

Preparing to Answer the Attorney-General.

Philadelphia, Sept. 1.—President Roberts and counsel for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company were in conference yesterday upon the subject of preparing an answer to the bill presented by Attorney General Cassidy in the Dauphin County court asking for an injunction to restrain the sale of the South Pennsylvania and Beech Creek railroads to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. The answer to the bill of the Attorney General will be ready by the 8th of September, and will be taken on that day into the Dauphin County court.

It was stated yesterday by a railroad counselor that the tenor of the answer would be that the Penna. railroad company did not contemplate in its negotiations for the South Pennsylvania railroad the purchase of a competing line. The contention will be that the South Penna. is not a line of railroad in operation. The line of argument by the counsel of the Pennsylvania railroad company, it is said, will be strictly in defense of the proposed absorption. The counsel intend to show that the Beech Creek road is not a competing line; that it penetrates a coal region entirely separate and distinct from the Pennsylvania railroad company's territory; that the two roads do not compete for the same business, and that the Pennsylvania railroad company has no intention of violating the Constitution in the absorption of either the South Pennsylvania or the Beech Creek railroad companies' properties.

Pending the legal steps taken in the matter there is nothing being done by the Pennsylvania railroad company and the Vanderbilt interests to consummate the bargain. The portion of the transaction between the Pennsylvania railroad company by which the former were to obtain control of the West Shore railroad, it was reported yesterday, had been accomplished with less difficulty than had been anticipated. A railroad official recently in consultation with President Depew of the New York Central, said that Mr. Depew is satisfied that the Pennsylvania railroad company will be able to acquire the South Pennsylvania and the Beech Creek property.

In a letter to Dr. Hostetter Franklin B. Gowen says: "If Mr. Vanderbilt sells his interest to the Pennsylvania railroad company, he cannot sell ours, and if the other subscribers hold together we can very readily protect ourselves against the Pennsylvania railroad company, owning one-third of the concern. Of course I could do nothing to prevent Mr. Vanderbilt selling, but the moment I hear that my fellow committeemen propose to take any action as to stop the work or pay money to the contractors for stopping, I thought it necessary to make my protest. The South Pennsylvania syndicate is not a corporation where a majority of the members control the minority. The committee of five are trustees of the money of all the subscribers which is paid into their hands for the purpose of building the road. If the trustees use the money to pay contractors a bonus for stopping the work it is a misappropriation of the trust funds, for which the penalty is very severe."

DO YOU MEAN BUSINESS?

Well, if you have strength to push your business, it is broken. But many a man's business has been broken because the man was broken down, and had no push in him. If you want to make a success, build up your system by the use of Brown's Iron Bitters. W. M. Winfree, of Petersburg, Va., says: "There is no medicine equal to Brown's Iron Bitters for general debility." It cures dyspepsia, enriches the blood and strengthens the muscles.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Saratoga, Sept. 2.—While a party of ten miners were being lowered into the Oakwood shaft of the Lehigh Valley Co., this morning a rock fell from the side of shaft when the cage was near the bottom, and struck the men. Four of them were killed. Two were fatally wounded, and three other members of the party were seriously injured.

It will surely cure any and every affection of the throat, lungs and chest, and to show our confidence we invite you to call and get a sample bottle free.

HOGS DYING BY THE HUNDRED.

[Williamsport Banner.]
Hog cholera seems to prevail to an alarming extent in some parts of this county, and especially so in White Deer valley. But a short time ago Mr. Henry Decker, of that neighborhood, lost a sixty-six-year-old head, and the remaining five were sick with the disease and may also be dead by this time. The porkers break out into sore spots all over their bodies and the flies proceed in pestering the animals. Mr. Decker had nine young ducks which began to catch the flies from the sick pigs, and every duck died, supposed to have been poisoned by the flies, as they were doubtless inoculated with the disease and equal to so many poison bugs. If this be the case it would be well for people to keep their poultry away from the pig pen when cholera prevails there.

By taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla many a poor sufferer who submits to the surgeon's knife because of malignant sores and scrofulous swellings, might be saved, sound and whole. This will purge out the corruptions which poison the blood, and by which such complaints are originated and fed.

MALARIA IN ANY OF ITS FORMS, chills and fever, congestive chills can be prevented or cured by the use of Simmons' Liver Regulator, a purely vegetable medicine, superior to calomel and quinine.

