Howard Homan, of Aaronsburg, is about to move to Centre Hall.

Michael Frank, a citizen of Penn twp., died on 13, aged some 70 years.

Shelled corn and other coarse grain wanted at the Centre Hall roller mill.

Mr. Daniel Fleisher has driven stakes for a new house near the railroad.

Monday and Tuesday were delightful days—like the beginning of Indian summer.

The Centre Hall station is one of the liveliest on the road, with stir and trade increasing.

The Reformed parsonage is fast being completed. It will be a handsome building when finished.

Rev. Mac Riesel, Methodist pastor of a charge below Lewistown, is visiting his parents here.

Mr. David Lohr, of Farmers Mills, has purchased a lot and will erect a house at Centre Hall.

Mr. D. C. Keller has already erected a large new stable to take the place of the one recently burned.

Corn meal grists will be ground at the Centre Hall roller mill, Tuesday and Saturday of each week.

About a dozen of new houses are already fixed upon to be erected in Centre Hall the ensuing year.

Lettie Ross had a pretty little birthday party Tuesday night—much to the delight of the little folks.

Plasterers at the new church at Millheim are frozen up. No more work this fall unless it moderates.

The Spring Mills band is flourishing and discourses fine music, and as an organization favors temperance.

Zerby, Penn Cave and Axmann are the names of three new stanzas placed on the schedule of our road.

Saturday and Sunday were raw and cold, with a snow squall at night that put a white face on the ground.

The Lutheran members of the Centre Hall charge are putting in a gratifying work filling up around their new church.

Dry goods at cost at Dingess' store. Exchange for turkeys, ducks, chickens, butter, eggs, chestnuts, etc. Give Dingess' store a call.

Merchant tailoring at the Philadelphia Branch, and satisfaction guaranteed. An experienced head overseas this department.

Millheimers are complaining of want of "fire" in their hook and ladder company. A big blaze would waken them up—when it's too late.

The railroad officials passed over our road in a special on Tuesday, and by invitation of Sup't Westfall, we had the pleasure of joining the party.

The Clymer family, of Milton, gave a musical entertainment in Aaronsburg, on 14. They furnished excellent music. Andy Immet entertained them over Sunday.

The scaffold has been taken from the spire of the new Lutheran church and the plastering of the different rooms is now being done to be followed by free coing.

Pomona Grange of Centre county will meet at Centre Hall, Friday, Nov. 27, at 10 a. m. Business of importance will be transacted and a full attendance is desired.

Sausages are getting ripe—the squealing of hogs early in the morning is a certain indication of it. Who will stuff the longest sausage and who eat the biggest piece?

A wintery blast greeted us beginning of this week, which froze the ground in some localities. There was a general demand for overcoats and more coal for the stoves.

Sup't Westfall, Mr. Harrar, Mr. Seymour, and other railroad officials of Tuesday, in a special car, accompanied by Mr. Maginnis of the Williamsport Gazette & Bulletin; Mr. Houston, of Montgomery, and Messrs. McFarlane, H-es, Wolf and the editor of the REPORTER, and had quite a pleasant trip. A notable feature being Mr. Hess' large and elegant rambos with which he boarded the train at L. H. The entire party dined at the Dash House. Mr. Westfall and his staff are desirous to learn the wants of the people along our road in order to give them all possible railroad accommodation and facilities, and we can assure our people that nothing will be left undone in this regard. Mr. Maginnis can add much to the pleasures of a trip by a narration of the modus operandi of a Mexican bull fight which he witnessed while in that country last summer.

REMOVAL OF CORPSES.—On Saturday, 14, the remains of the following persons were removed from the family burial ground at Potters Mills, and were deposited in the cemetery at Bellefonte, in a lot purchased for that purpose: Dr. James P. Wilson, buried in 1863, and his daughter Julia, aged about eight years, whose remains were buried in the same grave.

Mrs. Mary Wilson (mother of Dr. Jas. P. Wilson), who was buried in 1862. Hon. Wm. W. Potter, who was buried in 1838. He was a grandson of General Potter, of revolutionary fame. He was born at Potters Mills, Dec. 18, 1792; was admitted to the bar in April, 1814; was elected to congress in 1836 and 1838, where he gained a high reputation and was the leader of the Democratic delegation from Pennsylvania. He died in his 48th year. He left no children.

