The Boston Budget says: Some forty able-looking woman was the "grasswidow," Mrs. Sarah Farrington, afterward known extensively by her nom de plume, Fanny Fern. She had recently separated from her second husband, and was said to be very poor and proud.

Her father, Deacon Nathaniel Willis, editor of the Boston Recorder and the Youth's Companion ; her oldest brother, Nathaniel P. Willis, was already a writer of established reputation. She was not a favorite in her own father's family, or scarcely anywhere else. In revenge for some imaginary slights and wrongs, she published a book called "Ruth Hall," in which she circulated in a shameful manner many of her relatives and best friends. Her father, as Old Ellet, and her brother Nathaniel, as Hyacinth Ellet, were broadly burlesqued. The publication of this outrageous book was a hard blow to the poor old father who had pinched himself financially to assist the unfilial daughter. Her abuse of Dr. Eldridge and his wife, the parents of her first husband, Cashier Eldridge, of the Meachant's Bank, a Major Annie joined her fortunes with citizens, and the father of her two she remained, retaining her rank and children, was quite as shameful as that title until a general order from army entirely cored." bestowed upon members of her own neadquarters rendered it necessary for family. The cent has not always been what it growing to such enormous proportions, the single coin has, in deference to public convenience, been getting smaller and smaller. Many people still remember the unwieldy size of the old-fashioned "copper" which prevailed in our grandfathers' time ; but even that was a less bulkey article of circulation than its predecessors of the same value. The difference between the James Jarvis cent and the cent of to-day, is the difference in the size and weight between two hundred and sixty-four grains and fortyeight grains. The old-fashioned "copper," the coinage of which was discontinued in 1857, only weighed one hundred and per cent, of tin and zinc, has reached a circulation of over two million dollars.

For every dollar made, the United States makes thirteen cents, and the profit is so great on the smaller coin that it is sent in kegs from the mint absolutely free of express charges. On all other coins, something like two dollars on every thousand dollar is paid by the banks for transportation.

She thus lived and flourished. Her orders were wont to be obeyed, because she was recognized as a staff officer. She always had the countersign, and could pass the pickets at pleasure. She was said to be a girl of great dash and daring, and would frequently venture out beyond the outposts and for days watch the movements of the enemy, and bring in whole budgets of information from the rebel camps as poofs of her stewardship and shrewdness. Every one knew Major Jones : officers would doff their hats, and privates would stand at full "present" as she rode by in military feminine dignity. The visiting officers from other commands were introduced to Annie, and admired her, and she reigned supreme as the "she-major of cavelry."

SIGNATURE OF THE CROSS.

The penman; and the laity, or people who were clerks, did not feel any urgent necessity for the use of letters. The ancient use of the cross was therefore universal alike by those who could and those who could not write. It was, indeed, the symbol of an oath, from its sacred associations, as well as the mark generally adopted. Hence the origin of the expression, "God save the mark," as a form of ejaculation approaching the character of an oath.

Neuralgia of the Face:

Capt. John Orr, Pearlington, Miss., has been a most intense sufferer from facial neuralgia for over twenty years. . He has had seventeen operations performed on the nerves-that is, had them divided, cut off close to the bone from which they emerge. But this never did him any good; the most excruciating pain conti without the least interruption. He often wished for death to relieve him of the intolerable pain. The best physicians failed to relieve him. They finally advised him to consult Drs. Hartman & Miller, at the St. Charles Hotel, New Orleans, which he did. They prescribed PERUNA, and in less than a month was entirely relieved of the pain. Before consulting these doctors the least touch to any part of his face or nose would cause the most fearful pain, while now he can blow his nose and wipe his face without the least fear of pain, The captain is grateful beyond measure for this unexpected and unhoped for result.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kenner, 98 Laurel street. New Orleans, has been one of the greatest sufferers from Neuralgia of the face during the past year that we have ever heard of. From morning to night, and from night to morning, there was one constant, racking, tearing, burning pain, extending clear around her head and deep down through every muscle, tooth and bone in her face. No rest and no sleep. All physicians failed to relieve her, as well as all remedies. She was constantly in the most agonizing despair. She called on Dr. Hartman, who said the cause was chronic catarrh. He prescribed PERUNA for her and now every pain has left her. She feels like another person and can eat heartily and sleep soundly.

Mrs. C. J. Miles, Gallipolis, O., writes:
"DR. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O. My affliction has been rheumatism, located in the right arm and shoulder, of more than two years' standing, and after trying a great many remedies without any relief, I commenced the use of PERUNA, which, after using three bottles, found a decided change for the better. I continued to use it and now feel entirely well."

Huldah Ward, Wellston, O., writes: "I have been afflicted for years with that dreaded disease, catarrh. I tried a great many different kinds of medicine, but to no effect, I commenced taking your PE-RUNA about nine months ago, have take en about ten bottles. It is doing me much good. AMPUTATION OFTHE LEG.

Money is the universal necessity, and none but a ynic or a fool will affect to despise it. Mr. Abram Ellsworth, of Port Ewen, Ulster County, N. Y., had calized this truth. His disease involved the whole of his thigh-bone, and the suffering man ooked forward, not without apparent reason, to death as his only deliverer. The family physician refused to amputate the limb, asserting that the operation would kill the patient on the spot. Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, was consulted, held a different opinion and amputated the limb, The Doctor then administered freely his great Blood Specific FAVORITE REMEDY to afford tone and strength to the system and prevent the return of the disease, and Mr. Ellsworth remains to this day in the bloom of health. This gentleman's disease was the offspring of foul blood, and Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY purified the blood and restored to him the power nce more to enjoy his life. Are you suffering from any disease traceable to the same cause ! Try Favorite Remedy. Your druggist has it. One Dollar a bottle.
