—Mr. Jacob Wolf, an old and respected citizen, of Aaronburg, who for the last six years resided with his daughter, Mrs. B. O. Deininger, of Millheim, died on Monday, 7, after a lingering and painful sickness. For several days previous his death was momentarily expected and when it came his end was peaceful and serene. For months the patient sufferer was faithfully attended and nursed by his devoted daughter, Mrs. Deininger. Deceased was born in Haines twp., Dec. 18, 1813, and was the son of George and Christiana Wolf. He was married to Eve Stover, who preceded her husband May 25, 1877. They had three sons and five daughters, of whom two sons and two daughters survive their deceased parents.—Mrs. Rev. I. P. Neff, Mrs. B. O. Deininger, Alfred V. Wolf and Foster S. Wolf. The subject of this notice was a strict member of the Lutheran church at Aaronburg from his early youth and was an exemplary Christian gentleman. While his death was no surprise to his family, it still casts the shadow of deep grief upon them and in their sorrow for a beloved and respected father the writer offers his sincere sympathy. After wandering upon life's rugged path the weary pilgrim has gone to eternal rest.—Journal.

—Spring Mills had a sensation the other day. A stranger from Union county, who thought of playing sharper in Centre, forged a note for $20 and sold it to I. J. Grenoble. The forgery was afterwards detected and the fellow arrested; after a hearing before a justice he was committed, and as the constable was crossing a field with his prisoner to get to the cars and deliver him in prison, the fellow broke away and ran for dear liberty. The constable ran too and fired his pistol in the same direction, but the fellow got away with all the blood in his veins. Next day it was ascertained he had a "dear" in the neighborhood, and there he was found up to his knees in honey, and again taken in charge. He was detained to give friends in Union Co. a chance to settle the little trouble for him.

—Sop's Westfall has been doing his utmost to run his train over the L. & T. road so as to afford the people along the line every possible convenience. We would suggest, however, that instead of running a freight train from Sunbury to Spring Mills, to relieve the passenger train from some of the work of handling freight, the freight train be run thro' Bellefonte. The same crew could do the work with no additional expense except the fuel consumed over an extension of 23 miles. This would enable the morning train to get into Bellefonte at 9 a. m. and connect for Lock Haven and Tyrone. Returning it could leave at 2:30 p. m., instead of 1 o'clock, and make Montandon same as now. This would give people over five hours to do business at the county seat instead of 2½ as now.

—No other town in the county has improved as rapidly as Centre Hall during the past year. The Reporter sums up the improvements during the year and places the same at a cost of $50,000. There has been about a dozen houses, a planing mill, grist mill, church, depot, a number of shops, store rooms, and other buildings erected within the past ten months. The Reporter truthfully states that a town is largely judged by the character and extent of business men in advertising. The Reporter has been doing its best to boom the town, and deserves credit for the interest it has awakened.—Democrat.

—Dairymen from the lower counties, New Jersey and from near New York are purchasing large quantities of bran from the mills in this section of the state, which is fed to their milk cows on account of the great milk producing properties of bran. One large dairyman from near New York informed the editor last week that their cows received very little other food besides bran, and that our farmers in this section had not yet learned the value of bran. We give our farmers the hint—will they catch on the idea?

—During the holiday season every family treats itself with more luxuries than usual. To prepare for this increased demand Wm. Wolf & Son have bought an unusually large stock of fancy groceries, canned and dried fruits in many varieties, California honey by the jar, pure rock-candy syrup by the can, evaporated apricots, pared and unpared peaches, French and Turkey prunes, oranges, lemons, cranberries, figs, crackers, and cakes in great variety, in addition to their well filled stock.

—At the February election all boroughs and townships will elect a tax collector who receives all state, county, poor, road and school taxes. He receives 2 per cent, unless when the duplicate is under $1000, in which case he gets 3 per cent. There will be 5 per cent off for all who pay over within 10 days of advertised notice of same. This is a good law, saves money, and gives the taxpayer 5 per cent. for being prompt.

—Murray, the druggist, this week opened the finest lot of suitable Christmas goods ever seen in this valley, including Christmas cards, dressing cases, music boxes, toilet sets, odor cases, saving banks, games, toy guns, bird cages, surprise boxes, toy cornets, ink stands, and many other articles to please the most fastidious person.

—They have been having a suit in Hartleton over hunting deer with dogs. Messrs. Fry, Harmon, Bell and Himmelreich were arrayed before Justice Rondaugh, and the Millburg Telegraph has the Magistrate dismiss the case without hearing the evidence. Hon. Charles Wolfe contends that the law is unconstitutional.

