—Tuesday was cold and windy with a snow squall in the morning, which put a white cap on our mountain tops.

—Our borough election should not be held in the school house—it is too inconvenient and interferes with the schools.

—The new Lutheran church spire, in this place, was rodged last week, D. K. Geiss did the job in good style.

—We didn't get a glimpse of the promised new papers at Bellefonte. Come up front, fellows, and show yourselves.

—Abs. Musser, of Haines, has returned from a three months western trip. He did not get the western fever, but however.

—The borough officers chosen yesterday hold office until the spring election, when a new set will be chosen for a full term.

—Merchant tailoring at the Philadelphia Branch, and satisfaction guaranteed. An experienced head oversees this department.

—How to get married without a license and without telling your age. Subscribe and pay for the Reporter and we will give you the recipe.

—The frame work of Musser & Smith's new hardware store in Millheim on the burnt Alexander lot, is up, and will be faced with brick.

—Eq. Duck, of Millheim, is having a new building erected on the burnt Zeigler lot, the lower story of which will be used for a complete drug store.

—We met a man the other day who has a family and no newspaper. We asked him to subscribe for the Reporter. He said he liked the Reporter but could not afford it. We kept an eye on him just one hour with the following as the result of our observations:

Bo. four cigars..... 10 cents. Tobacco for day..... 10 cents. Two glasses beer..... 10 cents. Total 30 cents per day—$10.20 per week!—$109.20 per year!

Now $109.20 will pay for the following: Reporter for one year..... $ 2.00 Church paper one year..... 2.50 Rent, 1/2 year..... 25.00 Two dresses for wife..... 12.00 Two pairs of shoes for wife..... 6.00 Bonnet for wife..... 5.00 Breast pin for wife..... 5.00 One railroad ticket for self and wife, one hundred mile trip..... 10.00 Shawl for Jane..... 12.00 Hat for Susie..... 2.00 Suit and boots for Johnny..... 10.00 Confectioneries..... 7.00 One down concert ticket..... 3.00 Sundry luxuries..... 14.00 Playthings for baby..... 7.00

Now as he can't afford to take a newspaper, no doubt he lets his family suffer for want of many of the above comforts, while he sits up in smoke and puts it down in drink, and of course he can't afford, &c.

—The sixteenth annual convention of the Centre County Sunday School Association will be held in the M. E. Church, at Philipsburg, Wednesday, November 11.

Each school is invited to appoint two delegates with the superintendent. All preachers in the county are delegates ex officio.

In order to secure homes beforehand, delegates who desire entertainment should forward their names, not later than Nov. 6, to Mr. George W. Ganoe, Philipsburg, Pa.

Some of our leading preachers and teachers have promised to present to the convention their model methods of instruction and practice.

—"In the unity of the faith," let us spend this one day in sweet Christian counsel and earnest endeavor to forward the interests of the Redeemer's Kingdom.

—Rev. S. E. Furst is president, and Austin Curtin, secretary. The following is the executive committee: Revs. Critchenden, W. E. Fischer, John Zeigler, B. J. Hummel, J. P. Heller, Messrs. D. S. Keller, W. S. Zeller, E. P. Green, H. L. Harvey, J. W. Mattern.

Every school contributing one dollar to aid in defraying the expenses of the County Sunday School Association will receive, free of charge, a large and neatly printed "chart of the Beauties," arranged for the use of all Sunday Schools, and recommended by the International Lesson Committee. Address, C. C. S. A., Box 123, Bellefonte, Pa.

—The borough has elected its first officers, and the personnel of the crop is far as the borough could make. In the council there may be one inimical to improvements and in the school board one opposed to advancement in schools, but we believe the majority will do what is for the best in council and school board. The borough officers elected are:

Burgess, John Rishel. Ass't Burgess, Jacob Ripka. Councilmen, Simon Harper, E. G. Van Pelt, Wm. R. Camp, C. F. Harlachar, D. J. Meyer, M. Derstine.