Sunbeams.
Sound a sleep—A snore.
A great hardship—An iron steamer.
Breaches of contract—those that shrink.
Beef tongue and oxtail soup make both ends meet.
A morally conducted family should have an "upright" piano.
Play-tonic affection—Going out between the acts at a theatre.
The summer hotel landlord has now adopted the standard gauge smile.
Why is it vulgar to send a telegram?—Because it is making use of flash language.
"Capital punishment" as the boy said when the schoolmistress scolded him with the girls.
Even the worm will turn when trodden on, except when a Chicago girl treads on him.
Fifty more young ladies were made bachelors last week at a Boston college. If this thing continues there will be a shortage in old maids.
A well-known New York tailor recently attempted to kill his wife, and subsequently committed suicide. This is evidently not a case of the survival of the fittest.
A nineteen year old Western girl has just married her fourth husband. She is contemplating a married life until she dies, if the stock of husbands only holds out.
"Oh, where does beauty linger?"—Sings a Philadelphia poetess. Considerable of it usually lingers upon a young man's forehead unless her head rests very quietly.
Yes, "Emeralda," your ma was unloved right. Iron is "good for the blood." For instance, observe what complexion the Chinese laundry men have!
A man moving at the rate of thirty miles an hour will clear fifty feet up in the air at the same rate of speed that a steam locomotive accepts an invitation to a high diving.
"Are you thinking about anything?"
"To the case, I am thinking what answer to make to a man who does not ask for a question."
A Irish counsel, being questioned by a judge to know "for whom he was concerned," replied: "I am concerned, my lord, for the plaintiff; but I am employed by the defendant."
A wealthy Chicago man buying a large woman fish, the dealer asked: "Well, mein frau, will you get your own vashin' done?" "Oh, no. This is for a foot tub for my daughter," was the truthful reply.
"Are you lost, my little fellow?" asked a gentleman of a four-year-old boy one day, who was crying for his mother. "No, sir," sobbed the boy; "but my mother is."
Little Lottie (to her friend): "Oh, I am so busy! Yesterday a little baby sister arrived, and papa is on a journey. It was a piece of luck that mamma was at home to take care of it."
"Oh, you can laugh," exclaimed Pearderson, with a show of impatience; "but I'm not quite so much of a fool as you think I am." "Tell you the truth," said Fogg, "I didn't believe it could be possible!"
An Irishman, recently landed, entered a barber shop in Jersey City, for a shave. After the barber was through, he asked the customary question: "Have I any more, sir?" "No, sir; the fact is, sir, I've just had a glass of beer and I don't like mixin' drinks."
"How does it happen that there are so many old maids among the school teachers?" asked a reporter of Superintendent Jasper, the other day. "Because school teachers are, as a rule, women of sense, and no woman will give up a $60 position for a $10 man," was the reply.
"What does your husband do?" asked the census man. "He ain't doin' nothin' at this time of the year," said the young wife. "Is he a pauper?" asked the census man. "Understandin' him to say 'papa,'" "Law, no!" she exclaimed, somewhat indignantly; "we ain't been married more'n six weeks."

There is such a thing as being smothered with honey. A Kansas man recently drew a big prize in a lottery, and the very name of his wife had been struck by lightning while in transit to pay him a visit, and a man who had owed him nine dollars for ten years sent along the money.
Two immigrants, evidently a married couple, bound for Omaha, stopped in a Chicago restaurant for dinner. Sitting opposite them at a table were a pair of dudes, one of whom was nibbling a piece of celery. "Say, say that," said the old man, pointing him with her elbow, "dye get on tu 'is nibbles atin' ther bouquet."
Magistrate: "It seems, prisoner, that you took fifteen cents from the prosecutor's till. Now, I put it to you seriously, was it worth your while to risk your character, your liberty, your whole future, for such a trifle?" "Certainly not, your honor; but I did not know there was so little in the till—I took all there was."

A Herald correspondent, describing the dress of a belle at a recent Newport ball, says: "Miss B., with that repugnance to ostentation in dress which is so peculiar to her sex, was attired in a simple white lace collar, fastened with a neat pearl button solitaire." How sweet she must have looked.
"Make it very strong and close Uncle John," said the lady of the manor to the negro who was brushing a new garden fence; "my Christianity can't stand the test of my neighbor's pigs and chickens."
"I believe you, missus," was the old man's emphatic response, "kase I bin allus notice dat dere was an end to all pence, and good will, and neighborhoodness an' 'ligion, whar dar warnt no fence."
"I can't pay that bill just now; you will have to wait a little for the money."
"All right, sir," cheerfully responded the boy, as he seated himself, and unfolded the copy of the morning paper.
"Them's the orders of the governor."
"What are the orders of the governor?" demanded the gentleman, stercorily. "I'm to wait for the money."
