THE MORMON FLAG OUTRAGE. The Traitorous Act Upheld by the Church Organs of Utah.

Salt Lake City, July 6.—The indignation over the Mormons' act in placing the national flag at half-mast on the Fourth continues unabated. Excited groups of Gentiles discussed the affair all day During the day of the Fourth all day During the day of the Fourth an old veteran stood in front of the city hall looking at the trailing flag. Tears streamed from his eyes. Shaking his fist at the Mormon policemen who were watching to see that the flag was not raised, he exclaimed: "How long, O, Lord! how long!" and declared that he would leave the "nest of treason" within forty-eight hours.

Horace Eldredge, President of the Deseret National Bank, the United States depository here, says the half-mast is the proper place for the flag, "as we have not more than half our rights." The Provo Enquirer, a Mormon paper had, on the Fourth, a coffin, with the inscription, "Independence—died July 4, 1885." The Descret News, the church organ, to-night fully justifies the half-masting of the flag in a five-column editorial, conclusively showing that it was under church authority, and claiming that it was right to do it, "because liberty is dead in Utah."

AS TO MRS. GRUNDY.

This potent personage has been allowed to rule too despotically in the feminine world, and the ladies say that it is time her tyranny received a check. But not even Mrs. Grundy has dared to speak against the value of Brown's Iron Bitters as a strengthening tonic for ladies who suffer from debility. It enriches the blood and completely restores failing health. Miss Sallie L. Paules, Wrightsville, Pa., was cured by Brown's Iron Bitters of back ache, kidney trouble and liver complaint.

THE LAW OF NEWSPAPERS.

It is not generally known that a man who refuses to pay for his newspaper can be prosecuted like an ordinary criminal or thief. A New York paper has begun suit against several delinquent subscribers under the United States postal laws, which say, "the taking of a newspaper and the refusal to pay for the same renders the person liable to criminal processition as a thief and a person inal prosecution as a thief, and a person guilty of the same can be punished as if he had stolen goods to the amount of the subscription." Postmasters are also liable for the price of subscription for allowing papers to accumulate in their offices when subscribers have moved away or refused to take them faom the Almost every person has some form of scrofulous po:son latent in his veins. When this develops in scrofulous sores, nicers or eruptions, or takes the form of rheumatism, or organic diseases, the suffering that ensues is terrible beyond description. Hence the gratitude of those who discover, as thousands yearly do, that Ayer's Sarsaparilla will thoroughly eradicate this evil from the system.

STORM AT LOCK HAVEN.

Lock Haven, July 9 .- A terrible thunder storm passed over this city this morning. A large barn of Benjamin Baird, at Liberty, was struck by light-ning and burned, with all its contents, including a valuable team of horses.

Dip one end of a sponge in water and the whole will soon be saturated. So a disease in one part of the body effects other parts. You have noticed this yourself. Kidney and liver troubles, unless checked, will induce constipation, piles, rheumatism and gravel. A timely use of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will prevent these results. It is pleasant to the taste and may be taken freely by children and delicate females. It gives electricity, life and cheeks with roses on

THE condition of affairs in an lillnois house is somewhat mixed at present. The other day children were born to a mother and daughter at the same time and in the same house. The babies were dressed and put in the cradle together. When they were taken up soon after, neither mother knew her own child, and to-day they are still wondering which is

"It fairly worries me to think of the multitude of things advertised to cure disease," you say. No wonder. But in the mountains of chaff there are grains of golden wheat. We may find it diffi-cult to induce you to test the merits of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, but when you have done so, our work is end-Afterwards you and this medicine will be fast friends. Favorite Remedy would have died out long ago except for its real usefulness. But it is good and

FRED YONSER, aged thirteen, a cart driver at Uriah Biery's iron ore mine, in Lehigh county, attempted to dump a cart load of ore into the washer, when he fell into the machine. His head was torn off and thrown out over the frame and his whole body was ground into shreds as fine as sausage meat.

To most children the bare suggestion of a dose of castor oil is nauseating Why not, then, when physic is necessar for the little ones, use Ayer's Cathartic Pills. They combine every essential and valuable principle of a cathartic medicine, and, being sugar-coated, are easily

THOUSANDS SAY SO.

Mr. T. W. Atkins, of Girard, Kansas writes: "I never hesitate to recommend your Electric Bitters to my customers they give entire satisfaction and are rapid sellers." Electric Bitters are the pures and best medicine known, and will posi tively cure kidney and liver complaints. Purify the blood and regulate the bowels. No family can afford to be without them. They will save hundreds of doctor's bills every year. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by J. Zeller & Son, BelleTHE DEADLY TEA.

W. Mattieu Williams, in a series o articles on food and cookery in "Knowledge," has finally come to tea, and there he hits all civilized people in a tender spot. In truth, the scientific view of what ought to eaten, and how it should be prepared, is so at variance with what we do eat, and the manner of its preparation, that one is led to marvel there is sound digestion and an unimpaired stomach in all civilization. As a matter of fact, in view of the startling revelations as to the deadly character of our customary food, it is to be wondered at that we are not an extinct race. According to Mr. Williams, of all the lifeshortening, brain-destroying articles which man is using, tea is one of the most dangerous, destructive and deadly. This is the infusion which Cibber apostrophizes in fervent words: "Tea! thou soft, thou sage, thou sober, and venerable liquid; thou female tongue-running, smile-smoothing, heat-opening, winktipping cordial, to whose glorious insipidity I owe the happiest moment of my life, let me fall prostrate." Nor is Cibber the only writer who has invoked panegyric to aid in expressing admiration of this . "cup which cheers but does not inebriate; literature is interspersed with laudations of the bowl over which fair women gossip, whose existence is far greater than the area of civilization, whose inspiration cheers the souls of the millions of China, and carries warmth through all portions of the frozen steppes of Siberia and Russia.

