

How to Travel and When.

If Gallieo were still alive not only in science and art would he recognize that the world still moves, but in the facilities afforded for traveling and the appliances furnished for the comfort and convenience of travelers also. It is not many years since the journeys of men and women were circumscribed within the compass of a few miles. But, now, in 21 hours we may go from New York to Cincinnati; in 24 to Chicago, which is at the rate of 40 miles an hour, including stoppages, and in 6 days from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean. Moreover for the principal trains are attached saloons, sleeping, smoking and dining cars, which combine the advantages of the parlor with the luxuries of the boudoir. Catering for the public with our railroad men is a study and each year exhibits progress towards perfection. Moreover the Pennsylvania Railroad has prepared for several years past a series of more than 2,000 excursion routes whereby every point of interest in the United States and the Canadas may be visited at reduced fares, and on tickets for the most part good until November 1st. The information is conveyed in a handsome pamphlet which is worthy of preservation as a book of art. Especial attention is called to a map giving a bird's-eye view of all the railway connections prepared for the first time. Space will not admit of specification, but we find in mountains, the Catskill, Allegheny and White Mountains; in lakes, George, Chautauqua, Moosehead and Rangely; in springs, Bath, Alum, Saratoga, Cresson, Clifton, White Sulphur, etc.; in seaside resorts, the whole coast of New Jersey, Manchester-by-the-Sea, Old Point Comfort, etc., and so on ad infinitum. No summer tourist who examines one of these books prepared for his instruction can be at a loss where to go or what facilities he can command on his trip.

CABBAGE SALAD.—Cut the cabbage very fine, and put into a dish in layers, with salt and pepper between. Then take two teaspoonfuls of butter, two of sugar, two of flour, two of mustard, one cup of vinegar and one egg. Stir all together and let it come to a boil on the stove. Pour it hot over, and mix well with cabbage; cover up.

BAKED INDIAN PUDDING.—For a two-quart pudding use two teaspoonfuls of meal, moisten the meal with cold water, then pour over it one pint of boiling water; add one tablespoonful of butter, two teaspoonfuls of sugar, one cup of raisins, three eggs well beaten before adding, and fill up with sweet milk; season with whatever spice is preferred; bake slowly half an hour or more.

It is Very Seldom that practicing physicians of all schools, not only endorse a proprietary medicine, but prescribe it in their practice, yet this is done every day in the case of HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY—and why?—because it always gives immediate relief in all cases of diseases of kidneys, liver or urinary organs and has permanently cured some of the worst cases.

Mrs. Geo. Dawley, of 76 Knight St., Providence, R. I., says:—"I was severely afflicted with torpidity of the kidneys and enlargement of the liver. HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY has certainly done wonders for me."

In the past thirty years there have been many remedies advertised for the cure of kidney and liver troubles and diseases of the urinary organs. Of only one can it be said that "it is never known to fail." That one is HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY.

"I cheerfully recommend HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY. I have suffered from severe kidney troubles and intense pain. I am entirely relieved by HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY."—Albert W. Handy, Superintendent Pratt & Whitney Company.