—Vendue crier Jas. N. Leitzel, of Spring Mills, gave us a pleasant call. He ain't hoarse a bit altho' crying a baker's dozen of sales this fall. He is getting himself ready for a big cry in the spring campaign, when his "going, going, gone" will echo around the barn yards where vendues are on the carpet.

—Sunday morning a fine brisk snow set in, which soon was three inches in depth, with a rather chilly atmosphere. Before noon, however, it turned into rain, and it continued to rain the rest of the day and the following night. Monday a damp, chilly wind prevailed, with an unsettled sky.

—Every town has some bad boys, and there is a fifteen-year-old one in jail at Lewistown for placing obstructions on the railroad track a few minutes before a passenger train was due. Timely discovery prevented a terrible wreck and loss of life.

—Mr. Henry Gast, of this place, was recently in Centre county for a day or two, and while there learned something about a big snake, which can be relied on as being true. He says that a man named Schrack, who had been to Union county with a load of shingles, on returning home through Brush Valley Narrows discovered something ahead of him in the roadway, and stopping his team he went ahead and discovered it was a large black snake coiled around a hawk. He attacked the reptile with an axe and hatchet, cutting it in three pieces, and then found that the hawk was still alive, which he captured and took along home. The three pieces of snake were laid end to end and measured seven feet, which fact is verified by gentlemen who witnessed the measurement. Whether the hawk attacked the snake or vice versa is unknown, but Mr. Gast adds it is known that hawks have already made war on snakes. In this instance, however, the snake was a little too much for the hawk.—Millburg Telegraph.

—SHORT HAND WRITING.—An old teacher is just offering to the young people of Centre Hall and vicinity an opportunity to learn the art of short-hand writing. When it is known that the system offered is one pronounced by many old reporters, in other systems, the briefest, the simplest, the easiest to write and the most legible, and that proficiency in the art offers to young ladies and gentlemen an opening to employment, both very pleasant and remunerative, we should deem for the project a most deserved success. We hope our young friends will take this opportunity by the forelock. Terms are very reasonable.

—It is the fault the people that they continue to be annoyed and robbed by tramps. A rigid enforcement of what is commonly known as the "tramp law" of Pennsylvania would soon rid every community of the pestiferous presence of the "birds" who are increasing in number throughout the State and adding crime to indolence.

—The Reporter's office was raided by Rector M'Clain, Recorder Bible, Sheriff Walker, ex-Sheriff Dunkle, Treasurer Smith—the entire court-house noisily—on Tuesday. Fortunately they were accompanied by Mr. Gerbrick, and all passed off pleasantly.

—Prof. Auman's class in short hand writing took their first lesson in the art, Monday evening, and express themselves delighted with the work and say the Professor is a good instructor. Now is the time to join the class. The terms are certainly very liberal.

—Read Kennedy's adv. in another col. He means business and is not afraid to advertise it in flaming letters. He has opened in his new room with an assortment of watches, jewelry, silverware, lamps and sewing machines that is a credit to the town.

—Fine, fresh and pure groceries for the Christmas and New Year's season, a large stock at Lewis' celebrated grocery, in Humes' block, Bellefonte. If you want something nice and good, as well as low in price, always call in at Lewis' grocery.

—Another victim is added to the long list of condoling farmers who have been "taken in and done for" by genteelly dressed and smooth-tongued sharpers. He lives in Lancaster county, don't read the newspapers, and is now mourning the loss of $250.

—The work of evangelizing the inhabitants of Welsh Mountain, heretofore known as "Bozzard's Roost," still continues. A school is in operation, the gospel is preached occasionally, and the colored missionary performs his work faithfully.

—We have a favor to ask from our readers, which, if granted, we will accept with all the pleasures of a Christmas gift, viz.: Pay on arrears before January 1, '86, and open the New Year with square accounts. Now do.

—A Chester farmer was aroused the other night by a noise near the house, and seizing a gun fired at some moving object which he supposed to be a burglar. An examination showed that he had shot his own horse.

—Gents wanting a handsome calf shoe, kid top, all solid leather, for $2.50, or a solid calf boot for $2.50, or a good Waukegan shoe for $2.75 go to Graham's, corner store, Brockerhoff row, Bellefonte.

—There is considerable corn to husk yet, on some farms—see consolation, it will turn in warm some time next spring, when such farmers can boast of husking two corn crops in one year.

