

SOLD HIS WIFE FOR $2.50.

Troy, N. Y., Dec. 1.—For nearly twenty years George Wolff has worked a farm on shares in the town of Schaghticoke. He was the possessor of a wife weighing 225 pounds. A year ago Augustus Ham was given employment by Wolff, and between Ham and Mrs. Wolff a warm attachment soon sprang up. Instead of working himself into a passion over the circumstance Wolff took a matter-of-fact view of the case and finally proposed to sell his right, title and interest in Mrs. Wolff to Ham. The proposition was accepted and the very reasonable price of 20 shillings was agreed upon. Wolff will sell his agricultural implements and go west. Ham and Mrs. Wolff remain in Melrose.

It is in order now for every manufacturer to praise and extol the virtues of his cough medicine, and claim it ever so much better than any other. On square business principles the proprietor of Dr. Kessler's Celebrated English Cough Medicine says if you are not satisfied with the relief and benefit obtained, if you do not consider it well worth the price paid for it, then take the empty bottle back to your dealer and get your money. Sold by J. D. Murray.

SOMETHING

More or less than five thousand different pills are on the market. Some good, some indifferent, many bad and worthless. Life is too short to try them all, so if you want to be absolutely sure you are right get McDonald's Improved Liver Pills, and if you are not satisfied with the amount of benefit received you get your money back. Sold at Murray's.

FOUND FROZEN TO DEATH.

Altoona, Pa., Dec. 1.—On November 23, a man named Adams, a resident of Cambria county, went hunting, taking with him a 13 year old son. At a point near this city the father started the boy back home and proceeded to Altoona. Adams reached his home two days later and was surprised to find that the boy had not returned. Next morning searching parties started to hunt for the lad, and this morning, after five days' search, they found his lifeless body in the woods, four miles from his home, having been frozen to death.

AN END TO BONE SCRAPING.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having tried and to such benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Having had a ruinous sore on my leg for 8 years, my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used instead three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at 50 cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c per box at J. Zeiler & Son's drug store, Bellefonte.

TOO MUCH OIL RUINS THE MARKET.

Bradford, Pa., Nov. 30.—The Gabby and the Genz wells, in Washington Co., were both reported as showing some oil in the day and night, and another well at Rebood Station, in Butler county, was rumored to be flowing thirty barrels per hour. These rumors were too much for the oil market, which melted away nearly 6 cents to 58 cents. The wells were completely demoralized, and a further drake is not improvable unless some bullish news is received or strong parties come in to sustain the market.

AN IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

The most important discovery is that which brings the most good to the greatest number. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, will preserve the health and save life, and is a priceless boon to the afflicted. Not only does it positively cure consumption, but coughs, croup, bronchitis, asthma, hoarseness, and all affections of the throat, chest and lungs, yield at once to its wonderful curative powers. If you doubt this get a trial bottle free at J. Zeiler & Son's.

There will be a blind member in the next Ohio Legislature. Happy man. If he were only deaf his lot might be envied by anybody.—Chicago Mail.

The Democrats who had turkey appreciated it; but there was many a good Democrat entitled to turkey who had none. Turn the rascals out.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

If Logan and Sherman get into a squabble over the Presidency of the Senate, what will become of the shirt? It is just now in a fair way to be so, to speak, ripped up the back.—Chicago news.

There is a suspicion abroad that Ruthvenford B. Hayes can keep his promise to attend Vice President Hendricks' funeral with perfect safety. Evidences of repentance are always acceptable.—Philadelphia Times.

You have often seen women with marked thinness and paleness of face, listless appetites, and a craving for unwholesome food. These are signs of a disordered liver, and the trouble must be corrected or worse results are sure to follow. Husbands and fathers cannot afford to treat this subject lightly. Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy" which dispels liver disease, costs less than sick wives and daughters. You will find it a very profitable investment. dec

Nearly every mine in the Hoeking Valley is working a full force of men and the strike is practically ended.

Through our luxurious and perverted modes of living, and from a course of excesses, diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs are now among the most common and fatal in this country. Men suffer from them most frequently and intensely. Their victims are falling exhausted by the wayside of life every day. Do you fear this end for yourself? If so, we can assure you of help by means of Dr. J. C. Ayer's "Favorite Remedy" and

THEY STUDIED HUMAN NATURE.

Some time ago a widow moved into Detroit from a town in the western part of the State. She brought with her a bulldog, which showed game in every movement, and it was not long before every butcher and sport in the neighborhood wanted to buy that dog. The widow wouldn't sell it at no price. The next thing to buying the dog was to get up a fight between him and another canine of blood-thirsty appearance, but the widow wouldn't hear of this.

