AN AFRICAN CONQUEROR.

Sweeping Paganism Away with One Hundred Thousand Men.

Washington, Aug. 24.—The Secretary of Sfate is in receipt of a dispatch from Sierra Lene, giving accounts of the movements of the secretary. ments of the army of 100,000 men in the interior of Africa, under a Mandingi, named Samuda, who conceived the idea that he was called of God to wage war for the suppression of paganism and the opening of roads to the coast which for a generation have been subject to blackmail and plundering of the vagabond

Samuda's army composed of Mahomme-dan youths and is divided into three portions, one of which recently drove the French from the gold fields of Baure and are now besieging Rammocks, which is now occupied and fortified by the French. Another is operating east of Liberia.

In one sense these operations are opening the way for negro immigrants of intelligence and energy from America, whilst in another sense they are fore-stalling the whole region for Mahommodanism and making it difficult, if not impossible, to convert that country to a faith imported from America by immi-

The largest and most important body surrounded Tolapa, capital of Saaliman, and a large commercial city, and called upon the King to surrender. This herefused to do so, but after a terrible siege the King assembled the royal family and principal chiefs in his powder house and informed them that he could hold out no longer as his resources were exhausted, but having for more than 200 years belonged to the ruling element he was de-termined for himself to die rather than come under Mahommodan rule. He gave the chiefs their choice, either to die with him or go out of town and give themselves up to Eniory. They decided to die with him. He then set fire to the powder and they were all blown up. Thus ended Soolima's power, which for more than seven generations had influenced the trade and politics of extensive

ROYAL BLOOD.

We are all kings and queens in this country, and we have a right to as good blood as that which courses through the veins of emperors. If the blood is poor and the cheeks are pale, it is well known that Brown's Iron Bitters is the great tonic which will give color, vigor and vitality. M. K. Gilson, of West Point, Miss, says, "I felt weak and debilitated. Brown's Iron Bitters made me strong

The next day McGowan left home and the children agreed to repeat the process of the on cuffs and polished his boots before day before. They cut its throat and hungit up by the heels as the pig had been hung, and were proceeding to disembowel it when their mother discovered the horrible tra-

THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S PLAN

For Stoppiny the Sale of the Beech Creek and South Penn'a Roads.

Harrisburg, August 25 .- Attorney General Cassidy to-day filled a bill in equity in the Daupnia County Court of Common Pleas, restraining the Pennsylvania Railroad Company or its agents from purchasing or by any means, direct or indirect, acquiring control of either of the South Feansylvania or the Beech Creek roads. The bill is based on article 17 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania. Section 4 of this article provides that "no railroad, canal or other corporation or the lessees, purchasers or managers of any railroad or canal corporation shall consolidate the stock, property or franchises of such corporation with or lease or purchase the works or franchises of or in any way control any other railroad or canal corperation owning or having under its control a parallel or competing

The Attorney General said to-day: "I propose to have the conquest finally decided whether a great railroad is simply a private corporation or an institution for the public good, a common carrier. I am proceeding in the matter as the legal representative of the State, so that it cannot be charged that the action was instituted by interested parties. I, of course, understand that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will contend that they secured their charter prior to the adoption of the new Constitution, and they are therefore exempt from its provisions. Nevertheless, I propose to have the courts finally decide the matter." Temporary injunctions were granted.

George V. Willing, of Manchester, Mich., writes: "My wife has been almost helpless for five years, so helpless that she could not turn over in bed alone. SNOW AT SEVERAL POINTS AND THE ATMOSPHERE VERY COLD.

Selinsgrove, Pa., Aug. 27.—All day yesterday it was uncomfortably cold. At about 10 o'clock in the forenoon a snow equall passed over the mountains northwest of F. J. Schoch & Co's flour mills, a distance of about two miles from here. The snow fell so thick and fast that it was impossible to see the mountain a quarter of a mile distant.

Flats the other evening was a young cash subscriber for one year, will get a was dead. He was such a guilelesslooking young man that several parties thought to guy him and his catch. The fish was hanging to a peg, and with it a pair of small balances which enable a fisherman to weigh his victims, providing they don't go over twenty pounds.

"Catch it all alone?" asked one.

No reply. "Pull very hard?" asked a second. No reply.

"Were you very much over three days about it?" queried a third, and so it went on for ten minutes, while the fisherman had nothing to say. At length one of the crowd remarked:

"That bass will weigh all of half a pound."

"I doubt it," replied another. "Say, fisherman, what are the figures." "Two pounds," was the solemn answer

"Get out!" The man pulled a $10 bill from his vest, and laid it on his knee and said : "If he don't, the money is yours.

Put up!" After some hesitation, a shake purse of $10 was raised, the fish hung to the scales, and he showed an ounce over. The crowd kicked on the scales, and the fish was weighed in the steamer's pantry. The figures held good, but he was weighed over sgain when the boat landed, and the money had to be passed

"How did you do it?" asked a policeman when the crowd had dispersed.

"Simply poured seventeen ounces of bird-shot down his throat," was the reply; and helet the fish's head drop and the shot pattered out on the wharf like a young hail-storm.

THE MODERN HIRED MAN.

"Yes, I come in after a hired man," gaid the old farmer as he sipped his root beer on the market yesterday; "but I've got disgusted and shan't try very hard to find one."

"What's the matter with hired men?" "Too high-toned and important. Why, I had one last spring who rigged up an umbrella over the plow, so as not to get tanned, and he refused to eat with the family because we stuck our knives in our months! At the end of a week he quit. Said that labor was ennobling ty J. H. McGowan killed and dressed a and so forth, but the landscape in that

A married lady got upon a Sixth avenue car the other day, and wished to go to Carmine street.
