HOUSEHOLD &C .- TOAST .- Toast is very palatable and digestible when properly prepared. Many seem to think that they have made toast when they brown the outside of a slice of bread. Have they? The object in making teast is to evaporate all moisture from fire to singe does not accomplish this; it only warms the moisture, making the inside of the bread doughy and deslices a quarter of an inch thick, trim ter than for three years past, off all crust, put the slices in a pan or plate place them in the oven-which when a delicate brown, and butter at once. FOR LAUNDRIES .- In cases where it is feared that soap may change the color of an article, as for instance, scarlet hosiery or lilac prints, if the garment be not badly soiled, it may be cleansed without washing, or without soap, in water which pared potatoes have been boiled. This method will also prevent colors from "running" in washing prints.

WORTH KNOWING .- Ten grains of iodine, dissolved in an ounce of turpentine forms a solution eminently successful in the treatment of ringworm of the scalp, after the parts have been thoroughly washed and cleaned. It is a painless application, and may be applied at any age and to any part.

THE illusions of the stage are curious. Ida Mulle is four and a half feet long and thick trough to be babyish in shape. There is nothing adult in her outlines and her manners are infantile. She sang three years ago in a juvenile opera company, afterward acted Cupid in several burlesques and this week is venturing as a heroine in a drama. But she is a little humbug. Her age is twenty-four; she is a wife and mother. Her seeming immaturity is her fortune, for she has no talent as an actress and depends for success on her odd adaptability to little girlishness. She was at first a puzzle to the dudes, who could not make up their feeble minds whether or not to pay sentimental attention to her, and a shock to those who, getting close enough to encounter her family environment, were confronted by a good-sized husband. When the man of good intentions, Elbridge T. Gerry, of the Society of the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, enforced the law against performers under fourteen in this city Ida handed to him for perusal a birth record and marriage certificate.

MABEL -- "I do think strawberries are just the meanest things." Edith-"Why, how you talk. Strawerries are delicious.

"Oh, I was not referring to the flavor. I mean they are so exasperating." "In what way?"

"Why, early in the season, when it is considered the height of fashion to have them on the table, they are so horrible hard and sour nobody can eat them." "Yes, but---"

"And then when the berries do become real sweet and good they get so cheap that there is no style in having them."
