-The well known firm of Wilson & M'Farlane is dissolved as will be seen in another column-Isaac Mitchell retiring. The hardware store will be continued by J. Kyle M'Farlane & Co.

-----The women's war against the liquor traffic in Huntingdon county goes on with increased vigor. The agitators claim that there will not be a licensed house in the county next year.

--- Nary a sleigh bell was heard to jingle on Christmas and yet it was ever so fine a day. Now let us see whether the old saying is true, that a green Christmas brings a white Easter.

-Mr. John Conley is preparing to furnish the people of Centre Hall with fresh milk daily. A dairy at this place will supply a long felt want, and will, no doubt, prove a financial success.

-The fourth. lesson in short-hand under Prof. Auman's instructions, on Monday evening, consisted of writing a part of first reader from dictation. The class is progressing finely, as reported by all.

---- Mr. Frank Gilbert and Miss Damie Shrom, the latter a compositor in the Watchman office, and favorably known to the young folks about here, were married on 24th ult., at the home of the bride in Bellefonte. Congratulations.

Fischer, and he need never feel ashamed of them, as every lover of music will pronounce each of his pieces-and there are half a dozen or more-a gem.

THE INSTITUTE.

The Teachers' Institute, last week, was a very profitable one for teachers and visitors. We could look on but a short time, on account of a pressure of other business, but a glance at the program and what we saw, and what we heard from others who were in attendance, we sum up that it was of a high standard. Supt. Wolf knows how to render the Institutes both profitable and interesting, for he seems to have a proper idea as to what they should be. The large attendance of teachers and jam of visitors prove the growing interest in educational mat ters in this county, and Prof. Wolf is doing much to bring Centre county to the front ranks in this regard. The instructors were all persons of known ability and masters of the parts assigned them, as proved by the riveted attention they received

-The holiday exhibition in the post-
