

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

THE BEST TONIC

This medicine, combining iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Galls and Fevers, and Neuritis.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives. It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BOSTON, MA.

THEOSOPHY.

Theosophy, falsely so called, is a mixture of American sentimental theology with quantities of Spiritualism and savage superstition, bedizened with outlandish Oriental names. The patentees of this precious compound carry it to the Indian market, where they profess about the Vedas and the primitive Aryan monotheism, as if they knew anything about the Vedas, and as if the primitive Aryan's creeds were a jot more refined than those of the primitive Esquimaux. Young Baboos, with the delusions of their race not purged away, are caught, perhaps by Europeans and Americans who believe, or affect to believe, in the magical powers of Yogis and Bogies. Theosophy is a mere mixture of the faith in Kitty King with smatterings of Oriental studies misunderstood and misapplied. The doctrine is conveyed in language of incoherent absurdity. "This supernaturalism" (that of people who disagree with Col. Olcott) "is the curse of all creeds; it hangs like an incubus" (we should like to see the Colonel's idea of an incubus) "around the neck of the religious, and hatches the satire of the skeptic; it is the dry rot that eats out the heart of any faith that builds upon it." A supernaturalism which is a dry rot that can be built upon, which eats out hearts, and incubates satire, and hangs round necks like an incubus, is a very odd agency indeed, and worthy of the rhetoric of Olcott science.

HOW A TREATY WAS MADE.

During the French conquest of Algeria negotiations for peace were entered upon with the sheiks of certain Arab tribes, and a meeting for the settlement of terms was arranged to take place at the French headquarters. The French officers received their guests of the desert with great hospitality, and a banquet was given in their honor. At this the utmost splendor was unfolded in order to dazzle their eyes and captivate their simple minds. At its conclusion an adjournment to a large hall was proposed. Here M. Houdin, the celebrated conjurer, who accompanied the French forces, was to give them an exhibition of his skill, which to them seemed supernatural. They stared in openmouthed wonder at all the tricks that were performed, and a feeling of awe crept over them as they saw the mysterious appearances, and disappearings of various objects. But the greatest marvel to them was the apparent manufacture of cannon balls. The conjurer passed around among them a high hat. This they examined very carefully, but without being able to discover anything unusual in either its make or appearance. When it was returned to him M. Houdin placed it on the floor in the middle of the stage in full view of his audience. He then proceeded to take from that hat cannon balls apparently without number, and rolled them across the floor into the wings. This terminated the performance. The chiefs consulted among themselves, and came to the conclusion that it was useless to oppose an army that could turn out its ammunition in so easy a manner. They therefore signed the required treaty, and departed to tell their friends in the desert of the wonderful power of the invaders.

HE WASN'T DEAD.

A good story of Judge Bond of the United States District Court is told by one of his Western friends. It occurred in Boston in 1877. The two went to call on a medium. They were shown many wonders, and at last the judge was told to write a list of names on a slip of paper, which being done he was instructed to run his finger down the list and stop when the accustomed rap on the table was heard. When he got to the middle of the list a violent blow was struck upon the table. Thereupon a long conversation ensued between the judge and the materialized spirit, in which was rehearsed many astonishing facts, most of which the judge had ingeniously managed to drop in the opening of the conversation with the medium. Finally the exhibitor suspects something and the "spirit" abruptly departed.

Then the judge fell into a brown study from which it was difficult to arouse him. Suddenly looking up, he said, with the most admirably assumed tone of astonishment and conviction: "This is the most remarkable thing I ever dreamed of. I almost doubt the power of Omnipotence to equal it." "Ah," said the medium, "I can show you greater things than that." Further conversation ensued in a similar strain, when Judge Bond burst out with: "But I tell you, sir, I challenge the Almighty to do such a thing. Why, sir, can you believe it? I left this gentleman not twenty minutes ago on the steps of the Parker House!" At this the medium became naturally furious, and exclaimed: "I told you to write the names of the dead men on that list." "No," replied Judge Bond, with a look of child-like simplicity, "you did not; you told me to write the names of friends, and I did so. There isn't the name of a single dead man on that list." It is needless to add that the judge and his friend departed without ceremony.

Terror is the strongest when undefined. If we knew what death was like, men would as soon die as sleep.

THE SAND-FLY OF BAGDAD.