Judge of Election, John Spangler. Inspectors, Wm. P. Shoop, D. A. Booser. Constable, C. W. Bollinger. High Constable, Wm. H. Ruble. Overseers of Poor, H. D. Van Pelt, Emanuel Smith.

School Directors, G. W. Hostrerman, J. F. Alexander, Wm. A. Jacobs, B. D. Brisbin, C. D. Runkle, J. W. Henney. Auditors, J. C. Boal, Jas. H. Lohr, C. Dingus.

—After to-day there will be a local freight train from Spring Mills to Spangsbury and a train for passengers only between Montandon and Spring Mills. From Spring Mills to Bellefonte the trains will be mixed as heretofore.

—The delay of trains was caused by the freight business between Lewisburg and Spring Mills, which will be obviated by the putting of the local freight aforesaid, and passengers will have the pleasure of speeding over the L. & T. on time. This will be a good arrangement, and the public will thank Sup't Westfall for the change, and the road given a bigger passenger traffic.

—A bold robbery was committed in Delaware county, a few days ago, the facts of which are given us from a letter to D. C. Keller, Mr. Stewart, a drover, who occasionally visits this section, on going into his stable at night, was gounced by four men in the stable, who struck a light, threw chop in his face, and robbed him of $402 in money and his watch. They told him that he would not let them have his horse in the spring but now they had his cash. They escaped.

—Mrs. McCulloch, an aged resident of Centre Hall, was found on Thursday morning, 29 ult., suffering from the effects of coal gas which had escaped from her stove. A little girl, a daughter of D. C. Keller, in the house with the old lady, also suffered severely, but has recovered. As no one was seen about the house in the morning, Dr. Alexander and Mr. Mingle, neighbors, entered thro' a window by using a ladder, and found them as stated. Mrs. McCulloch formerly lived at Millroy.

—A correspondent asks what expenses the borough will be under to get organized, for legal services, etc. Don't fret, time will tell, and if the proper persons are put in for councilmen there will be light expenses. Legal expenses there are none, and need be none. The machinery for organizing a borough is so simple that it would be a stupid set if a lawyer had to be hired to help them. The council elected we take it are not in need of help.

—After Sept. 1 our stock of zephyrs, yarns, embroidery and knitting silks, and everything pertaining to the line of fancy wear, will be complete and kept up as it formerly was at our old stand before the fire. GOLDSMITH BROS.

—The telephone line from Millheim to Coburn is finished and being hauled over. The Millheim office is in Musser & Smith's hardware store, and the Coburn instrument at the railroad station.

MILLHEIM ITEMS.

Lots of rackets in town on Saturday evening. The telephone was completed last week. The office is in Musser & Smith's hardware building.

Philadelphia bunnymen were plenty last week. Mr. J. W. Henney, of Freeport, Ill., stopped at the First National last week.

The two bridges on Peter's street want fixing. J. W. Lose and "Dutch Bill" are painting the church at Boonville.

A number of our folks were at Aaronsburg on Saturday and Sunday, and heard some good sermons delivered. SHUTTLEBROOK.

Boalsburg Sparks.—The postoffice was removed from Mr. Jack's store to that of Mr. Price's on Monday. Mr. Price is a veteran D. democrat and had experience as postmaster some twenty-five years ago.

Our boys tried to do their "duty" on Halloween and turned things up generally. Some repairs had to be made Sunday morning.

Mr. George Hoffer moves to Petersburg on Wednesday. Sorry to lose so good a neighbor. Mr. Hoffer has been a citizen of this county for more than 60 years.

Miss Lillie Fisher is in Philadelphia attending music school. The Reporter one year and N. Y. "Weekly World" six months for $2 in advance. X.

NOT TRUE.—A telegram from Reno to eastern papers regarding the defalcation of a lumberman named Rankin, makes allusions to Mr. R. Rankin, or that he is a "fast" man and of that town and of high standing, as a loser by Mr. Rankin, and winds up by saying that "Mr. Glenn is a fast man and a speculator in New York stocks."

