizens of the town and country, organizations and societies are respectfully invited. We hope all citizens and business men will spend work and attend the various decoration services. It is our privilege and duty to do so, and we hope we may meet with the same encouragement that stimulated us a year ago. We shall be pleased to have the citizens accompany us the entire round, and we especially wish the bands to do so. We are sorry that circumstances compel us to ask more than we can at this time. We ask as a last request that no one will allow inclement weather to get away with their loyalty on the 30th of May, '85.

GENERAL ORDERS HEADQUARTERS, DEPT. OF PA. No. 2. Philadelphia, May 4, '85. Comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic—Another year in life's campaign brings us again to Memorial Day with its sad memories and tender associations, and as the nation bends over the graves of its heroes and pays to noble dust the tribute of love, let us remember that we are not only to cast our floral offerings on the graves of former comrades-in-arms, but standing in their presence to re-dedicate ourselves to the unfinished work they have left us to do.

We shall stand on this Memorial Day at the graves of comrades who marched with us one year ago. At these graves we are reminded that our ranks here are rapidly thinning, and with each vacant place come new and weightier responsibilities. Their work is done, their mission ended. To us, their comrades, is given the duty of keeping fresh and green their memories, of perpetuating and transmitting intact to posterity the country perfected by their sacrifices and sufferings. Resting from their labors, the story of their lives jeweled by deeds of valor and patriotism, shall inspire in the hearts of all the people a love for country and, beating and free.

Let memorial services be held in such places of worship at which Posts may be able to attend, and in the sanctuary let us thank God, that it was our privilege to live in a time, when hosts of brave men died for humanity's sake, and, when the greatest and grandest army in the history of the world proclaimed liberty throughout the land and to all the inhabitants thereof.

By Command of AUSTIN CURTISS, Department Commander. THOR. J. STEWART, Assistant Adj. General.

THREE DEATHS.

Philipsburg, Pa., May 15.—Mr. Peter Winkler, of this place, buried his young 6th child on Tuesday. His wife became seriously ill yesterday morning, and died last night. When informed of Mrs. Winkler's illness, Mrs. Rosina, her mother, received a stroke of apoplexy, and died this morning. Mother and daughter will be buried together to-morrow.

BIG FIRE AT MILLHEIM.

Millheim had a big fire on last Friday morning. It started about 3 a. m. in Kaufman's store, (the Alexander stand) and spread to the Alexander homestead adjoining, now owned by the daughter of Amos Alexander, dec'd. The homestead and store building and stable on the Alexander lot, and the two story frame house of Daniel Zeigler, adjoining the store on the west, were entirely destroyed. D. S. Musser's residence west of the Zeigler house was greatly damaged, all the siding on the east end being burned, and only the calm and exertions of the citizens prevented its destruction. Musser's hardware store, to the east of the Alexander house also made a narrow escape.

Musser's hotel, on the opposite side of the street, had its front badly damaged. During the fire in the Kaufman store a keg of powder exploded which blew out and scattered the entire south side of the building, and the flying embers set fire to the stable and other outbuildings. The report of the explosion was heard several miles.

The Misses Alexander, we are informed, have an insurance of $1500 in the Manheim company.

Kaufman's store had an insurance of $2000 in the Centre Hall company and $4000 in another company. We are told that Kaufman's insurance would have expired at noon following the fire and that an insurance for an additional $2000 had been taken out only two days before. The origin of the fire is not known.

Several persons received injuries when the explosion took place. The building in which the store was, was insured in the Centre Hall company for $1500.

THE PLYMOUTH EPIDEMIC.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 18.—The relief committee at Plymouth made a careful canvass of the borough to-day, and the result indicated a gratifying abatement of the epidemic. There are nearly 100 less cases than appeared by the canvass two weeks ago. Many old cases are convalescing, and no new ones have appeared. Five funerals took place yesterday. There were no deaths to-day.

A LONG SNOOZE.

Rip Van Winkle slept a good while, yet had his sleep occupied 50 years ago, when Downs' Elixir first attained its reputation, on awaking he would have been able to recognize this friend of the afflicted, and might have taken another 20 years' nap, and wakened up to find Downs' Elixir at the end of half a century the most popular and best good remedy known. FROM THE COUNTY SEAT.

BELLEFONTE, May 19. The completion of the link between Oak Hall and Bellefonte will create new stir and trade at the county seat, and the dullness of the last nine months will change to additional life in travel and trade. The postmastership still hangs fire. Who will it be? is the question. There are many applicants, some very deserving and who would make good postmasters. Gov. Curtin no doubt is perplexed as to who shall have the appointment, and render satisfaction all around. Well, it can't be done, and there's the rub.

