A SWINDLER CAUGHT.

Erie, Nov. 2 .- Henry L. Bacon, the head of the "Bohemian Oats" swindlers, who operated in Erie, Crawford and Mercer counties last spring, was sentenced to Akron, Ohio, last week to seven years in prison for forgery. Their method of working was to sell seed to farmers for $10 a bushel, taking their notes for the amount and promising to pay $10 per bushel for the crop They would sell the notes to the bank and that would be the last heard of them. Erie county farmers have been duped to the extent of $60,000 and are combining to resist payment of the notes. The Lewisburg Argus says: We are informed that one of this organization of swindlers has been in our county within the past few weeks and has victimized a number of our farmers. A gentleman told us yesterday that a number of notes gotten through this "Bohemian" oats swindler were offered to him the other day at a large discount. He refused to take them. Those farmers who have been taken in by this chap had better take action at once to stop the notes they gave him, or they will find themselves badly caught in the end.

We do not know whether this Bohemian oats swindle was practiced in Centre county or not, but any that find themselves duped had better look into the swindle in time to prevent collection of any notes given. Swindlers of this kind always have stool-pigeons in localities where they operate to help them suck in the unsuspecting. We see from our exchanges that this oats swindle has been practiced against farmers in all parts of the state.

OBITUARY.

ORITUARY.

On the Zth day of September, 1885, near Lincoln, Neb.. Nora, daughter of Hugh and Susan Larimer, left earth to join the happy throng in heaven, aged 15 years, 1 mohth, 29 days.

The writer has known her since she was a child and will never forget the smiles and cheerful countenance with which she always greeted him. She was everybody's friend, and to know her was to love her. She joined the Presbyterian church at the age of eleven years, and was a faithful and consistent member of the same until God called her to the church triumphant. Though young, it can truly be said of her, she went about doing good. Her heart, affections and energies were consecrated to Christ. Like Mary, she toved to sit at the feet of Jesus and learn of Him. Her heart was fully enlisted in Sunday School work. She was in sympathy with every effort to elevate—morally and religious—the human family. O, that all the children of Christian parents might be confirmed so young; might thus early assume the vows their parents made at their baptism; that all our children might be trained from the cradie for Christ. What a religious influence there would be in every community. The strong arm of sin would be paralyzed and parents would no longer need to shed burning tears over the graves of sons and daughters who died without having a ray of hope that they were saved. Nora died in the triumphs of a living faith. Before she died she repeated the Lord's prayer, this was followed by another earnest prayer. Then she sang: "The gate stands open wide for me," and "We are going home to die no more." Parents, sisters, brothers, weep not for Nora, your loss is her gair, God will give her to you again. Even the body, followed to the grave by almost the entire community, shall come forth, sanctified; here it will have a glorious resurrection to immortal life. Christ's words come to you with more than ordinary emphasis:

"It me the resurrection and the life. Whosoever believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live and whosoever liveth and belie of his child, let me say to you of Nora: She can not come to you but you can go to her. She still lives in the memory of all who knew her, and the writer will never forget her and confidently expects to greet her in the Eternal city. Truly life is uncertain. We come forth in the morning, like the flour we flourish for a little while, we are cut down and our places know us no more forever. Soon all the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Larimer and of the writer. together with them will sleep in the grave. We shall go to our fathers, mothers and children who have gone. God grant that we may so live that death will have no terror, the grave no gloom, and that we may stand acquitted before the judgment seat of Christ when the powerful light from the throne of God shall shine full and clear upon every action of our lives.

THE GREATEST WOMAN YET.

Five Boys at Once. Toledo, Ohio, Nov. 8 .- A remarkable story comes from Henry county, just west of here. It is to the effect that several days ago the wife of Wilhelm Freund, a German farmer, living half a las' Philander Beasley war in m'parlor mile from Holgate, gave birth to five children, all boys, and that all the infants are well formed and alive. When the press correspondent investigated this stupendous increase he found that the event is but one of a series that have happened in this interesting family. Mrs. Freund s 36 years of age, and during her nineteen years of married life has given birth to 21 children, 18 of whom are now ages over a y-ar. Dr. Townsend, of Holgate, has been in attendance at most of these events, and Dr. Harrison, of Napoleon, is also conversant with the facts, and has assisted upon some occasions. The mother is described as a comety German woman, rawboned and spare, and the father short and solid, but not portly. This happy couple live on a small farm, which the trusband tills with the assistance of his numerous progeny. Some of the children, it is said, were born in the hay field where the mother was at work.