Mr. Glenn at the present time being a visitor at our next door neighbor's, Mr. Kennedy, we called his attention to the dispatch, and he pronounces it utterly untrue that he is a loser by Mr. Rankin, or that he is a "fast" man and a speculator in New York stocks. We have every reason to believe that Mr. Glenn has been misrepresented, and cheerfully give him the use of our columns for this contradiction.

SPRING MILLS, Oct. 25, '85. Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst Mrs. Margaret A. Woods, who has taught in this Sunday School nearly thirty years, being always at her post even to the last Sabbath of her fatal illness, it is proper that we should testify to our appreciation of her character as a Christian woman and teacher; therefore be it

Resolved, by the Spring Mills Union Sunday School that while we bow with submission to the will of God, we do not the less mourn for our friend who has been taken from us.

Resolved, that in the death of Mrs. Margaret A. Woods, this school loses one who was ever in sympathy with all Christian work, foremost in advancing the interests of the school, devoted to its welfare and prosperity, whose kindly, cheerful and unselfish spirit endeared her not only to the Sunday School but to all her acquaintances.

Resolved, that this school tender its heartfelt sympathy to the family and relatives of the deceased in their sad affliction.

Resolved, that these resolutions be placed upon the minutes of the Sunday School, a copy be sent to the family of the deceased, and one to a local paper for publication.

MRS. WM. ALLISON, E. GERTRUDE SPIEGELMEYER, MAGGIE L. STOVER, Committee.

—Don't forget that Wolf's is still the place to buy your boots and shoes. They have the largest assortment and best stock, and goods are guaranteed as represented. Their stock of rubbers never was so large.

—Judge Furst, presiding over the Huntington court, revoked the license of Chamberlain's hotel at Warriorsburg, and on Thursday of last week the bar of the house was closed against all whiskey drinkers.

—Tuesday brought the first snow of the season. It was cold and damp and flakes came down thick and swift, a reminder that coal and wood should be looked after and supplied to keep warm.

—Our portly neighbor down on the other corner, Mr. John Rishel, was elected Burgess. He can't bill the bill and the chair, and give free dinners better than any man we know in this town—but must take care the ice-cream don't get away.

—Jerseys, white, red and blue spotted at Wolf's. Ladies, remember that Jerseys are more fashionable than ever this year, and you will do well to see this stock before you buy. They also have Jersey cloth for children's wraps as well as made up coats.

—The members of the I. O. G. T. of this place, will give a select oyster supper on Saturday evening, 7, in their hall on second floor of bank building. Tickets can be procured of the members or at Dingus' store, at 15c. and 25c. Proceeds for the benefit of the order.

—One of the most valuable farms in Centre county, that of Wm. Harter, late of Aaronsburg, dec'd, is offered at public sale in the Reporter. This farm has never known a failure in crops, being thoroughly sheltered on all sides, and always cultivated in the highest manner. Read ad. in another column.

—Col. Mackey, Ed. and Evan Bianchard, Hon. S. Gildiland, Dan'l Hess, John I. Thompson, and other "big guns" along the line of our railroad had a jaunt to Centre Hall last Friday afternoon to look at its improvements. As we arrived on the train they mounted to depart, we could not post them on the distances from Centre Hall to the different commercial centres of the world.

—If you want to have a railroad ride "around a ring," you can get it from any point on our road, via Bellefonte, Lock Haven, Williamsport, Montandon, and Lewisburg to Centre Hall or starting point in Centre county. The circle is 30 miles in diameter on a B line, which is big enough to prevent giddiness from "swinging around the circle." A bridal pair will find this a splendid "wedding ring" for a railroad trip, while through Centre county two short tunnels will be found thrown in for a little extra kissing.

AN OHIO TOWN ON FIRE. Cleveland, O., Nov. 1.—The town of Geneva, is burning. The indications point to the destruction of half the village. Fire engines have left this city by a special train.

COLLIDED ON A BRIDGE.