The first work of real importance that should be taken up by our town council is to fix upon the street line from the lower end of town to the depot. This is a matter that must be attended to some time and the longer it is delayed the greater will be the expense and difficulty. Persons who wish to build in that section will be relieved of the suspense as to where the line will be. Land taken from one side should be paid for by the party getting it on the opposite side the road, at a fair value. A walk should also be provided for to the station. There is much travel in and out, and it will not be to the credit of our town if pedestrians must wade through mud, ankle deep, all winter and next spring. Hope our council will be prompt in these matters.

The celebrated Clymer family will give a concert in this place this, Wednesday, evening. This family consists of Mr. and Mrs. Clymer and seven children, and is equipped with silver instruments, the latest musical invention, and modern music second to no band that has traveled this part of the state. They always draw crowded houses and are pressed to return again where they have once been heard. They are a musical marvel.

West Smith, one of Centre Hall's young men, has gone and taken himself a wife. West has been employed in the Reporter office for a number of years, hence knew how to make an "impression" upon one of Boalsburg's fair damsels and has "locked horns" with her. The pair have the Reporter's best wishes. May sorrow never come across their pathway, and life be strewn with happiness for the bride and groom.

Powers & Son are still alive and doing the largest business in boots and shoes in the county. People go to Powers' and see and then buy. Powers' stock of goods always speaks for itself and the prices are so satisfactory that people can't help but buy. Boots and shoes for all classes, sexes and ages, and no misrepresentation or paper-filled article. The public are asked to call and see their stock, no matter whether wanting to purchase or not.

The boro' dials should at once provide for some kind of an apparatus to extinguish fires; don't wait until a big fire has done its time to prevent such a calamity. There are some very simple and cheap machines made for this purpose and to suit small towns, which would come handy at the next fire. It may cause a little tax and a little grumbling—no matter about that—the saving may amount to thousands.

An attempt was made to burglarize Dr. Chas. Smith, residing near Clinton Dale, Clinton county. The party entered the house by a ladder to an upstairs window, but on entering the bedroom the Dr. wakened up and routed them. He had received a regular letter that day containing a note, and it is thought the idea that it contained money led the party to the search.

Mrs. Mame Hillish, familiarly known in this place, and Mr. J. B. Reed, a prominent Philadelphian, were married in Lock Haven, Tuesday evening. The happy couple will visit Washington, New York and Boston, after which they will make Philadelphia their home. Success to them.

Those of our patrons who have kindly responded to our request for material aid, in whole or part of their accounts, have our thanks. If any others that may yet bear our needs in mind make us a remittance they may appropriate to themselves a liberal share of our thanks.

Mr. Donachy, artist, of Lewisburg, has obtained the contract for frescoing the new Lutheran church in this place. Mr. D. has done some fine work in Lock Haven and other large towns, and the work in the church here is to be of the finest class.

The Boalsburg Modes returned from their hunting expedition in the Seven Mts., on Friday, with five deer and a large bear. Their party numbered fifteen men, and their success this season keeps up their good record.

The Pocahontas, in Record, 12th, says: Mrs. Sarah Harpster, of Centre Hall, Pa., arrived at this place yesterday. She is a sister-in-law of Mrs. H. W. Bissell, and intends to pay the Bissells an extended visit.

For $2 in advance we will send the REPORTER one year and the NEW YORK WEEKLY WORLD six months. The two papers for the time named, for $2. This offer we make to induce advance payment.

At Sept. 1 our stock of zephyrs, yarns, embroidery and knit goods, and everything pertaining to the line of fancy work, will be complete and as good as formerly was at our old stand before the fire. GOLDSMITH BOOKS.

FROM COBURN.

Times are pretty brisk about here. The grain business is picking up. The potato boom is over and the barley boom has taken its place—Whitmer & Lincoln are loading a car and S. R. Gettig has a car load about ready to ship; they are paying 55 cents for No. 1 barley.

There was quite an excitement here when we heard the news that J. Harvey Smith was waylaid and robbed in Williamsport. Items in newspapers say that he had been on a spree, etc. That must be a mistake, for Harvey was a strict temperance man and a perfect gentleman in every respect. The writer has known him for several years and shared his company many times, and never saw him take an intoxicating drink of any kind. This statement the citizens will all be ready to verify. Harvey has been doing business here for over a year, and is much thought of. The papers have done Mr. Smith a big injury. At last account he was at his home in Ashland doing as well as possible. We are anxious for his return.