"I want you to understand," she indignantly replied, "that I am a respectable woman and give no encouragement to such things."

Still, there were one or two men who did not despair. They began to conspire, and as a result they led a fighting dog into a barn near the widow's house the other day, and one of them paid a call at the house and said:

"In course we know how you feel about this dog fighting. We feel the same, but there's a woman across the alley who owns a dog which she brags on."

"She can't be no lady," was the retort.

"Exactly, ma'am, or she wouldn't speak of you as she does."

"Speak of me? Why, I don't know her!"

"In course you don't, and I should hate to tell you what she said of you."

"But you must! If she's talking about me I want to know what she says!"

"But, ma'am, you'll excuse me, you know."

"No, I won't! What does she say?"

"Well then, begging your pardon, she makes fun of your red hair."

"She does?"

"And she ridicules your dress."

"The vixen!"

"And she says she never saw such feet on a woman."

"I'll sue her for slander. I'll see a lawyer at once!" exclaimed the woman.

"We've got her dog in the barn, ma'am. It's a dog she brags on. She was a-saying that if her dog could only get at your dog once there—"

"But he can! You go into the back yard and untie Bravo and take him over there! If he can't whip any such woman's dog I'll disown him!"

"Exactly, ma'am, and you can trust me to see fair play. The arrogant head of such a slanderous, boasterous woman should be tumbled, you know, and it's you who'll do it."

The dog was taken to the barn, and he did not disappoint his backers. After a fight of fifteen minutes he was declared victor, and as the referee gave his decision the widow's voice was heard saying:

"Good! That pays her for abusing my hair! I'll fix her on the big feet before the week is out!"

She had been watching the fight through the cracks of the barn.

SHE SENT A POSTAL CARD.

She walked up and down the corridors of the postoffice for ten or fifteen minutes before she asked a citizen who was directing an envelope:

"Please, sir, would you write a word or two on a postal card for me?"

"Certainly, ma'am; where is it to go to?"

"To John Sessions, at Cleveland. Put Eq. after his name. I sometimes forget it, and it makes him mad."

"Your husband?"

"Of course. When I want a postal written to a strange man it will be a cold day. Now, then, begin with 'My dearest husband.'"

"I've got that."

"Say that I am all right, and baby is all right, and I haven't time to write any more."

"Yes."

"Then you'll want a P. S. that I have only $2 left, and I shall look for him to send me some next week."

"Yes'm."

"That'll be all, except to say from your true wife to my loving husband, and don't send less'n $5 and the baby weighs eighteen pounds, and the weather is still cold. Thanks, sir, I'll do as much for you some day."

WHAT BROKE THE ENGAGEMENT.

"Well, Mrs. O'Neal, have you made up your mind yet in regard to my proposal of marriage?" asked bachelor Doran of the Buxom widow.

"Well, I'll tell ye, Mr. Doran, plawat I'll do wid ye. I'll marry ye on the condition that when I die I be buried alongside of John, for I promised him that on his death bed."

"That's all right, Mrs. O'Neal. Of course you can be buried alongside of him, and I can be buried alongside of you."

"No, no, no, no! That would never do. John would murder me for that. The idea of havin' John on one side and me and the loikes of ye on the tother! No, sor. Divil the bit will I agree to that. Ye may give up the suit intirely now. I'll not marry at all at all. I wouldn't run any risk of havin' anyone slapin' wid John at me. Indade I wouldn't."

Mr. Doran is now going for an old maid.

"O, where are the girls of the past?" asks a poet. If you mean the far-away, dim and distant past, some of them are still in the ballet corps.

AFTER DINNER, NEW YORK OBSERVER.

Persons who suffer from indigestion can arrest the progress of that painful malady by the use of an after-dinner pill, so composed that it will give tone to the stomach, prevent heartburn, rouse the liver to healthful action, invigorate the kidneys, and thus, through the activity of these organs, promote the natural movement of the stomach and bowels. AYER'S PILLS are so compounded that their action, both a mild, effectually produces the above results. They also, in curing Constipation, remove the cause of Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Kidney Disease, Rheumatism, and many other serious ailments.

AYER'S PILLS

contain no injurious or poisonous substance, and do not grip, unless the bowels are irritated, and even then their influence is healing. To consume their effect in constipated or chronic cases, they need only be taken in diminishing instead of increasing doses. For women, and invalids or travelers in especially unwholesome countries where physicians are not at hand, they are of inestimable value. There is hardly a sickness they will not alleviate, and in most cases cure, if taken promptly. To young girls just entering upon womanhood, and to women whose period of maternity is drawing to a close, Ayer's Pills, in moderate doses, merely sufficient to ensure regular action of the bowels, will be found of Incalculable Value.
