A BOAR AND A COW FIGHT TO

THE DEATH. Hornellsville, N. Y., May 20.-Mon-day morning last, when George V. Rury, living in the town of Howard, went out to feed his cow, he found her lying in a pool of blood in the barn yard. There was a great gash in her lower right side, her legs were stripped of flesh in some places, and even her horns showed marks of violence. She was nearly dead, and was shot to end her misery. As there was scarcely a foot of ground in the barn yard that was not torn up, and as blood was scattered about on the fence and barn, it was plain that a desperate conflict had taken place during the night between the cow and some very fierce animal. Daniel Sutfin, a neighbor, owned a very large and ugly Berkshire boar, and on the same morning that Rury found his cow dying Sutfin missed his boar from its enclosure. It was then made plain that the fight in the barn yard had been between the boar and cow. The boar was found an eighth of a mile away lying in the soft mud on the border of a mire hole. The mud was red with its blood, which came from ten blood, which came from ten slightest assistance. Room rent, board large holes in its sides where the cow had thrust her horns, The boar was badly torn in other places, and one of its tusks was broken off. The boar was alshot. The duel between the two animals was not seen by any one, but all the indications are that it must have been a most terrific combat.

HOBBIES OF THE HYGIENISTS. There were several dozen of the bygienists in council, each with his individual hobby. Each thought all the others were wrong. Each was sure that his own hobby was the only correct one. A gentleman present said he had to take Brown's Iron Bitters for debility and dyspepsia, and, though he didn't want to make a fuss about it, he knew the use of this great tonic to be better than all the notions he had heard advanced in the council. One practical cure is worth a thousand of guesses and notions. Thousands of happy convalescents speak gratefally of Brown's Iron Bitters.

TERRIBLE STORY OF CRUELTY TOLD BY A BOUND GIRL.

Lebanon, May 20 .- A terrible case of ruelty has just come to light at Myersown. Mary Beamesderfer, of this place, was bound out to a family at West Myerstown until of mature age. This morning the girl came to this place and related a terriple story of capalty which the terrible story of cruelty which she received from the family where she was bound out. The girl's body presented a sickening sight, being covered with sores and lumps, and she could hardly stand. may be said to be the very least annua Miss Beamesderfer stated that she received very little food, and, if any, not fit for dogs. On several occasions she was penned up in a garret and not a mouthful of food given her for whole and other colleges of the same stamp weeks. Her clothing was of the poorest about $375. kind and the shoes just hung to herfeet. Medical aid was at once summoned, and the physicians prescribed the proper remedies. The arrest of the family at Myerstown will be made to-night.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Selins Grove, May 20 .- Yesterday Danselins Grove, May 20.—Yesterday Daniel Dunkleberger, aged about 35 years, was engaged in working on the township road, in Middlecreek township, this county. While returning home at noon his horses took fright and ran away. In their headlong race they ran against a small bridge, throwing Mr. Dunkleberger violently to the ground, breaking his neck and causing instantaneous death. It is not known what frightened the horses and caused them to take their far horses and caused them to take their fa-tal flight. Mr. Dunkleberger leaves a wife and five small children, and much sympathy is expressed for them.

EXPENSE AT COLLEGE.

Although the difference in the amount of money which students at different colleges spend is very great, there is not such a disparity in the necessary expenses as many people suppose, says the Havard Crimson. At the city colleges, such as Havard, Yale and Columbia, the necessary expenses may be about $100 more than at Amherst-Dartmouth or Williams; but this slight increase is more than counterbalanced by the aid which the larger colleges offer to indigent students. Harvard has at her disposal 122 scholarship, varying in amount from $85 to $350, averaging | HEAVILY LADENED WITH ALL THE LATabout $225. In the Freshman year there are two assignments made, and it is possible for a hard student to receive $600 in the scholarship during his first year-a sum more than sufficient to pay all his expenses. Here aid is given to students who are needy and who stand high in their classes; but in almost all other colleges those who intended to study for the ministry are the favored ones, and at some colleges it is impossiand tuition are the principal items in the necessary expenses; and of these room rent varies the most. At Amherst, a student pays from $40 to $125 for a single room; at Williams, $25 to $100; at Yale, $50 to $150; while at Harvard the rent varies all the way from $14 to $300, which very few desirable rooms for less than $120. Of course, if two students room together the expense is reduced one-half. The difference in the second item, board, is not nearly so great, the large numbers at the city colleges rendering co-operation much easier, and enabling the students to procure better board at a less cost. It is possible to get as good board for $4 a week here at Memorial Hall as could be got at Amherst or any other college for $5 or $6. Tuition ranges all the way from $12 per year at Oberlin, O., to $200 at Columbia; at Brown, Bowdoin, Princeton and Williams it is $75; at Amherst $100, at Yale $140, and at Harvard $150. By adding to these main items of expense other necessary items such as clothing, fuel, washing, books etc., we can arrive at what may be expenditure which will carry a studen through the several colleges : Havard $475; Yale, $425; Amherst, William

A TEN PFENNIGE HOAX.

Some time since it was noised abroad out the length and breadth of the land to secure these ten-pfennige pieces, and it was quite common for collectors to pay from fifteen to twenty-five pfennige for a single specimen. The excitement over the matter was visible in every class of society, and manifested itself partically in the beer halls, the markets, and the horse cars. Some of the eager seekers, who had got together at great pains several hundreds of the coveted coins, at last thought to inquire precisely how they should dispose of the nickels at a profit, They were directed from pillar to post, and at last found that they were the victims of a practical

HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure of SPERMATORKHOEA or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc., also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence, or sexual extravagance, etc.

The celebrated author in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

The leet are should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post paid, on receipt of four conts or two postage stamps. Address.

An Efficient Remedy

In all cases of Bronchial and Pulmonary Affections is AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. As such it is recognized and prescribed by the medical profession, and in many thousands of families, for the past forty years, it has been regarded as an invaluable household remedy. It is a preparation that only requires to be taken in very small quantities, and a few doses of it administered in the early stages of a cold or oough will effect a speedy cure, and may, very possibly, save life. There is no doubt whatever that

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Has preserved the lives of great numbers of persons, by arresting the development of Laryngitis, Bronchitis, Pneumonia. Laryngitis, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, and Pulmonary Consumption, and by the cure of those dangerous maladies. It should be kept ready for use in every family where there are children, as it is a medicine far superior to all others in the treatment of Croup, the alleviation of Whooping Cough, and the cure of Colds and Influenza, aliments peculiarly incidental to childhood and youth. Promptitude is dealing with all diseases of this class is of the utmost importance. The loss of a single day may, in many cases, class is of the utmost importance. The loss of a single day may, in many cases, entail fatal consequences. Do not waste precious time in experimenting with medicines of doubtful efficacy, while the maiady is constantly gaining a deeper hold, but take at once the speediest and most certain to cure,

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.
