LOCAL ITEMS.

ORIENTAL is the best. Dog-gone such dog days.

Ask your grocer for ORIENTAL, full roller process flour.

Mr. J. I. Thompson is erecting a grain house at Lemont.

Frank Swab, farmer, of Linden Hall, gave our sanctum a call.

Small watermelons at fifty cents a piece sort of a fellow's purse.

Miss Swartzell, of Milroy, spent a few days among friends in this place.

Carpenters are busy framing the timbers for the new Reformed parsonage.

Mrs. W. E. Fischer and children are visiting relatives in Somerset county.

Another new house is to be built on East Church street, on the Fisher lot.

Spring Mills feels one peg higher since it can talk to Centre Hallers by telephone.

Almost every day car loads of lumber are shipped to Centre Hall for building purposes.

Teachers' examinations for Potter township, will be held at Centre Hall on Friday, September 11.

William Allison is completing a fine brick residence at Spring Mills, which will be for rent.

An abundant huckleberry crop on Egg Hill was destroyed by fire on that mountain last Friday night.

The sale of Henry Fry's household goods, etc., will take place on Wednesday, August 12th, at the Old Fort.

From all parts of the state come accounts of Sunday's rain and hail storm, and great damage to crops.

The extensive marble yard at this place has been closed during the past week. Hands seem to be on a strike.

Bartholomew's store room and dwelling, at the station, is rapidly being completed and will soon be occupied.

Barnum's show will visit some of our neighboring counties, and it looks as though he will miss our section this year.

The painting at the court house, Bellefonte, is completed, and is quite an improvement on the looks of the building.

The strong wind which followed the heavy rain the early part of this week, beat down the cornfields in this valley.

Our spy friend, John Maulein, of Renovo, was here last week on a visit to his friends. He shook hands with yo Reporter.

Ira Barber, of George's Valley, had two little soldiers quartered upon him the other day, and now he thinks he is $2,000 richer.

Miss Laura Strohm, who has been visiting friends in Erie and other points in the western part of the state, arrived home last week.

On Tuesday last the bricklayers from Selingsgrove arrived, and commenced the next day on the brick work of the Lutheran church.

A highly increased lady of color created quite a sensation in Bellefonte by cowhiding a young hotel clerk. The affair will be settled in court.

The Pennsylvania railroad company offers reduced rates to persons desiring to attend General Grant's funeral at New York, on the 8th.

The Lemont band had a festival last Friday night on the open space near the railroad station, which brought some stamps to its exchequer.

At the meeting of Pomona Grange it will be decided that place the annual picnic will be held—likely on the top of Nittany mountain.

It requires the patience of a Job for a person to go to church this hot weather, and listen to a long and profound theological discourse.

We wonder when Centre Hall is going to organize that fire company, hinted at in the last issue of the Reporter—Bellefonte Republican.

Man S., "queen of the turf," trotted a mile the other day in the remarkable time of 2:08, thereby reducing her record from 2:09 to 2:08.

The night train from Bellefonte on Tuesday had five or six extra coaches for the accommodation of persons desiring to attend Cole's show the next day.

Mr. Al. Barr, quite a pleasant young gentleman of Alexandria, has been spending the past few weeks with his uncle, Mr. James Bond, of this place.

The telephone to Spring Mills is completed, and is quite a convenience as well as novelty to the people. We heard a man say it was like a new baby, everybody was playing with, and when it got a little older would be of more service to the people.

The borough of Millburg has voted to purchase a hand fire engine and several hundred feet of hose for a fire company. That town has no water works at present, and in case of fire, the water would have to be carried by buckets from wells and cisterns throughout the town.

While all our neighboring towns are having picnics and excursions, Centre Hall and the people living in this vicinity would also enjoy something of the same nature.

The travel on our railroad since its opening to Bellefonte is brisk, and no doubt larger than was looked for thus early. From Lemont to Bellefonte, trains always have a good number of passengers, and the travel from Centre Hall and east of this is on the increase.

Mr. Mateer, foreman of the Bellefonte Republican office, is suffering from a very sore hand. The soreness was caused by handling an article put in type in the office, blaming Cleveland for hard times and no work for laboring men.

Mr. F. Herlacher, of this place, has purchased from Messrs. Gray & Miller the exclusive right for the sale of their patent fire proof paint in Penn's Valley. Everybody should have their roofs secured by this paint, which is considered the best in the market.

Our sanctum table was adorned yesterday with a most beautiful bouquet of rare and fine flowers, from the yard of Mrs. J. B. Fisher, of Penn Hall, whose collection for years has attracted the attention of every admirer of the beautiful passing through that village.

Finally the local editor of the Bellefonte Republican, despite the many warnings of the Watchman, has very bravely determined to play a game of croquet. We suppose a physician with his ice water and a case of Mrs. Winslow's soothing syrup, etc., will be on hand and take charge of the young editor after the excitement of the game.

Mr. John Shafer, farmer, of near Madisonburg, gave us a call the other day. He reports crops in his section short of the average, and apples will not be abundant.

The Twelfth Annual Inter-State Picnic Exhibition (Grangers) under the auspices of the Patrons of Husbandry of Pennsylvania, Maryland, West Virginia, New Jersey and Delaware, will open at Williams' Grove, Cumberland county, Pa., on Monday, August 31, 1885.

Monday morning, July 30.—A severe thunder storm occurred on the mountain this evening. The electric fluid entered the cottage, tearing off the plastering and extinguishing the electric light above the casket.

It is remarked as a singular coincidence that at about the same hour yesterday a bolt of lightning struck the site of the proposed tomb in Riverside Park, where the workmen are engaged on the work of the temporary vault.

Washington, July 30.—The President having been requested by Mrs. Grant to name the pall bearers for the General's funeral, he has appointed the following: General W. T. Sherman, U. S. A.; Lieutenant General P. H. Sheridan, U. S. A.; Admiral David D. Porter, U. S. N.; Admiral Stephen C. Rowan, U. S. N.; General Joseph E. Johnston, of Virginia; General Simon B. Buckner, of Kentucky; Hamilton Fish, of New York; George S. Boutwell, of Massachusetts; George W. Childs, of Pennsylvania; John A. Logan, of Illinois; George Jones, of New York; Oliver Hoyt, of New York.

Plaquemine, July 31.—George Wilson, Charles Davis and Mattida Jones, all colored, were executed here today for the murder and robbery of Mr. Henrietta Cole, in this town, on the night of January 27, last. After the trap fell the ropes of the woman and Davis twisted together. The woman got her hands loose in her struggling and grasped everything in reach.

Mr. Editor: Wes. Wolf, of Lewisburg; R. V. B. Lincoln, of Laurelton, and Henry Whitmer, of Hartston, registered at the Fort on Saturday evening next, at six o'clock, there will be a boat race at this place. A good time is expected.

Mount Carmel, Pa., July 27.—The dead bodies of a young boy, terribly burned, were discovered near Mount Carmel today. Cymbals and a drum near by led to the supposition that they were members of one of the bands attending the miners' parade here on Saturday. It is thought that they were the victims of one of their companions. A bullet hole was found in the boy's head. The last seen of the party was on Saturday last at Centre, where the supposed murderer was very abusive. Nothing is now known of his whereabouts.