A TOTAL WRECK.

Bellefonte, Pa., Nov. 8 .- Yesterday 15 onded freight cars were thrown from the track at Port Matilda station, on the Baid Eagle Valley R. R., and were piled three and four cars deep in a cut within a distance of 75 feet. The debris was packed so solidly that 13 cars had to be torn to pieces in removing them, and two about midnight and lay down by the wrecking crews were ten hours in clearing the track.

Dr. S. W. Cohen, of Waco, Texas, says: I have used your Emulsion in infantile washing with good results. It not only restores wasted tissue, but gives strength, and I heartily recommend it for diseases attended by strophy."

THIRTY-SEVEN LIVES LOST.

Chicag , Nov. 9 .- A Winnipeg special says: A fearful disaster occurred on Laze Superior, off Port Arthur, early this morning. The iron steamer Aigona, of the Cauadian Pacific Railroad, was wrecked and thirty-seven lives lost. Only meager particulars have been received up to the present hour.

Avoid the harsh, irritating, griping compounds so often as purging medicines, and correct the irregularities of the bowels by the use of Ayer's Cathartic erected to her memory by her vegetarian Pills, which are mild and gentle, yet thorough and searching, in their action.

As a purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla acts directly and promptly. A single bottle will prove its merits. Many thousands of people are yearly saved from danger-ous fevers by the exercise of a little timely care in properly cleansing the system by the use of this remedy.

Malaria is a term given to all diseases which arise from the vitiated condition of the blood. The system is impaired and needs renovating. Keller's Catarrh Remedy is the best preparation in the market for their cure.

"Lookout, ef yer touch that tongue it'll jar my roomtisum, an' I'll jar yer head." Swipes humbly apologized and went over and sat down on the horse trough. The colonel looked over at Mowdown and worked his jaws. Mowdown handed over the plug of nigger heel and the colonel cut two and a half inches off the end that hadn't been eaten off of, and proceeded:

FOR GIRLS ONLY.

"She won't do, Marie ; she won't do," said the man of the house, just in time to upset the negotiations between the mistress and a new nursery maid.

"Why, dear, don't you like her?" "She's not young enough." That's why I was engaging her.

She's not young." "That's why I object." "Henry, what do you mean?"

"I want a young, pretty, bright girl, with a clean white apron and a pretty "Oh, yes, I suppose you do."

"You are wrong, my dear. I do not mean that." "What ?" "Your tone was significant. No. I have a theory. I think that children grow up a good deal like the people who take care of them." "Oh," and she began to cry, "I suppose you don't like to have your children

"What kind of a nurse did you have, Henry?"
"Madam," he said, rather confusedly, "I had a colored nurse, but it doesn't work with boys." SHE WAS MUCH WORRIED.

A young lady who was much worried about her complexion asked the advice of a vegetarian friend as to the best means of improving her appearance. "Take to vegetarianism," said her friend. She took wildly, and fed on nothing but parsnips washed down with copious draughts of dandelion tea for one month. Towards the end of the twenty-eighth day she was nearly as pretty in color as butterine. Yet, somehow or other, the tint didn't please her, and after consulting her vegetarian friend again, the young lady subsisted "We do not have to recommend Park- for two months on pickled cabbage and raspberry, vinegar, meat. Slowly but surely her color changed, till she became once more, and existed on strawberry ice and turnips for six months, when she assumed a lovely pink and white hue.

HIS SECRET.

"Ah, young man, that secret is a life study, but I will give it to you on condition that you pay all my bills during this session of court." "Agreed, sir," said the junior. "Evidence-indisputable evidence." At the end of the month the judge reminded the young man of his promise. "I recall no such promise." "Ah, but you made it." "Your evidence, please?"