W. A. Kreamer has moved into his new mansion, and it is a nice and cosy place of which he can feel proud.

Judge Ard is putting the finishing touches on his house but don't intend occupying it until spring.

The Vanderbilt house has changed hands. Mr. Jacob Reed is sole proprietor, and has contracted with Jacob Winkelteich and Tom Smith to finish it till March. The Parker house had two additions added to it.

Whitmer & Lincoln have put a roof over their scales. Thus you see improvements are going on in all corners.

The E. V. Association has had a series of meetings going on for the last two weeks.

Mine host, Joe Kleckner, says biz has been rather dull since camp.

The telephone works nicely and all are well pleased. It is a handy arrangement. O. K.

AARONSBURG.

There is a water fight at the western end of town—if it breaks out there may be a rise in grain.

We lose one of our mechanics soon, Howard Homan, who moves to Centre Hall this fall.

The change in post-master was a good one—Mr. Yearick is one of our best Democrats, and always at his post.

Our people keep discussing next summer's centennial, glad the Reporter worked it up so well.

The oldest lady in our town, Mrs. Emanuel Ettinger, is in feeble health. Mrs. Foster and daughter, Maise, Mrs. Coburn, and others, took in the Moody meetings at Bellefonte last week and don't regret the trip and time spent.

Cold feet—two feet of snow. Bad cold is settled on the lungs. Good cure—Dr. Kessler's Celebrated English Cough Medicine.

Dr. Sawbones says the surest way to take a cold is to be always hugging a stove. Young man, remember this, and when you go to see your girl on Sunday night don't spend your time hugging the stove, but if you do get a cold Dr. Kessler's Celebrated English Cough Medicine can be relied upon to cure you.

Did it ever occur to you, thoughtful and prudent reader, that Dr. Kessler's Celebrated English Cough Medicine must be an article of real merit, or how could the manufacturer ever be able to advertise "money refunded to dissatisfied purchasers." Said by J. D. Murray, JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & Co., Philadelphia Agents.

It will not disappoint you. It is the best article known for purifying the blood and building up the health and strength. For 25 years erysipelas broke out in blotches on my face. I found no cure until I used Parker's Tonic two years ago. It is the medicine for me.—E. C. H. nov

Whisky and the Weed.—When it becomes clearly understood that Dr. Richmond's Samaritan Nerve is not only a specific for epilepsy, nervous diseases, liver and kidney diseases, scrofula, and a host of other disorders, but also an infallible, thousand-cure will use no and call the discoverer blessed $1.50 at druggists.

"We do not have to recommend Parker's Hair Balsam but once," writes C. A. Burger, druggist, of Liberty, N. Y. "After that it stands on its record." It stops falling hair, restores original color, softness and gloss. Exceptionally clean, prevents dandruff. nov

For the wonderful preparation, Kessler's Catarrh Remedy, the absolute and positive cure for catarrh, malacia, skin diseases, dyspepsia, rheumatism and all blood diseases. Its success is remarkable.

Aver's Sarsaparilla works directly and promptly to purify and enrich the blood, improve the appetite, strengthen the nerves, and brace up the system. It is in the truest sense an alterative medicine. Every invalid should give it a trial.

For rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia, cramp and colic there is no remedy superior to the genuine Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil.

TO THE CITIZENS OF CENTRE HALL.—The Centre Hall bakery is better than ever prepared to furnish its customers, and all others, with fresh bread, rolls, cakes, &c. All kinds of cakes kept on hand or furnished on short notice. You can see the sign. M. WILLOW.

"O yes, O yes!"—If you have a sale to cry, Jas. N. Leitold, of Spring Mills, has the lungs, wind and tact to put it through for you to your utmost satisfaction. His large experience as an auctioneer puts him to the front in that business.

Merchant tailoring in all its branches done at the Philad. Branch. A tailor of long experience superintends all work, and utmost satisfaction guaranteed. if.

Our stock of fall and winter wools is now in, and on all orders for the next 30 days, we will allow a discount of 10 per cent. GOLDSMITH BOOKS.

Rev. S. W. Pomeroy will preach in the Presbyterian church, at Centre Hill, on Sabbath morning, next, at 10:30 o'clock.

Merino hosiery and underwear—Garmans. 011

Hoods, mitts, little socks, children's knit socks—Garmans. 011