The active principle of tea is a "crystalline alkaloid, the theine, a compound belonging to the same class as strychnine, and a number of similar vegetable poisons." This is the character of the drink which is served at least once a day on every table in civilization. That which delicate women by the million sip is a deadly alkaloid, of the same class as strychnine, a drug so deadly that the mere mention of its name sends a shudder through the listener as would the sudden appearance of some hideous reptile. "The "essential action of tea is to waste the system, or consume food by promoting vital action which it does not support; and worse than this is the fact that while arsenic, a deadly poison, will produce the same effect on the human system as tea—that is, it, like tea, checks the waste of tissue, and has the effect to make food appear to go further." The writer takes up the matter of tea stimulation, and shows that it acts the same as tobacco, the betelnut, hasheesh in certain quantities, and various other produces of exaltation, all of which Mr. Williams lumps together under the head of "vice-drugs."

FIRE HISTORY OF THE BRIGADE.

Of the measures taken for the suppresion of that stupendous conflagration, the great fire of London, the only appliance with which we are concerned as at all approaching modern gear was a squirt of three feet long, capable of discharging half a gallon of water, an instrument presumably of some service, since by act of Parliament of 1668 one was ordered to be kept in every ward, and for the working of which the Alderman of that ward was made directly responsible. If he did not set it in action himself he was at any rate bound to see it done, as nowadays the Sheriff, who has always been held responsible for the execution of criminals, must either himself discharge the last office of the law or provide an efficient substitute. This squirt was the first step towards fire engines in England, though for some few years they had been already known in Germany; for in 1637 Hautsch, of Nuremburg, invented a kind of sledge water cistern, the pumps of which were worked by 20 or 30 men, a machine subsequently improved upon by the brothers Ver Heyden, of Amsterdam, when in 1672 they introduced the flexible hose, the whole the prototype of the manual fire engine still in use. Of these cumbrous German arrangments the insurance companies. dating in this country from 1681, were the first to avail themselves, beginning with the Hand in Hand in 1699, and in 1720 including the Sun, the Union, the Westminister, the London, and the Royal Exchange, all of which by that time had men of their own, and engines amounting altogether to 30. In the meantime, by an act of 1707, each parish was directed to keep a fire engine, and a system of fire rewards was created for the first three to arrive on the spot-30s. for the first, 20s. for the second, 10s. for the third, and a sum not exceeding 10s. for the first turncock. In 1774, by the 14 Geo. III. c. 78, there were required to be in every parish two engines, one large and one small, a leathern pipe and five ladders, the whole under the management of the beadle and charity boys, of whom, when at work, George Cruikshank has made a well-known drawing. How far the act was enforced there is nothing to show, for there is no record of prosecution, indictment, or penaltics. The attendance of the engines was not compulsory outside of their own parish, and indeed the whole appears to have been for many years practically a dead lotter, with the exception of Hackney, where a brigade was maintained by a half penny rate at a

THE GREAT SIMMONS Unfailing Specific FOR

REGULATOR MYEN DISPANSE

SYMPTOMS: Bitter or bad taste in mouth; tongue coated white or covered with a brown fur; pain in the back, sides, or joints—often mistaken for Rheumatism; sour stomach; loss of appetite; sometimes nausea and waterbrash, or indigestion; fatulency and acid eructations; bowels alternately costive and iax; headache; loss of memory, with a painful sensation of having failed to do something which ought to have been done; debtility; low spirits; a thick, yellow appearance of the skin and eyes; a dry cough; fever; restlessness; the urine is scanty and high-colored, and, if allowed to stand, deposits a sediment.

SIMMONS + LIVER + REGULATOR Is generally used in the South to arouse the Torpid Liver to a healthy action. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using this medicine.

The Hegulator acts without disturbance to the system, diet or occupation. It regulates the Liver, and Nature relieving herself, causes the bile to act as the purge. The excess of bile being removed, a tonic effect is produced, and health is perfectly restored.

It Regulates the Bowels and Removes CONSTIPATION.

It is a CERTAIN CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA. The Regulator contains no quinine, mineral, or anything that will injure the most delicate patient, and is given with safety and the happiest results to the most delicate infant. For all diseases in which a laxative, alterative or purgative is needed it will give the most perfect satisfaction. The Cheapest, Purest and Best Family Medicine in the World!

AFTER DINNER.

Persons who suffer from Indigestion can arrest the progress of that painful malady by the use of an after-dinner to the stomach, prevent heartburn, rouse the liver to healthful action, invigorate the kidneys, and thus, through the activity of these organs, promote the natural movement of the stomach and howels. Ayen's Pills are so compounded that their action, though mild, effectually produces the above results. They also, in curing Constipation, remove the cause of Billousness, Liver Complaint, Kidney Disease, Rheumatism, and many other serious contain no mineral nor poisonous substance, and do not gripe unless the bowels are irritated, and even then their influence is healing. To continue their effect in constipated or chronic cases, they need only be taken in diminishing instead of increasing doses. For seamen, and inhabitants or travelers in sparsely settled countries where physicians are not at hand, they are of inestimable value. There is hardly a sickness they will not alleviate, and in most cases cure, if taken promptly. To young girls just entering upon womanhood, and to women whose period of maternity is drawing to a close, Ayer's Pills, in moderate doses, merely sufficient to ensure regular action of the bowels, will be found of