Williamsport, Oct. 31.—Early this morning a collision occurred on the Philadelphia and Reading road on the bridge across the White Deer creek, between a freight and coal train.

The freight left White Deer, bound for Williamsport, and stopped in the centre of the bridge for the purpose of looking after a hot axle on one of the cars. The coal train reached the station and thinking that the track was clear ahead the engineer, after receiving an order from the operator, pushed on at a rapid speed.

Before reaching the bridge he slackened up and looked out at the bend and not seeing any light or signal of danger he entered the bridge. Before he was aware of anything his engine was crashing into the rear of the freight. A cracking noise followed and the span of the bridge gave way, and the bridge, engine of the coal train and thirteen cars were hurled into the creek, a distance of about thirty feet.

The cars and their contents were piled on top of one another in a confused mass. The engineer of the coal train and the fireman were buried in the debris. When they were dug out they were found uninjured. The loss has not yet been estimated.

THE REPORTER'S OVERTIPPING FROM THE GERMAN. —Mother: Papa, will we wurst fry to Sauter? Papa: Could nothing better on the table come, to it set me Coffee, Bread and Schweitzer cheese.

—George: Dearest Clara, will we this Evening not to the Theatre go? Clara: Nothing would me better please, then could we to the House come when Papa and Mama in the Bed had gone, and no one would us disturb.

—Mother: John walk swift to the Doctor, say him quickly to come, the Hannah did the Cellar tumble down and did her much hurt do.

Wife: George, see the neighbor Schmidt his pretty Drives in which he us Wife please Drive; and me you keep only an old Carl. Husband: All true, dear Maria, but that is the Schmidt his second Wife.

A REMARKABLE ESCAPE. Mrs. Mary A. Bailey, of Tunkhannock, Pa., was afflicted for six years with asthma and bronchitis, during which time her life was despaired of, until in last October she procured a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, when immediate relief was felt, and by continuing its use for a short time she was completely cured, gaining in flesh 50 lbs. in a few months. Free bottles of this certain cure of all throat and lung diseases, at J. Zeller & Son's drug store, Bellefonte, Large bottle $1.

IRRITABLE TEMPER, moroseness, and despondency, dyspepsia, constipation, piles, and debility are commonly due to a morbid liver. These ailments are readily removed and cured by Simon's Liver Regulator—a purely vegetable tonic, cathartic and alterative.

Hundreds of letters from those using Ayer's Hair Vigor attest to its value as a restorer of gray hair to its natural color. As a stimulant and tonic, preventing and often curing baldness, and cleansing and soothing the scalp, its use cannot be too strongly recommended.

It will not disappoint you. It is the best article known for purifying the blood and building up the health and strength. For 25 years erysipelas broke out in blotches on my face. I found no cure until I used Parker's Tonic two years ago. It is the medicine for me.—E. C. H. nov

"We do not have to recommend Parker's Hair Balm but once," writes C. A. Burger, druggist, of Liberty, N. Y. "After that it stands on its record." It stops falling hair, restores original color, softens and gloss. Exceptionally clean, prevents dandruff. nov

A great many people will contract large doctor bills or dose themselves with quinine, which injures the system without reaching the seat of the disease. Keller's Catarrh Remedy will positively effect a speedy cure.

Trial proves that honesty is the best policy in medicine as well as in other things. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a genuine preparation, an unequalled blood purifier, decidedly superior to all others.

Rheumatism, gout and neuralgia are generally caused by urea in the blood, and it is one of the special properties of Dr. Riehman's Serranin Nerve to eradicate all these disorders.

EDIBLES OF PERSIA.

Everything is good and plentiful. There are no adulterations; the only fault is on the side of profusion. In the large towns cook shops abound. Sheep are roasted whole in ovens and sold hot by the slice. The sheep's heads and feet are boiled separately and their preparation and sale is a trade in itself.