An old citizen who left here twenty years ago and had returned, remarked that he was a looker-on at court, and thought, with few exceptions, our bar was not what it used to be, when it was famous as among the foremost in the state, and that there appeared quite a quantum of 2nd and 3rd rate material in it now. This remark is frequently heard from others. The Hales, Burnsides, Linn, Curtins, McAllisters, Petriken, and other lawyers of note are not here, and few of their places are filled.

The grand jury touched the courthouse matter too gingerly, and should have recommended fitting additions. Expect the honorable jurors were afraid of your newspaper men. Bob Brett is not going to shove off this mortal coil so soon yet—in the opinion of your correspondent Robert is improving in office and makes a capital prothonotary already and is generally liked. Cal. Harber, his predecessor, was admitted to the bar, at the April term and is well booked on grave questions of the law no doubt.

The burnt district is being rebuilt and fine business blocks will take the place of the old shanties. Lawyer Alexander was caned the other day, by parties interested in the glass works, for his valuable aid in the prosperity of the works. Gen. Beaver looks governmentward, but says nothing, and if the confounded independents don't interfere, lightning may strike the General again in the nomination. Republicans are predicting a still further falling off in the democratic majority of this county, and look to an ultimate swinging around of the county to the republican side. Guess these fellows will be disappointed unless there are too many fools in the democratic ranks to misguide the ship. One thing is sure, narrow majorities always insure better nominations as bad men on the ticket are sure to go over board and often carry the balance of the ticket along over. Centre county, however, is not going to wheel into the republican line just yet. We have plenty of good men to make good and strong tickets, and when the pinch comes we'll take them.

The present board of commissioners is keeping up its good work of reducing the debt and collecting the outstanding duplicates. They are doing their duty, and there's where public servants often comeshort.

FLAVIUS JOSEPHUS.

For rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia, cramp and colic there is no remedy superior to Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil.

DEATH AFTER THREE QUARTS OF WHISKY.

Wilkesbarre, May 12.—Theo. Smith, of Pleasant Valley, was found dead in bed last evening. Smith drank three quarts of whisky within a few hours before his death.

Erysipelas and salt rheum were driven entirely away from Mrs. J. C. Anderson, Peshigo, Wis., by Burdock Blood Bitters. No equal as a blood purifier.

In London, on 18, the trial of the dynamiters Cunningham and Burton at the Old Bailey was brought to a conclusion. The court room was crowded with people to hear the judges charge and see the termination of the case. Among the notabilities present were the Lord Mayor and the United States Minister Phelps. There were many ladies in the room.

The jury was then retired. They remained out not longer than fifteen minutes, and returned with a verdict of guilty against both prisoners.

The court at once sentenced both men to penal servitude for life.

Gas from a lime kiln suffocated Wm. McCantley, of Wrightsville, on night of 18th.

If you want the two papers, the Reporter and the "New York Weekly World" for one year at $2.25, you can have the two by sending us the $2.25 in advance and a new name with $2.25, to which the two papers will also be sent. This is a big bargain, and we are only able to carry it out upon the above plan.

AN INTERESTING LETTER

From Mr. Harry W. Olmstead, Proof-reader of the "Times."

The following letter is encouraging and worthy of careful perusal, coming as it does, from so reliable a source, unalloyed. It contains facts of great value.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 12, '84. Dr. DAVID KENNEDY, Roseland, N. Y.

Dear Sir—For ten years I have been a sufferer from disease of the kidneys, at times so much so as to make life a burden. During this time several good medical physicians in Indiana have treated me with little or no success, until I had almost despaired of relief. I then tried several advertised remedies, but nothing produced the desired result, until a friend who had been relieved induced me to give DR. KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY a trial. I did so. After taking one bottle I began to experience relief. I took another and was charmed with the result. In all I have taken four bottles, and can truly say I feel like a new man, as it has been several months since I took my last medicine, and there is no indication of a return of the disease. I have recommended your remedy to several suffering friends who have also been relieved. I write this to express my sincere thanks to you for the cure which has been effected in my case, and to assure to those who are afflicted with this disease, that they should think suffering humanity owes you a debt of gratitude for your work full scientific discovery. I shall do all that within me lies to let all sufferers here where they may find relief, and thereby in some measure remunerate you for the good you have done me.

Wishing you long life and prosperity, and thanking you for prolonging my life, I am, Sir, your obedient servant, HARRY W. OLMSTEAD.

Dr. Kennedy, of Roseland, N. Y., assures the public by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" cures rheumatism, sciatic, neuralgia, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as those diseases and weaknesses peculiar to females. Your druggist has it, or send $1 to Dr. David Kennedy, Roseland, N. Y.