—The Reformed parsonage is completed and occupied by the pastor. No doubt bro. Land feels himself cozy housed and by this time become familiar with the corners.

—Few persons know it but there is a law on the statute books of this State which formally requires housekeepers to scrub their pavements every Friday. It was passed in 1767.

—In referring to the death of Mr. John Hoffer, in our last issue, we mentioned that he was born near Centre Hall. This is an error, he was born in Lebanon county.

—The season for skating accidents has now opened. Two deaths, the result of popping through air holes in the ice, have already been reported by country newspapers.

—Lewis' grocery, a few doors below the post-office, has the finest stock of confectionery ever seen in Bellefonte. The selection was made especially for the holiday season.

—We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Harry Kreamer, upon whom a difficult surgical operation was performed in the removal of two tumors, is slowly improving.

—Ex-commissioner Mingle, of Aaronburg, favored the Reporter sanctum with a visit and brief call. He reports things O. K. in that part of the vineyard.

—Mann's axe-factory, at Bolling Springs, is soon to go into operation again. Archibald Allison, of Pottery Mills, has taken an interest in the works.

—John Kennedy has moved his jewelry store into the hotel building. He had the old Wolf store room remodeled, and is now in comfortable quarters.

DR. PETER SMITH.

About a Deceased Centre Hall Physician.

About thirty-seven years ago Dr. Peter Smith came to Centre county to practice his profession, together with Drs. Wilson, VanValzah, Neff and others. While the latter were proficient in the surgical department of the profession the former during his thirty years of steady and successful practice was unparalleled in healing the many different sores to which the body is subject, including cuts and all flesh wounds. The many remarkable cures were all effected by a salve which he compounded and known as Dr. Smith's Salve. The salve is yet made from the same formula by S. W. Smith and for sale by J. D. Mur ray, Centre Hall, and other druggists.

For colds, croup, asthma, bronchitis, and sore throat, use Dr. Thomas' Eucletic Oil, and get the genuine.

—Hankchiefs at all prices at Wolfe's. They make appropriate Xmas presents.

—Girls, buy your gentlemen friends a neck tie at Wolfe's and they will give you half a dozen extra sleigh rides this winter. Try it.

—The crowds attracted by Lewis' window, Bellefonte, are so great that the police have difficulty in keeping the pavements clean.

—Everything for the holidays, candies, nuts, oranges, white grapes, figs, &c., at reduced prices—Lewis, Bellefonte.

Physicians prescribe Keller's Catarrh Remedy for it is the only remedy on the market that will positively cure Catarrh, that troublesome and prevalent disease with which so many persons are afflicted.

Some remarkable cures in this vicinity, of long continued and obstinate diseases, are attributed to McDonald's Blood Purifier.

The entire inside of the house is plastered and good as new. The barn is also new. There is a mountain spring near the house, and an ORCHARD of choice fruit on the tract. The land is under a high state of cultivation. Will be sold on above terms. The property will be offered for rent. Sale at 1 o'clock, when terms will be made known. G. W. GINGERICH, Executor.

CAUTION.—Having purchased the following articles belonging to John Neff, of Centre Hall, at constable's sale, Saturday, Nov. 12, all persons are hereby cautioned against meddling with the same as I will leave them in his possession at my pleasure: All furniture in kitchen, 10 ba. potatoes, churn, 12 chairs, 3 beds and bedding, iron kettle, griddlestone, etc. 1 bay mare, 1 horse, 1 mare, 1 cow, truck wagon, sled, plow, top buggy, and spring wagon. NOTICE TO TAX-PAYERS.—Whereas there is a general opinion prevailing among the tax-payers throughout the county that a collector's warrant is good for two years, they have the same length of time in which to pay the taxes. Tax Collectors frequently complain to us that many persons make this a pretext for refusing to pay their taxes until they are actually forced to do so, and these being generally such as are best able to pay. We therefore submit for your information the following Act of Assembly of April 12, 1884, in relation thereto: "Every collector shall, within three months after receiving the correct duplicate, pay into the hands of the treasurer of the property, county or township as the case may be, the whole amount of the taxes charged and assessed in such duplicate, excepting such sum as the Commissioners, or Supervisors and Overseers, as the case may be, in their discretion, may exonerate him from, on pain of being answerable for and charged with the whole balance remaining unpaid."

You will readily see by the above Act that tax collectors are required to pay in the full amount of their duplicates, within three months after the duplicates are placed in their hands.

JOHN WOLF, J. C. HENDERSON, A. J. GRIEST, Commissioners.