It is commonly said that there are no bugs in Arabia, the dry heat killing them all off; and certainly all the names given for the creature in Ambic dictionaries are either taken from the Turkish or manufactured. Considering what a vast field for blood-suckers in Bagdad, and what myriads of this particular species are constantly coming into it, if only from Bombay, in the boxes of travellers and pilgrims, what becomes of them all is a problem in natural history, anything like extreme heat, even supposing that to have the effect alleged, occurring only between June and September. Anyhow, it was a comfort to feel safe on that score at least in turning in for the night in a billet which, if there had been a member of the family in all Bagdad, looked as if it would have been sure to hold him. But morning brought the discovery that if the bug was absent he was represented by a sand-fly with a body hardly bigger than a mite's, a pair of wings like tiny sails and a poison-injecting and blood-sucking apparatus of extraordinary calling. Like Dr. Syntax, when the boiling water from Dolly's kettle had decanted itself into his shoes: "The scalding torment in his feet" soon made the half-dressed victim fain to pull off his socks and rub until the skin was raw, in hopes of getting out the venom.

Some even ascribe to this cause the singular ulceration of the skin to which natives of Bagdad, especially in childhood, are liable, and which seldom fails to attack European and other strangers during their first year of residence. Either from the season when these sores generally break out, being that when the date is nearly ripe, or from the scar left by them resembling that fruit in size and contour, they are quite commonly spoken of as "date sores."

The number of people in Bagdad whose faces are more or less disfigured in this way frightens most all newcomers. Hitherto the result of medical surgical practice has gone to show that on whatever constitutional, climatic or external cause or causes depending, the affection, like so many others, is best left alone. In the healthy it runs its course in about a year, sometimes only one sore appearing, but often a succession of them. They are not in the least painful or dangerous and, except when on very tender spots or parts which are essential to locomotion, the natives of Bagdad appear not to mind or be much annoyed by them—one instance more of the eel growing used to the skinning.

THE PENITENTS.

This society, until it is crushed out, will remain an effectual barrier to the progress of morality and good order in New Mexico. It was founded at Santa Cruz in 1693 by the old Franciscan missionaries. It was originally intended as a means of bringing the whole population within the pale of the church, and its principal dogma was that no sin could be so great but that sufficient expiation would purge it away. There are 20,000 penitents, and as they are mutually sworn to assist and protect one another, even to the extent of perjury, it will readily be seen what a formidable hydra the New Mexican Judges have to deal with. It is only the powerful influence of their priests that keeps them at all within bounds. The public services of expiation are held once a year, in Holy Week. There is never any lack of expiants. An image of the Virgin is placed in the centre of the church, or in the campo santo before it, and the ground for many yards in front of it is strewn knee deep with cactus, whose poisonous spines will sometimes pierce the heaviest soled shoe. Through this bed of living thorns the penitents march with naked feet or crawl along on bare knees, calling piteously the while to the Virgin for forgiveness of their sins. As if this were not sufficient, they scourge themselves with great bunches of cactus tied together on a thong, and slash themselves with knives. The natural result of these horrible exercises is a death now and then, and many maimed and pitiable creatures who drag out a miserable existence for the remainder of their days. In one of the little chapels we visited the white-washed walls were splashed with blood to the height of six or eight feet. Mr. Lamy, the present enlightened Archbishop of New Mexico, has made strenuous efforts to abolish this evil, but so strongly is it entrenched in the customs of the people that he has met with but little success in his efforts.

A THUNDERSTORM THEORY.

At a recent Germany Scientific Congress, Dr. S. Hoppe, of Hamburg, endeavors to prove that the electricity of storms is generated by the friction of vapor particles. This view was strengthened by experiments in which compressed cold air was allowed to rush into a copper vessel containing warm moist air, a large amount of electricity being thus produced. He concludes that the rise of a column of warm moist air into the colder atmosphere above will be followed by a thunderstorm if it acquires sufficient velocity to prevent neutralization of the electricity generated by the friction of the air. Hence, he regards open districts as more liable to thunderstorms than wooded regions, where the trees prevent the rapid rise of humid air currents.

Chronic Catarrh.

C. W. Meiller, of 406 South Fourth street, St. Louis, is twenty years of age, and has been a sufferer from chronic catarrh, which had become quite offensive. When he came to Dr. Hartman, two months ago, he was told it would take six months to cure him. But he has progressed beyond all expectations, and nearly all signs of the disease have disappeared. Before being treated he could not breathe out of the nose, and now he has perfect control of the nasal organ. PERUNA did the business.

James Dunn, of 1310 Gay street, St. Louis, has suffered from catarrh since 1870. The gentleman told the reporter the following straightforward story of his case. "I took the disease in Memphis. It commenced in my head and extended to my throat, and a bad cough followed. I went to a number of physicians, and they told me my trouble was liver disease, and one said it was palpitation of the heart that caused the cough. For the last year I have been practicing what the gentlemen told me, and I feel like a new man." PERUNA was his treatment.