But the edible most in favor among all classes in Persia is the kabab. There are two varieties of kabab. One is made from minced mutton which is chopped with a few onions into a paste fine as sausage meat, carefully moulded over a skewer, toasted over a fierce charcoal fire and sold and eaten hot. This is the kabab of the bazaar, the delicacy of the lower classes. At the dinner hour (noon) and at the breakfast hour (noon) crowds surround the shops of the kabab sellers. Each man carries his bread, which is usually a flexible loaf two feet long, a foot wide and half an inch thick. The customer wraps his kababs, hot from the fire, in his bread, and either sits down and eats it then and there or takes the meal home to his family. In any case, a hot dinner of roast meat can be obtained for from one penny to threepence a head, for the price of a single skewer of the steaming delicacy is but a halfpenny. Jars containing about half a pint of hot, strong and savory meat soup are sold for a penny. These form the invariable meal of the Persian soldier, if he can afford it. The meat is pounded and served with the soup or eaten afterward as a separate dish. But in Persia, as in the rest of the East, bread, rice or dates are the real food—the meat merely the sauce or bonne bouche. Persians of all ages are very fond of confectionery, and are constantly devouring sweets. These are generally pure and good; but there is little variety in color, most of them being white, and nearly all are flavored with lemon juice. The lower class Persian will eat several pounds of grapes, cucumbers or apricots for a meal; they eat onions as we eat apples. Pomegranates and melons are in great demand as food, and the melons, which run to fourteen pounds in weight, are very nutritious. Cucumbers are looked upon as a fruit and are eaten in large quantities by rich and poor. They are not indigestible. Seven pounds' weight may be often had for a halfpenny. Grapes in infinite variety and of the most delicious kinds, from the huge, long grape, which measures two inches, to the tiny sultana, sweet as honey to the taste. The curls or mast is simply made by adding a small portion of the rennet or else old curds to warmed milk; in a few hours it sets into a mass, the cream on the top. If eaten the first day, it is like a junket; if allowed to remain, it becomes sour, and will keep good any time. In this sour state it is preferred and is eaten with honey, sugar or grape sugar. Eggs boiled hard and dyed a gray color are much eaten; from forty to fifty can be had for ninepence. These things, then, form the cheap and varied diet of the working classes. Beef, too, is eaten by them; never by the well-to-do.

IS THE SUN BLUE? It may be asked, what suggested the idea that the sun may be blue rather than any other color? My own attention was first directed this way many years ago when measuring the heat and light from different parts of the sun's disk. It is known that the sun has an atmosphere of its own, which tempers its heat, and by cutting off certain radiations, and not others, produces the spectral lines we are all familiar with. These lines we customarily study in connection with the absorbing vapors of sodium, iron and so forth, which produce them; but my own attention was particularly given to the regions of absorption, or to the color it caused; and I found that the sun's body must be deeply bluish, and that it would shed blue light, except for this apparently colorless solar atmosphere, which really plays the part of a reddish veil, letting a little of the blue appear on the center of the sun's disk where it is thinnest, and staining the edge red, so that to delicate tests the center of the sun is a pale aqua marine and its edge a garnet. The effect I found to be so important that, if this all but invisible solar atmosphere were diminished by but a third part, the temperature of the British Islands would rise above that of the torrid zone, and this directed my attention to the great practical importance of studying the action of our own terrestrial atmosphere on the sun, and the antecedent probability that our own air was also and independently making the really blue sun into an apparently white one.

RELICS OF THE CLAM-EATERS. Near Astoria, Ore., there is a deposit of clam shells which covers an area of over four acres, and is piled in places to a depth of ten feet. The amount of shells is incalculable. Over a thousand loads have been hauled away to make roads, but that amount is hardly noticed in the diminution of the immense heap. From time to time relics of the old clam-eating tribes that made that place their headquarters are found. A party recently found a clam-opener. It was made from a whale's tooth, is about eight inches long, and is ground sharp at the end. There are some sixteen inches of soil on top of these immense clam-beds, on which grow fir trees, some of them four hundred years old.