Next came George Sauerbaum, residing at 1929 Carr street, St. Louis, who is an old patient of Dr. Hartman. He stated that he had suffered most intensely from chronic catarrh of the head and lungs, but is now almost cured, his lungs being entirely well and his head greatly improved. The gratitude of this gentleman was almost boundless, and he expressed it by my reporter in the strongest terms, saying "PERUNA will cure any disease."

J. P. Dukehart, of Cumberland, Md., superintendent B. & O. R. R. Co.'s Hotel (conductor on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad for twenty-eight years, and previously a druggist), writes: "Dr. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O. I have used but one bottle of PERUNA between myself and son. He had diphtheritic sore throat, and is now well. As for myself, it has entirely relieved the dullness in my head, which has been of long standing—the result of chronic malaria. I never took anything in my life that gave me such great satisfaction. My wife is now taking it also."

PYÆMIA

Is the most virulent form of blood-poisoning. Less speedily fatal, but not less certainly so, is the vitiated state of the blood, which the first symptoms are Pimples, Sties, Boils, and Cutaneous Eruptions. When the taint of Scrofula gives warning of its presence by such indications, no time should be lost in using AYER'S SASSAPARILLA, the only perfect and reliable medicine for the purification of the blood.

SCROFULA

Is a foul corruption in the blood that rots out all the machinery of life. Nothing eradicates it from the system and prevents its transmission to offspring but AYER'S SASSAPARILLA. This preparation is also the only one that will cleanse the blood of Mercurial poison and the taint of Contagious Diseases. Impoverished blood is productive of

ANÆMIA.

A wretched condition indicated by Pained Skin, Flaccid Muscles, Shattered Nerves, and Melancholy. Its first symptoms are Weakness in the limbs, Loss of Nerve Force, and Mental Dejection. Its course, unchecked, leads inevitably to insanity or death. Women frequently suffer from it. The only medicine that, while purifying the blood, enriches it with new vitality, and invigorates the whole system, is

STONE IN THE KIDNEY

Expelled After Using Dr. David Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy" Two Weeks.

One of the most remarkable cases that has ever been brought to the notice of the public is that of Mr. J. S. Beach, of Stone Ridge, Ulster county, N. Y. Mr. Beach had suffered since Oct. 18, 1874, from the presence of Calculus or Stone in the right kidney. No less than seven physicians were employed at different times, to whom Mr. Beach paid hundreds of dollars for medical treatment, with only temporary relief from his agony.

By the urgent solicitations of his friends he was induced to try Dr. David Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy," and experienced a marked improvement from the first day he began to use the medicine. On the 15th of September he voided a stone as large as he could pass through the natural channel.

Mr. Beach concludes a long letter to Dr. Kennedy by saying, "It will always afford me pleasure to recommend the 'Favorite Remedy' to those who may be suffering from difficulties of the kidneys and bladder or any disorders arising from an impure state of the blood."

Wm. McKnew, 124 Fayette St., Baltimore, Md., says: "I believe 'Favorite Remedy' is a good medicine. It is doing me more good than anything I ever tried, and I have tried almost everything, for I am a sufferer from dyspepsia." While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in Stomach and Bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of Bilious disorders, constipation of the bowels and all the class of ailments inseparable from the constitutions of women. Price, $1; six bottles, $5.

MANHOOD

HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Chalmers' Celebrated Essay on the radical cure of NEURALGIA, MIGRAINE or neural headache, Nervous weakness, Impotency, Mental and physical incapacity, Impairments to Marriage, etc., also, Gonorrhoea, Syphilis and its kindred, by self-indulgence, or sexual extravagance, etc.

The celebrated author's few admirable essays, clearly demonstrate from a thirty years' practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be cured, and a sound course of cure at once instituted, not only as a means of cure, but as a preventive, and as a means of curing the most inveterate cases, and as a means of curing the most inveterate cases, and as a means of curing the most inveterate cases.

N. H. DOWNS' ELIXIR

Vegetable Balsamic

For the cure of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Croup, Asthma, Pleurisy, Hoarseness, Influenza, Spitting Blood, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Lungs. In all cases where this Elixir is used its efficacy is at once manifested, convincing the most incredulous that CONSUMPTION is not incurable, if properly attended to. At its commencement it is but a slight irritation of the membrane which covers the Lungs; then an inflammation, when the cough is rather dry, local fever and the pulse more frequent; the cheeks flushed and chills more common. This Elixir in curing the above complaints, operates so as to remove all morbid irritations and inflammation from the lungs to the surface, and finally expel them from the system. It facilitates expectoration. It heals the ulcerated surfaces and relieves the cough and makes the breathing easy. It supports the strength and at the same time reduces the fever. It is free from strong opiate and narcotic action, which are so drying a nature as to be a great danger of destroying the patient; whereas this medicine never dries or stops the cough, but, by removing the cause, consequently, when the cough
